

NEW SALEM.

This seems to be an off year with the farmers.

All the loose earth on our public highways was cleaned out by the late storm leaving our roads in a bad fix.

The following are down with the measles and under the care of a doctor: Henry Browster, three at Carter McDowell's, two at Frank James', one at Bunk Baker's, three at Clem Moran's, two at John Conyer's, one at Robert Carter's, one at Rufe Parker's and Mrs. Allen Kirk.

Married in Marion, June 3, Mr. J. W. Holoman, of Mexico, this county, to Miss Sallie Mahan, of New Salem, Judge Blackburn officiating.

This part of Crittenden county was visited Friday night, June 7, by one of the worst rain, hail and wind storms in forty years, doing thousands of dollars damage to crops, gardens and timber. Some farmers had their entire crops ruined. The hail was very severe, ruining corn, tobacco and garden truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Hodges visited in the upper part of the county Sunday.

Mrs. Monroe and family, of Milford, are visiting Mrs. Monroe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter.

Some men go around with their heads bowed down saying we are all going to starve this year. As for us, we look on the sunny side and think of better days coming.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free book now Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

Picnic at Springs.

Last Thursday a gay party of young folks drove to the Crittenden Springs for a picnic outing. The day was ideal and the young folks enjoyed it very much, engaged in baseball and pool and many other innocent diversions.

Freight Wreck at Repton.

One of the most disastrous freight wrecks which has ever occurred on this division of the Illinois Central Railroad, took place Monday morning at 3 o'clock at Repton switch, five miles north of this city. A north-bound freight was taking the siding when a south-bound freight run into it and derailed and demolished both engines and several cars, and the property loss is up in the thousands. All trains were delayed and transfers of mail, passengers and baggage had to be made noonday trains Monday, both ways.

MARION MILLING CO. INC.

M. Schwab has moved to the Long property recently vacated by G. L. Dial who has moved to the Deboe house which he occupies with Mr. Pollard. H. F. Morris, who resided there, having moved to the K. E. Cannon place on Walker street.

C. S. Knight, the Fort Wayne, Ind. capitalist, is quite ill at his rooms in the Stegar building. He is troubled with congestion of the stomach, which coupled with rheumatism has made him a very sick man. He was reported better Wednesday.

We keep step with the progressive age in which we live. R. F. Dorr, the funeral director and embalmer has ordered a new pavilion tent, for use in the cemetery in case of hot or inclement weather. This is a much needed addition to our old reliable undertaker's equipment for conducting a first-class funeral, and should be duly appreciated by his patrons. Mr. Dorr now has $1000.00 worth of paraphernalia for funeral occasions to make them elegant, quiet and dignified as every one likes to see such affairs so conducted.

Stunned by Lightning.

Jas. Newton Walker the little son of Mr. and Mrs. David Moore was considerably stunned by a flash of electricity which played over the city Wednesday afternoon. He was standing in the door when the explosion came, and was knocked backward and insensible. His mother thought he was dead and hurriedly called a physician and alarmed the neighbors. By the time the Dr. reached there a few dashes of cold water in the face and a little rubbing had brought the little man around all right. The town was all excitement for a while and it was a good while before it all subsided as the clouds and wind were very threatening looking and the air was heavily charged with electricity.

Ladies Take Warning.

One of our neighbors came home a few days ago, when his wife asked him to do a little hoeing in the garden. He consented and in a few minutes came in the house and washed the dirt off a quarter, which she said he found. A little later he returned with a half dollar, which he had dug up, said he was tired and would take a little nap. When he awoke, he found his wife had hoed the whole garden and had found no money. Then it dawned upon the wife that she had been worked.—Uniontown Telegram.

SYLVESTER PIKE DEAD.

Uniontown, Ky., June 8.—Sylvester Pike, one of Union county's wealthiest citizens, is dead, having passed away at Jeffersonville, Ind., where he had been confined in a hospital for several days. He was struck by a train several years ago and did not recover entirely.

Mr. Pike's death was due to uraemic poisoning. He was about seventy-two years of age, and several sons and daughters survive him. The remains were shipped by way of Henderson last night, and brought to this city over the Illinois Central railroad.

Mr. Pike was prominent in banking and commercial circles here, and took considerable interest in farming. The funeral services will be held in this city, probably, Monday.

Never Mind Italy or the Alps.

"Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," has been the theme of many a girl graduate, and many more have given surprising information to overwhelmed audiences. A Kansas girl, however handles the subject in somewhat original manner. She is represented as uttering these worthy sentiments.

"I don't care a cent whether Italy lies beyond the Alps or in Missouri. I do not expect to set the Alps on fire with my future career. I am glad that I have a good education, but I am not going to misuse it by writing poetry or essays on the future woman. It will enable me to correct the grammar of any lover I may have should he speak 'dorgs' in my presence or 'seen a man.' It will also come handy when I want to figure out how many pounds of soap a woman can get for three dozen eggs at the grocery.

"So I do not begrudge the time I spent in acquiring it. But my ambitions do not fly so high. I just want to marry a man who can lick anybody of his weight in the township, who can run an eighty-acre farm and who has no female relatives to come around and try to boss the ranch. I will cook dinners for him that won't send him to an early grave, and lavish upon him a wholesome affection and to see that his razor has not been used to cut broom wire when he wants to shave. In view of all this I do not care if I get a little rusty on the rule of three and kindred things as the years go by.
