Some Correspondence Regarding the Hargis Trial at Sandy Hook.

In view of the misleading statements published in regard to the recent trial of Judge James Hargis at Sandy Hook, and the recent communication in the Courier-Journal from Mr. A. Floyd Byrd, Mr. Edw. O. Leigh, the Governor's Secretary, today gave out the communication below from Mr. John M. Waugh, the Commonwealth's attorney, and Messrs. Byrd & Jouett, the employed attorneys representing the prosecution:

June 1st, 1907.
J. C. W. Beckham, Governor,
Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Governor:—After a conference with Byrd and Jouett, Attys., assisting in the prosecution of Hargis in Elliot county, I find that John A. Daugherty, who was selected by us at Sandy Hook to make orders in the cases, objectionable. All orders made in the cases there were agreed orders and I think binding and legal. I had no chance to confer with Byrd and Jouett before the case was set, and as the term of court was at an end we were compelled to do something.

The defendants and counsel offered to agree on any lawyer in the state that we would suggest and are yet willing as I understand it.

Daugherty I find out is no lawyer to speak of and probably not competent to try the cases.

I think if you know nothing to the contrary and I would suggest that Botts, of Owenton, N. C., Saufley or W. B. Moody would be entirely satisfactory to all concerned, some of them having presided before in some of the cases with entire satisfaction to both sides.

Governor, I hope you will consider these matters and men before issuing a commission in these cases.

Very respectfully,
(signed) JNO. M. WAUGH.

June 1st, 1907.
Hon. J. C. W. Beckham,
Frankfort, Ky.

My Dear Sir:—We have just had a conference with Mr. Waugh, Commonwealth's Attorney of the 32nd Judicial District, relative to the appointment of the Special Judge to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. James Hargis, etc. Mr. Waugh was here principally to see us relative to the appointment of Judge Daugherty and after going over the matter with him frankly told him that we preferred not to have Mr. Daugherty appointed as he was quite an old gentleman; that the case would most likely be hard fought and would require a man of energy and younger years. It is also a very important case from a legal standpoint and there are a number of fine points on evidence and other legal points which will arise during the progress of the trial. From our investigation we are informed that Mr. Daugherty is not so good a lawyer as one should be to take charge of a case of this character.

We were in conference quite a while with Mr. Waugh and tried to get you over the telephone so as to make an engagement to come to see you in Frankfort but Mr. Leigh informed us that you were in the country and would not return until tomorrow. Mr. Waugh is compelled to return to Grayson tonight and the writer will be compelled to leave for Magoffin county tomorrow to be gone some ten days or more.

Before leaving Mr. Vaughn wrote you a letter, setting forth his views in regard to this matter and especi-

Married in Elizabethtown.

Mr. Guy Givens, of Marion, Ky., and Miss Minnie Hoover, of Sheridan, Ky., came over Sunday afternoon and were married at the court house by County Judge J. H. Ferrell. The young couple are among Crittenden's best people. The groom is one of Marion's most popular young business men, while the bride is a cultured, amiable young lady, belonging to a good family, being a daughter of a prosperous farmer living near Sheridan. They were accompanied by Mr. Robert E. Wilborn, foreman of the Crittenden Press-Record, and Miss Mae Perry, "Angel" (type setter) of the same paper, who promised to return to Elizabethtown as soon as they reach matrimonial age.—Elizabethtown, Ill., Independent.

Republican County Committee.

Will meet at the Court House in Marion at one o'clock on Saturday, August 17, 1907, for the transaction of important business.

Dance at Crittenden Springs.

Monday night a gay party of the young society people went to Crittenden Springs Hotel where a most enjoyable time was had. The weather was delightfully cool, the music was superb and the party tripped the light fantastic until the "wee sma' hours" when all were invited to the banquet hall where a most sumptuous repast was spread and the entire party entertained as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson. This was a most agreeable surprise and the host and hostess were voted charming entertainers. Among those who attended the dance were:

Mr. Herbert Royalty, Miss Flora Snodgrass, Princeton, Ind., Mr. Will Clark, Miss Floreka, Evansville, Ind., Miss Sarah Sanders, of Paducah, Mr. Albert M. Shelby, Mr. Will Clifton, Miss Melville Akyn, of Princeton, Mr. Chastain Haynes, Miss Bertie Vivian, of Princeton, Dr. Frederick Stilwell, Miss Mary Larkin, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., Mr. Bruce Babb, Miss Ayers, of Princeton, Ind., Miss Charlotte Humphreys, of Mt. Vernon, and, Mr. Ray Flanary, Mr. Rob Cook, Miss Kittie Gray chaperoned by Mr. W. O. Tucker and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson.

Heavy Machinery.

Some very heavy machinery has gone out this week to Eureka mines and Manager Wagoner informs us that things will be under rapid swing at the mine within a week or two. We saw some very rich specimens of zinc that railway conductor, Mr. Dill, of Vincennes, Ind., who is one of the Eureka owners, brought to town in his grip Tuesday.—Hardin Era, Cave-in-Rock, Ill.

Felix Cox Going to Salem.

By a deal which was consummated last week the Pierce Hardware Co., of Salem, sold their stock and good will to Felix Cox, of this city. Mr. Cox will move to Salem at once and assume charge of the business and with the assistance of his son, Virgil, will continue the business at the old stand.

It will be the cause of sincere regret to many people that Mr. Cox and his estimable family have decided to leave Marion. The Salem people know him and are to be congratulated.

Saw Mill Sold.

Having sold my saw rig to Reynolds Bros., of Blackford, I will receive no more saw logs at the Planing mill. The Planing mill will be run as heretofore and we will keep on hand a full line of dressed lumber, sash, doors and blinds.

FORM PARTNERSHIP

Dr. Walter T. Travis Graduates With High Honors and forms Partnership with Dr. Frazer.

The many friends of Dr. Walter T. Travis, of Tribune, who recently graduated with high honors from the Louisville Hospital College of Medicine, will be glad to know he has formed a partnership with Dr. T. A. Frazer and will have his office in the Postoffice building, over Haynes & Taylor's drug store.

Dr. Travis has displayed signal ability in the preparation for the practice of his chosen profession and has many warm friends and admirers who are expecting him to make his mark in the medical world. The community, as well as his parents and friend, should be justly proud of the young doctor and while we mention the strides of progress he has made, we would not forget to mention that he has made a wise choice in the selection of a partner and the new firm, Frazer & Travis, starts out with bright prospects.

Another Victory for Moore Team.

One of the most interesting games of the season was played last Thursday afternoon, when the Fredonia base ball team played the Moore team on the latter's diamond. From the beginning the Marion boys did the scoring and not until the eighth inning did the Fredonia team make a score. Quite a crowd from Fredonia accompanied the boys and, when possible, did all in their power to encourage them.

Of course Marion was well represented and their encouraging voices continuously filled the air and it was a happy crowd that left the field at 5:30 o'clock. The score stood 7 to 1 in favor of the home boys.

The score we give below:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Marion . . . 0 3 1 1 2 0 0 0 0
Left on base, Marion, 2; struck out by Franks, 10; by Rice 4.

MARION MILLING Co., Incorporated.

Dies Thursday.

Little Frances Nama Baker, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baker, died of flux and fever at the home of her parents Thursday evening at 4 o'clock. She had been sick several days and all the medical science could do was called into requisition, but to no avail. Her death was a severe blow to her parents, who have the sympathy of everyone in this great bereavement.

She was a beautiful child not quite three years old and was the picture of health until her fatal illness. The funeral took place Friday afternoon at the residence and was conducted by Rev. J. P. Price, in a feeling and impressive manner.

The interment took place at the New Cemetery.

Teacher's Institute.

The Crittenden County Teacher's Institute will convene at Marion, Ky., August 19, 1907, and continuing five days. All who expect to teach in this county, and those who want their certificates to remain valid, will be requested to attend the entire session. J. B. PARIS, Co Sup't.

Dr. Trisler Here.

The above announcement will please the many friends of the genial Doctor. However when they learn he is here to take his family to Missouri, there will be many protests. Dr. Trisler recently went to Charleston, Mo. and has since decided to locate there, hence his trip here at this time. He came to attend to the details about moving his house hold goods and to take his family. They will leave one day this week. Dr. Trisler and each member of his family have always taken a leading part in church and social matters and they will be much missed here by many friends. Here's wishing you unbounded success in your new home, Doctor.

Burtis-Kosminski.

On Sunday, July 14th Mr. John M. Burtis and Miss Minnie Kosminski were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at Pontiac church by Rev. W. R. Farrow.—Munford, Tenn., Times.

Crider-McNeely.

Married—August 1, Mr. Burk Crider to Miss Pearl McNeely; Rev. W. F. Paris officiating. Mr. Crider is the grandson of the late Dr. W. B. Travis and a prosperous young farmer of the eastern part of the county. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Prof. J. B. McNeely, of the Piney community.

May happiness and prosperity follow them through life, is the wish of their many admirers. H.

PEOPLE'S BANK

Select James F. Ramey to Settle up the Business of the Bank—Has Much Experience

Mr. James F. Ramey, of Eddyville Ky., who was selected to wind up the affairs of the Peoples Bank, is active vice-president of the First National Bank, of Eddyville, and two and a half years ago organized the First National Bank, his selection to liquidate the Peoples Bank was due to his phenomenal success as a banker and his intricate knowledge of banking, many of the depositors at this place having suggested him and the choice was unanimous among the stockholders for his selection to wind up the affairs, pay off the depositors of the Peoples Bank. The bank will pay the depositors in full within a few days, through the First National Bank, of Eddyville, and the stockholders will be settled with as rapidly as collections are made. Mr. Ramey has retained the services of cashier Edgie Gregory to assist him with the work of liquidating.

It is quite a compliment to our fellow-citizen, Mr. Jas. F. Ramey, in being appointed liquidator for the Dycusburg Bank, but his wide business experience and success in finance fits him for the work. Mr. Ramey is vice-president of the First National Bank, of Eddyville, and stands high in the esteem of Lyon county people. Progressive in his ideas, shrewd in business, honest in his dealings with his fellow-men, affable and generous he has won many friends in financial circles of Western Kentucky. Eddyville is justly proud to own his citizenship and owes much of her strides toward a new and greater Eddyville to his energy and business integrity.

In honor of Miss Irene Browning, of Rose Clair, Illinois, who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ada Cavender, and Miss Mary Lucile Kennedy, of Hopkinsville, who was the guest of Miss Anna Allen Elgin, Miss Madeline Jenkins and Master Robert gave a lawn party Tuesday evening, of last week, to which were invited the following of their little friends, besides the guests of honor:

Anna Elgin, Fannie Blue, Kattie Yates, Gwendoline Haynes, Marian Clement, Maude Flanary, Nannie Rochester, Bertha Rankin, Mildred Rankin, Varnie Coffield, Mary Coffield, Mira Dixon, Elva Pickens, Alma Asher, Katie Yandell, Mildred Trisler, Gussie Burgett, Susie Boston, Mammie Love, Edith Burton, Grace Taylor, Katie Stephenson, Mildred Moore, Virginia Blue, Ruth Dollar, Ruth Melton, Bertha Seipman, Edna Clark, Linda Jenkins, Orlin Moore, Galen Dixon, Sylvan Price, Ben Moore, Gray Rochester, Emmett Clifton, Rhea Love, Coleman Foster, Dudley Nogle, George Orme, Cecil Taylor, Ira Sutherland, James Carlloss, Raymond Olive, Herbert Rogers, Raymond Olive, Elmer Franklin.

The spacious grounds had been lighted by Japanese lanterns, with electric lights in terspersed, and was a most inviting place for the young folks to enjoy the games and different plays they engaged in.

Miss Browning favored the company with a choice recitation, which was enjoyed by every one who heard it and which evinced her great talent in elocution. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, consisting of chocolate cream and cake, cherry and pineapple frappe was served throughout the evening by Miss Fannie Blue, who presided quite gracefully at the punch bowl.

Miss Nelle Sutherland entertained Tuesday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss May Sigler of Morganfield. The lawn was beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns and presented quite an attractive scene. The refreshment served, were ices and cake. Those present were:

Misses Lizzie Gilbert, Irene Browning, Mabel Yandell, Sallie Joe McGehee, Maude Gilliland, Grace Moore, May Sigler, Lora Johnson, Messrs. Creed Taylor, Emmett Krotinsky, Clarence Gilliland, Gray Rochester and Maurice Sutherland!

Miss Ina Price entertained Tuesday evening from 6 to 8 in honor of her little music class, each member of which was asked to bring some one with them, when they had all arrived and those they had invited, there was a yard full. The evening was a most delightful one to all present for where can there be a more inspiring scene, than a children's party on the lawn on a summer day? Little girls, in each her best "bib and tucker," and little boys in knee pants and hearts as light as the air. Their laughter and the music of their voices drowning all else. Little Miss Tommie Canway won the prize, a handsome doll, ready dressed. James Howerton won the boys prize, a horn. Miss Mamie Haynes serve the punch throughout the evening in the contest.

Little Miss Rena Heath entertained on her sixth birthday, Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Quite a number of her little friends were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. Misses Lillie Guess, Dessa Clark and Lillian Heath helped entertain the little guests. Ice cream, sherbert, cake, bananas and candy were served.

Miss Ina Price entertained the young society set at her home on Walker Street, Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. Among those present were:

Misses Lena Holtsclaw, Alma Asher, Elva Pickens, Marya Dixon, Hazel Pollard, Reva Hill, Velda Travis, Messrs. Herchel Ramage, Emmett Clifton, Aubrey Cannan, Galen Dixon and Sylvan Price.

Miss Mammie Haynes served frappe to the guests as they arrived. The girls prize, a hand painted card case, was won by Miss Lena Holtsclaw and the boys prize, a box of candy, was won by Emmett Clifton. Delicious refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, sherbert and cake.
