Fletcher Henstep has been sick for ten days and when he got up today and went out in the field, he was surprised to see how much his corn had grown.

We are fixing to write an article, entitled the "Reflections of a Lightning Bug." It will be rather light and flighty.

After a fellow gets a reputation for getting drunk, the public suspicions him every time he stumps his big toe.

A move will soon be started to have all the barber shops close at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoons to give the barbers a chance to shave and fix up for Sunday.

Yam Sims attended the eclipse of moon on Musket Ridge Thursday night. Poke Hazley didn't get to see it as he had his umbrella hoisted.

There is a possibility of a feud breaking out near Rye Straw between Tobe Mosley and his relatives, on one side and Ellick Hellwagner and his people on the other. Some very bad blood exists between the two and there will likely be trouble if they don't both doctor up on sarsaparilla.

Shade is a great blessing. It is our only refuge from the sun.

The young sport these days has a heap of trouble keeping his pant legs pulled up sufficiently for a proper display of his summer socks.

Raz Barlow has returned from Buzzard Knob with twenty rounds of ammunition to be used at the dance Saturday night.

A puzzling mystery hung over Tobe Mosley's buggy all the week until today. Every time he rode in it he would drop off asleep and could not understand it. But today after a tedious examination, he found that somebody had fastened a lot of bed springs under the seat.

It was so hot Sunday the Hog Ford preacher had to cut his sermon down to an hour and thirty-eight minutes.

The Hogwallow postmaster has been so busy he hasn't had time to sit down a half a day this week.

Ellick Hellwagner while drunk today bought himself a pair of large, red yarn socks and some ear muffs.

The shells on all kinds of eggs are very thin, which is indicative of a warm summer.

Makin' the best o' the world, old boy,
Though the storm-flags are unfurled
Ever along,
With your heart in the song--
Makin' the best o' the world!

Somewhere the dreams will all come true,

And the joy in a dream imperaled;
Ever along,
With your heart in the song--
Wakin' the best o' the world!

Question grave on every hand
Promises new vexations;
Trouble with the neighbors and
Rumpuses 'mongst the nations
Make it look like things might be Goin' to perdition.

Guess it's all too hard fur me,
Come on; let's go fishin.'

A very slim fellow whose home was in a nearby cabin, hung over a rail fence by the roadside and a passing stranger asked:

"What is the trouble?"

"S-h-h. Be easy. Don't bother me. I'm having a chill. Don't pester me. I am awful easy disturbed and when I get flustered my chill stops right then. That would be all right if it was the last of it, but the thing breaks out again the next day where it left off, and if you stop and get me all flustered now, why there'll be the tail end of the chill to come tomorrow, and that won't do, because I've got four already to finish up tomorrow.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptom will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. J. H. Orme.

Children in Pain.

never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and began to thrive at once. Give it a trial. J. H.
