CATARRH IS CURABLE.

Successful Experiments in Abating and Curing this Disease.

Catarrh is an entirely unnecessary disease and should not be tolerated for a single day now that Hyomei is so generally known and has made so many cures in Marion and other towns.

Until comparatively recent times catarrh was thought to be a blood disease and stomach desing the only treatment. Modern science finally disproved this idea of the cause of catarrh, and found that it was a germ disease and, after many experiments, the remedy was decided to be Hyomei.

Hyomei medicates the air you breathe; it kills the catarrhal germs; it heals the smarting and raw membranes of the passage in the nose and throat; it cures all catarrhal troubles.

As there is life and health in the air in the mountain-tops where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams, so there is life and health in breathing Hyomei. There is no need of suffering from Catarrh if the simple and natural treatment of Hyomei is used.

So sure is this treatment to cure even the worst cases of catarrh, that Always Hear Same News.

The late Richard Toomes, who, dying at 99, was the oldest Odd Fellow in America, used to be very proud of his great age. At the Odd Fellows Home in Philadelphia he liked to discuss longevity.

"I am a nonagenarian," he said one day to a visitor. "In my youth I never thought I'd become even a septuagenarian or an octogenarian."

"Speaking of octogenarians, I remember a conversation that I overheard when I was a young man between two little relatives of mine."

"The younger, a boy, said to his sister: 'Mary, what is an octogenarian?' 'Well, I don't know just what they are,' said the little girl, 'but they must be awfully stinky creatures. You never hear of 'em but what they're dying.'"—Exchange.

WHEN THE BO...

It's agin' all laws o' fishin' an' farnest th' book o' rules; Scientific anglers scorn it as the instrument o' fools! But, durn me, I jist like it, spite o' that there city snob— For there's nothin' like a bobber, An' I love 'em bob!

When th' sun is risin' yell'er an' th' birds is wakin' up, Fillin' all th' world with singin', fillin' full joy's brimmin' cup— Then I sort er git excited with my hick'ry pole an' bob An' I tickle in my denims When I see 'em bob!

Ain't no use fer fancy tackle, bristol rod, 'er whirrin' reel Gittin' tangled like o' whiskey makes a feller's brain cells feel— But, gee whillikens, I'm happy with th' risin' o' the sun When th' bobber gits to bobbin' And the string in 'er be!

First she trembles on th' water an' th' circles broaden wide, Ripplin' inter baby billers, spuffin' onward with th' tide; Then she jumps like all creation, does that jiggin' teet'rin' cob, Gittin' me all flushed an' flutt'rin' bob! Count o' that there bin' bob!

An' when night comes I turn homeward, loaded down with string o' fish, S'prisin' all them city fellers—causin' them t' wish and wish They had thrun away ther riggin', reel an' all—an' smoked a cob, Fishin' like a "native" fishes bob! With a stick pole an' bob!

THE SNOW MAN'S ROMANCE

1. A snow man made love to a pretty snow drift. Way down in the bayou where all was quite still.

2. He stretched it in his arms in a pleading of love. But this little snow drift was haughty and cold.

3. The snow man lived on in his own patient way Until the cold snow drift was softened and dead.

4. Then, suddenly, burst through the dark clouds overhead A heat that was called by the South Wind the Sun!

5. It melted the man that was moulded of snow. It dashed all the pretty snow drift to a foam!

6. And gladly their lives did the two lovers join. To sing in a river forever, ahoy!

By The Old Road Bridge

There's a heap o' joy in a linen string an' a bamboo pole an' bait On the bayou bank by th' old-road bridge, when th' day is gittin' late!

No, it ain't so much that th' big fish bite er th' shiners jerk th' line. But there's heaven there in th' eventide, an' a quaff o' sunset wine!

Then th' golden glow o' th' painted west is a deep'nin' fast to red! An' th' chirpin' birds say their sweet good night as they flutter off to bed!

List th' low of cows, an' the whistling boy as he plods behind th' herd! Ah! there's peace an' rest in th' twilight time when th' leaves are scarcely stirred!

An' it's with yer while it be livin' then, jest to sort o' dream and wait On th' bayou bank by th' old-road bridge, when th' day is gittin' late!
