Many a Kentucky Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Kentucky. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

Mrs. L. Varall, living at 923 Fifth St., Louisville, Ky., says: "I am happy to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and other members of my family. I frequently had attacks of backache and kidney trouble before using your remedy, but after using two boxes of the pills the trouble was entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many of my friends for I attribute my present good health to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They certainly do all that is claimed for them."

Mist Falls on Spot Where Bartley Died

Glasgow, Ky., Oct. 26.—Several hundred parties arriving here to-day from Glasgow Junction, ten miles from here, report a strange phenomenon at that place which is mystifying the people of that unusually quiet little town and is simply inexplicable.

On the exact spot where Van Smith killed his half brother, Bill Bartley, last May, a fine mist, amounting to almost rain, has been falling for the past four weeks, at least it has been noticed that long, but may have been falling longer. The fact has startled the residents of that section and surrounding country and as the report spreads interest increases. The place on which the mist is falling is some twenty feet across and includes the exact spot on which Bartley fell when shot by his half brother.

Among those who were at the place yesterday were J. A. Conyers, Senator J. C. Gillenwaters and Oscar Seay, who while waiting for a train heard of the strange mist and went to view the spot. Mr. Conyers, who is well known as a recent appointee in United States Marshal George Long's office at Louisville, and a prominent politician, was seen, and when asked about the matter said that he visited the place and found something like a hundred persons gathered there, discussing the puzzling phenomenon. He walked slowly across the place where the mist was falling and said in that time his hat was wet and the rain shown perceptibly on his clothes. When asked how the people explained the presence of the mist, he replied that they did not explain it at all, as they knew of no explanation. Senator Gillenwaters and Oscar Seay, a well-known Louisville traveling man, tell substantially the same story.

BETTER THAN MEDICINE

Breathe Hyomei's Tonic Healing and be Cured of Catarrh.

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, a treatment that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine.

It is the healing oils and balsams of Hyomei which medicates the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, and restoring health to the mucous membrane.

In using Hyomei you are treating your catarrhal troubles with the only natural remedy, for it gives a curative air bath to the air passages that has as powerful healing and antiseptic effect as that found in the mountains where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams. Breathe the invigorating and healing Hyomei, and see how quickly you will get relief from your catarrhal troubles. Haynes & Taylor have seen so many cures, even of the worst cases of catarrh, with offensive breath, rising of mucus, frequent sneezing, droppings in the throat and spasmodic coughing, that they feel warranted in selling Hyomei under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. They take all the risk.

"On Relieving One's Mind."

Here is a good bit of philosophy from Harper's Bazar, which I cheerfully commend to our readers' careful consideration and use. It chimes well with Grace MacGowan Cooke's article on "Strength," in September Nautilus. Ponder this—

"Nothing weakens the mind more," said a clever woman, whose home was conspicuously happy, "than to relieve it. I used to, so I speak from experience. When I began house-keeping, I relieved my mind freely. That was why I could not keep any servants for the first three months were enough in that direction. But John remained. He could not give warning, so I relieved my mind to him after I learned not to do it so often to the cook. John said nothing, but he commenced staying out evenings, and as I before remarked, I am not a fool, so I determined that I would not relieve my mind for six months. In a week I realized the difference. My mind was more active, under the load, than it really had been ever before. You see, it had to meet things without complaining to them. At the end of the six months I no longer wanted to relieve my mind. I knew better. If you take the pressure off an engine, where is your power?"

Her philosophy was sound. A relieved mind may make its possessor more comfortable, but it makes everybody around uncomfortable. Half the family jars, half the changing of servants, are caused by the men and women who keep control of her speech is the woman who also keeps her servants—and her husband.

Bell Mines.

From the Sturgis News-Democrat we clip these items which concern all the Bell mines section of this county as that whole section, of Union, Crittenden and Webster counties is underlaid with black diamond awaiting development.

Supt. W. H. Pollard, of the Bell circons men, who had secured possession of the "greatest show on earth," and that henceforth it would be run in connection with their other arctic enterprises. The sale was made in London yesterday.

The transfer of the Barnum & Bailey show to the new managers places the five Ringling Brothers at the head of the circus business in America and leaves them practically without a real rival in the world, they now having under contract the original Union Coal Co., claims the mines be in the best condition since being opened, and, but for want of railroad cars, would be running 300 tons daily. New entries are being driven which make room for more men all the time. These mines are prepared outside to handle an output of 2,000 tons per day which will in but a short time be run from this up-to-date colliery.

The Bell Coal & Coke Co., owned by Col. W. W. Smith, J. T. Gifford, of this city and Col. T. J. Scott, of St. Louis, is now being made ready for a run. This company, to the number of acres, own the most valuable coal lands in Kentucky. In fact will be the only mines in all this section running the genuine celebrated Bell coal. Several years ago these mines were opened and the nice tipples on the banks of Tradewater almost made ready for running coal, but for some cause work was suspended until now. Quite a little town has been built and we learn it will be but a short time before the company will be able to make creditable runs.

Pressing Down Pains

are a sign of serious female complaint, that should have immediate attention.

If you begin in time, you can generally treat yourself at home, without the need of consulting a physician, by the regular use of Cardui, the well-known remedy for women's ills.

Composed of purely vegetable and perfectly harmless medicinal ingredients, being, besides, a gentle, non-intoxicating, strengthening tonic.

WINE OF CARDUI

relieves all female complaints.

"My wife," writes John A. Rodgers, of Hampden Sidney, Va., "was nothing but a walking skeleton, from female trouble. She suffered agonies with bearing-down pains, backache and headache. Doctors failed to relieve her, so she took Cardui, and is now entirely cured."
