Announcements.

We are authorized to announce JOHN L. GRAYOT as a candidate for Commonwealth Attorney of the Fourth Judicial District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE J. F. GORDON as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Judge of the Fourth Judicial District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For the first time in the 31 years the Record-Press has fought the "good fight" in the interest of the people of Marion and Crittenden county, it goes to its thousands of readers as a Semi-Weekly. We are making this change much sooner than was expected and much sooner than our readers expected. That they will appreciate our efforts to give them the best twice-a-week paper in Kentucky we are sure. While the paper will be but half the size of the weekly, it will contain no patent, or plate matter and come to your houses twice in each week, Tuesday and Friday mornings.

That Marion is one of the best towns and Crittenden one of the richest mineral counties in Kentucky, forced us to the conclusion that she must needs have one of the best papers in the state, consequently we are before you and to stay.

The Editorial columns of the Record-Press will be used in the best interest of people of Marion, and the neighboring towns and counties. We are against the saloon evil and do the very best to help banish it from the state. If we are forced to give the evil doer —ll, we shall do so in a gentlemanly way. Nothing will even be said with the intention of wounding the feelings of any one, but mind you, the law-breaker, circumvented by the influence of the rich, who does what he does with the knowledge and belief that his position in life will save him, will not look one whit different to us than the man of low estate. But we want clean interesting news and will, God helping us, fill every available space with such.

Now since we go to the trouble and expense to give to you a live, twice-a-week, come to our aid with your renewals. If you do not take it do so at once, and induce your neighbor to follow your example and you will be a prominent factor in making the paper second to none. There will be no change in price. One dollar to all and in advance. Any widow in the county who is not able to pay for the paper, can have it free by making the fact known to the editor, which request will be kept private.

Calmes, down at Marion, has one of the most prosperous-looking papers in the Pennyrile. He has already convinced the merchants that the way to stir up new business and to keep the old business at home is to advertise. And they are doing it. The merchants are using full pages with Calmes, which is not had for Marion —Henderson Journal.

Thank you Bro. Harris. This is a compliment from home and to the merchants of Marion as well as myself. Having been treated so courteously by you while in your employ, and realizing the value and influence of your paper throughout the Second Congressional District as well as the greater portion of the First, such a compliment to myself as well as the people who are standing by me, is worth more than money. The advertising age is on—the man or firm that advertises what he has overshadowed the man or firm ignoring the use of printers' ink. The merchants here, one after another came to me with an honest confession as to the amount of good results from their ads, and when they do this I feel doubly paid for my effort to please them. These ads are bringing people to Marion that have not been coming here. For instance, a two horse buggy, made in your city, a wagon, and lot of nice furniture was sold last week to people 25 miles from Marion, who would likely have gone elsewhere. The merchants of Marion are an enterprising, thrifty lot of thorough business gentlemen and are keeping a high class line they are not afraid nor ashamed to advertise. A newspaper backed by such men will soon save the country from the Sear & Roebuck class of mail order houses.

IMPROVEMENTS.

A stroll down Bellville Street a few days ago opened our eyes to the spirit of improvement pervading the citizens on both sides all the way from Main Street to the I. C. railroad. J. B. Hubbard, Cashier of The Farmers' Bank, has just completed a nice concrete pavement in front of his nice home, as well as to it from the front. T. J. Yandell, Cashier of the Marion Bank is also beautifying his home by adding rooms in front and raising on a solid brick foundation.

J. M. McChesney the popular merchant on this street, has built a new addition to his grocery and feed store.

Mrs. E. M. Frisbie is having her nice home repainted and otherwise improved. J. N. Boston, the well known lumber yard man has just finished some tasty improvements to his splendid home, and as a whole, the people on this street are bestirring themselves that they may outshine their neighbors.

We respectfully call attention to the note of warning to violators of the Sunday ordinance from our worthy mayor. Surely, as God's goodness and mercy has sustained you thus far you need His Day for rest, that you may be better prepared for the duties of the coming week. If it be that your neighbor, from his own negligence, is the cause of you opening your store, refuse him and he will respect you the more for it. You need not fear losing trade by it, as a business with God in it never fails.

The Crittenden Record-Press last issue contained five whole page ads. of different firms of the city of Marion. Live merchants like those will bring Marion in the front ranks and people looking for a location will always turn to a town that shows prosperity. Editor Calmes with such support will have one of the best country weeklies in the State. A live newspaper makes a good town and it takes advertising to make a good paper. —Caldwell County News.

OUR MERCHANTS DRAW TRADE TWENTY-FIVE MILES.

J. M. Polk, of near Dycusburg, was in Marion Thursday and while here bought a Studebaker wagon of T. H. Cochran & Co., and some nice furniture of Nunn & Tucker. His brother E. E. Polk, accompanied him who bought a nice two horse, Geo. Deiker buggy of T. H. Cochran & Co. As these gentlemen came 25 miles to do their trading it is surely evidence that the man who keeps the goods and advertises them is the man that gets the business.

Delightfully Entertained.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the season was given by Mrs. Mollie Dulaney and Mrs. Kelley Landes Tuesday evening at their charming home in Fredonia, Ky., in honor of Mr. Clayborne Rice, of Seattle, Wash., who has been visiting relatives here for the past month. The spacious living room that has been the scene of so many happy occasions for the young people was filled with a more joyous company, with a perfect floor and excellent music by a three piece band, and at the late hour of 1:30 the sweet strains of "Home Sweet Home" was played and encored several times by the gay crowd, and as the last notes died away, Mr. Robert Scott, of Dycusburg, caught up the air at the piano and once more the sad sweet waltz was danced again.

In the dining room a most delicious punch had been served through out the evening from Mrs. Dulaney's famous Isaac Walton bowl. There the guests repaired for a last cooling draught and with many expressions of appreciation of the delightful evening, took leave of their adorable hostesses.

Those present were—Misses Mary D. and Ida Turley, Mary Louise Myers and Dr. R. H. Moore, of Crider, Misses Nancy Helm, Pauline Hutchinson, Gladys Wilson, and Mr. Wiburn Ray, of Auburn; Miss Mary Wyatt, Messrs. Guy and Howard Rice, Compton Moore, and John Hughes, of Fredonia; Mr. Clay Rice, of Seattle, Wash., and Messrs. Robert Scott and Charlie Cassidy, of Dycusburg.

Warning to Road Overseers.

The last grand jury deferred indicting Road Overseers until the November term in order give them a chance to get their roads in good condition for travel, under section 5443, new Kentucky Statutes it is a penalty of $5.00 to $25.00 for any overseer to fail to keep his road in good condition for travel, to be recovered either by indictment by the grand jury or before the county Judge. The Court will call the next grand jury's attention especially to the condition of the roads, so get your roads in condition now before the season expires.

CARL HENDERSON, County Attorney.

The "Mine" M. E. Fols, Prop. Ladies and Gents Furnishings, Full line of Queens Ware, China, Granite and Tinware, Lamps Jewelry and Stationery.
