W. C. Rymers, proprietor of the "Airdome" is giving the best entertainments in the electric theater line ever given in the city. His shows are good every night and they are attended by the best people of the town. Mr. Rymers now proposes that if the merchants of the town will pay for the band of music for Thursday night of each week and for his films, that he will give a free show each week on that night against walls of the court house. This will be liberal on Mr. Rymers' part, but he wants to do it to show his appreciation for the good treatment the people of Marion have given him.

It Takes a Wise Man to Play The Fool In a Modern Circus.

"It takes brains to play the fool" So the equestrian director of the John Robinson shows said when asked concerning clowns and clowning. "I have been in the circus business all my life, and during that interesting period have, like an actor, played my parts. I have made a close study of the profession and particularly the clown department, for there is nothing to a circus without a clown.

"It has come under my observation that the brainiest performers always make the best clowns and produce fun that is not only wholesome but makes the man, no matter how discontented with the world, forget his troubles temporarily and dissolve his hardened features into a grin. When you compare the actor with the clown, the latter has a handicap regarding his methods and facilities of bringing forth laughs.

"The actor has the author to thank nine times out of ten for some 'fat' part. Then, too, he is enabled to say things that produce fun, and which or not his own. But take the man behind the whitened face and he has nothing to help him but his gestures, his nimble legs and his art of contorting his face as to bring mirth. It's real work to make them laugh without any aid whatsoever excepting the few items I have mentioned. Furthermore, a clown must be born, he is not made or manufactured.

"For instance, take Marco, the premier 'joey' of the Robinson shows and he would be the last person in the world you would pick out as a professional jester. He is the soberest appearing one you ever saw on the street. Yet he has but to walk from the dressing top to the big show and I laugh. There is something about that stride that is funny, and when he allows the toy balloon, to get away from him and sail through the air, crying after it I have seen the spectators almost fall off the seats with laughter. Out West I remember one lady could hardly be stopped. Now, you let some one else try that same trick, and it's not funny at all.

All the funny clowns will be here with the John Robinson Shows at Marion Friday, Sept. 10th.
