The Missing Word Contest.

Do not fail to look for the missing word to be found by reading the Marion ads. The guesses coming in up to Saturday noon, will be placed in a hat and well mixed, and the first correct guess drawn, by some disinterested party, blindfolded, from the hat, will receive the one dollar. Send all guesses to this office and be here at three o'clock for the drawing. Drawing Sat. Sept. 25th.

Mr. Jno. Mulholland, of New York, who is President of the Fairview Fluorspar Co., was an honored visitor in Marion last week, as was Mr. D. C. Roberts, of Chicago, who is interested in the same and other mines in Crittenden. They were in caucus with the members of the company here and are very much encouraged over the future prospects of the fluorspar industry of Crittenden county. They have both money and faith in the rich lead, zinc and fluorspar deposits of Crittenden county, and feel the future prospects to be unusually bright.

WILL BE BUSY WEEK.

Fully appreciating the honor which will be conferred upon St. Louis by this assemblage, the Centennial Association and its co-workers are making every effort to provide appropriate entertainment, and the wives and daughters of the visitors will be especially cared for.

The week will be a busy one for the mayors and those who accompany them, from the day of their arrival, Monday, Oct. 4th, until their departure six days later. For them it will begin with a reception and a luncheon the first day and will include a banquet, attendance at the Veiled Prophet ball and facilities to see all of the other chief events of the celebration. Among these will be grand pageants daily, and great balloon, airship and aeroplane races.

The reception Monday will be held at City Hall by Mayor Frederick H. Kreismann, who is President of the Centennial Association.

Immediately following, at 12:30 p. m., a luncheon will be given at Hotel Jefferson by the Civil League, and other noted visitors who may have arrived will be asked to attend. After the luncheon an important conference will be held at which the principal topic of discussion will be the "commission" form of municipal government. It is expected that talks will be made by mayors of cities in which the plan already is in operation, notable among which are Des Moines, Iowa, and Galveston, Texas, and opponents of the plan also will speak. The advisability of further formal conferences is under consideration by the officers of the League. It is probable that at least one more, Tuesday afternoon, on subjects to be selected, will be arranged.

An invitation to and souvenir of the Veiled Prophet ball will be presented to each mayor who accepts an invitation to attend the Centennial celebration. The ball, Tuesday evening, will be held this year in the beautiful new Coliseum, instead of the Merchant's Exchange, permitting a larger and more comfortable attendance than ever heretofore.

The Business Men's League, the chief organization of business men in St. Louis and one of the strongest bodies of its kind in the United States, will be host Wednesday evening at the Coliseum at what will be known as the "American Mayors' banquet," at which the visiting mayors and their wives and other prominent guests to the number of 2,200 are expected to be present. Many other elaborate events of a public nature and free to all will fill out the week.

The Centennial Association has secured reduced railroad rates from virtually all parts of the United States, including the Pacific Coast, for Centennial week.

CITIZENS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16, 1909.

Bulletin No. 37.

The total amount of stock subscriptions received at the close of this bulletin is $1,003,980.

The general impression about the life insurance business is that everybody is insured. Some people even wonder how a company is able to write any more insurance.

As a matter of fact, statistics show that eighty-seven out of every one hundred insurable men in this country do not carry any life insurance at all. Eighty per cent of those who die leave nothing, ninety per cent leave less than $1000.00, and only five per cent leave over $1,000.00.

The annual income of the people of this country from all sources is about Fourteen Billion Dollars. While only four per cent of this sum is used to pay for all forms of life insurance policies, yet about eighty-eight per cent of all the estates left consist of life insurance money. Not more than fifty per cent of our people are crowned with ultimate business success. Ninety-five per cent meet with failure at one time or another, while ninety-seven per cent of those who reach the age of sixty-five are dependent upon themselves or others for support.

In the fifteen Southern States, which pay out annually Ninety Million Dollars for life insurance premiums, only 8.44 per cent of insurable lives are in fact insured, and the average for the United States is only 12.52 per cent.

That a magnificent field is open to the Citizens National Life Insurance Company. The treasure house from which it will have to grow is practically limitless, and as rich as the mines of the fabled Golconda.

We have received hundreds of letters since the publication of our bulletin began but none of them has hit the nail so squarely on the head as a letter received in today's mail. It was written by a stockholder in the Citizens Life who is at present in the North, and we quote the letter in its entirety.

"I get the bulletins every day and think they are calculated to create plenty of enthusiasm, and an excellent means of educating the Southern people up to what they have been sleeping over for forty-six years—a want of independence. Success to the organizers of the Citizens National Life is resending the South from the thralldom of the North and East. Since coming north and hearing the comments on the lawlessness of the South I am more opposed than ever to sending North and East for all our needs thus depleting our revenue, and increasing their dominion over us." REPUBLICANS NOMINATE

Hon. Clifton J. Waddell For Circuit Judge and Capt. Carl Henderson

FOR COMMON-WEALTH ATTORNEY

Form Caldwell County News

The Republicans of the Fourth Judicial District met in convention at Princeton on the 15th, nominating Hon. Clifton J. Waddell for Circuit Judge and Capt. Carl Henderson, of Marion, for Commonwealth's Attorney.

The convention was said to have been harmonious throughout, the two nominations having been made without opposition.

The convention was called to order by Chairman, Jno. B. Harvey, of Madisonville. Hon. A. C. Moore, of Marion, was made chairman of the convention and Hon. W. I. Champion, of Smithland, was chosen Secretary.

The large crowd seemed to be waiting for something and did not seem to be much interested in the opening of the convention, the appointing of committees or the committees reports. They were anxiously waiting for a more important part, every one apparently having their minds fully made up as to who they wanted for their standard bearers for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney.

Finally Chairman Moore stated to the convention that nominations were in order for Circuit Judge. At once the large crowd became all attention.

The Hon. Charles Ferguson, of Smithland, arose and was invited to front by the chairman. In a very appropriate and interesting talk, he addressed the convention on the conditions as they have existed throughout this section for some time past, the same being familiar to every voter in the district. He touched upon the present jury system, the one-sided condition of our circuit court, and in fact how utterly impossible it was to convict a certain class of lawlessness.

Finally Mr. Ferguson mentioned the name of Hon. Clifton J. Waddell as the one man to carry the party to victory in the November election, the one man who could give the people of this district what they asked for--a square deal, equal division of juries and an honest court. It was then that the large crowd broke out and cheer after cheer rent the air, and when Mr. R. B. Morgan, in behalf of Caldwell county, seconded the motion, and the nomination was made unanimously, yells for Waddell, Waddell could be heard on all sides. The fact that the convention went so wild over the very mention of Mr. Waddell's name, should leave no doubt as to the popularity and high esteem which the people have for that gentleman throughout the district.

After the convention was again restored to order, the Hon. Walter A. Blackburn, of Marion, in a few well chosen remarks, placed the name of the Hon. Carl Henderson, of Marion, before the convention for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. Again the convention went wild, and after the same was seconded by Mr. Morgan, in behalf of Caldwell county, there being no further nominations, the same was made unanimous.

The truth of the matter is that for a long time past the people throughout this section have had their minds made up favoring these two gentlemen, and all they ask for now is a chance to vote for them. The voters want them because they are honest, fair and will be true to the oath they will take when they enter upon their official duties.

After the above nominations were made, Mr. Jno. B. Harvey, of Madisonville, put a motion before the convention that the names of Mr. Waddell and Mr. Henderson be put on the ballot under the Republican device, the log cabin. The same was carried after which the convention adjourned.

It was common talk on the streets in this city last night and this morning that the Hon. Clifton J. Waddell was the cleanest that had been on any ticket in this section in a long time, there being no blemishes what ever against him from his boyhood days up to the present time, while the Hon. Carl Henderson is equally avastrious, the people having a high regard for him for the noble and fearless stand he has taken in their behalf in the past.

Really, the two gentlemen are sure winners and there is no mistake about that.

Here And There.

The county has been blessed with some fine rains recently, but not enough to furnish stock water.

What are you going to do about the stock law? Think about it and be sure and make no mistake.

The Cumberland Presbyterians will hold their Presbytery this year at Piney Fork, beginning Tuesday after the first Sunday in October.

Say, Bro. "Billy Joel," come on up with your end of the stick.

Our road overseers are getting their roads in fine condition, "good".

Hogs are scarce, and selling at a fair price. Buyers are picking up all kinds and paying a good price.

The people of the rural district are against the new school law regardless of politics or any other "sticks".

In a great many part of the county, stock water is getting scarce.

There is a protracted service going on at Emmas this week. Rev. E. B. Blackburn is pastor of this church.

A gentleman was here County Court day buying horses and mules to ship to Charleston, Mo.

Several of our citizens went to Princeton Monday trading--it being County Court day.

Bank Baker was in the city Monday. He was just back from a visit to his brothers, of the Sikeston, Mo., country. He speaks very highly of that section of country. We hear of a good many people in our county that are talking of going to that State.

We always know when Charlie Hays of Star, is coming into the city by the ringing of the bells. Oh, but the jiggle.

Everybody is well pleased with the new Editor, and we think he should have a fresh boom for we notice he stands for temperance, education and the upbuilding of our towns and country.

Birthday Celebration.

In honor of the fifth birthday of their son, Master Hicklin, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. They were: Elizabeth Cook, Ina Bigbam, Harman Bigbam, Euclyn Moore, Rudel Metz, Paul Ray Metz, Hazel Love, Clara Carnahan, Mabel Sutherland, Mary Doss, Louise Doss, Edwina Weldon, Richard Hicklin, Charline Weldon, George Clark, Morris Robinson, Harry Moore, Neville Moore, and Dorie Carter.
