The Crittenden Record-Press.

N. E. CALMES, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Entered as second-class matter February 9th, 1907 at the post-office at Marion, Kentucky, under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

ONE DOLLAR THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

GOOD MAN FOR STATE AUDITOR

Many of the leading, clean handed business men, as well as politicians, of the First and Second congressional Districts, are mentioning the name of James K. Waller of Morganfield as probably the strongest man the Democrats could possibly name for State Auditor in 1911.

Mr. Waller has at no time even intimated that he would seek the nomination, but his friends, who have known and admired him from boyhood, are sure to ask him and in such numbers that he can hardly refuse.

Mr. Waller's life is an open book.
From his early boyhood no one ever heard of his doing anything that would bring reproach upon himself or his friends or the blush of shame upon the cheek of his fond mother.
When but three years old he was deprived of a father's love and care.
But he had a great and good mother, whose devotion and christian training brought her a rich reward, for at the age of 14 years he joined the Methodist church, from which time, (24 years ago) he has lived a christian above reproach, obeying the commandments of his church and contributing to its needs more than any one else.

Mr. Waller at an unusually early age applied himself diligently to his studies so that at the age of 20 he graduated from Vanderbilt with high honors. Launching at once into the great busy world by applying himself industriously to business and adhering strictly to the christian training of his good mother, has climbed steadily to the top, now one of the wealthiest men in the richest county in Kentucky and for a number of years recognized leader in the financial world.

Mr. Waller is widely known throughout this end of the state and with fewer enemies than any man of our acquaintance. Should he be persuaded to make the race for the nomination he will make the people his friends as he meets them, as he is one of the most courteous gentlemen we ever met. All Mr. Waller will need to make friends will be to visit the various towns of the state.

He is now president of the Peoples' Bank and Trust Company of Morganfield, which is one of the strongest banking institutions in this end of the state. He is a safe business man, clear-headed, accomplished and with the backbone to do what is right, let it hurt who it may.
He has proven one of the greatest benefactors to his town and Union county and should he be made auditor of the state, the people will find no chance for complaint.

The big ditch known as the Quirey ditch, extending from the mouth of Eagle creek to the Cox bridge above Sturgis, a distance of twelve miles, established at a cost of a little less than $30,000, has been deemed incapacitated to handle the volume of water in flood time and after due deliberation on the part of the land owners, the ditch will be widened, deepened and lengthened, at an additional expense of a little less than $60,000. It is claimed the damage to the crops from overflows the past season along its course would easily have paid this additional assessment. There are some who feel to have been unduly taxed, and it is likely they have been, but everything will be righted and all will move off smoothly. This ditch has already made a wonderful revenue for Union county, but not the half it will make.
The new ditch will be made thirty feet wide and many times deeper than the present one. There are more than one hundred land-owners along its route.

Big Turnip.

G. W. Arfack, the turnip man, brought to our office yesterday a specimen of his crop. The turnip measured 12 inches in length and 15 inches in circumference. It was of the seven-top variety and it was estimated by the PAXSS force that, if properly cooked with a supply of bacon, salt, etc., it would make a square meal for a family of seven turnip-hungry people.

Revival Meeting at Fredonia.

Rev. Oakley assisted Rev. J. L.
Price, of Providence, in a revival meeting at Fredonia, beginning the 8th and closing the 16th. There were 40 professions and 17 additions to the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Others will join later on.

No people ever treated us nicer than did the people of Fredonia. We had the hearty co-operation of so many of the christian people. May God's blessings be upon these good people.
W. T. Oakley.

Teachers' Association.

The Crittenden County Teachers' Association will be held at Crayne

FORCED INTO EXILE.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung racking cough, that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his

Its A Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr.
King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, colds, and lagrippe vanish. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hem-orrhages cease. Dr. Geo. Moore, Black Jack, N. C., writes "it cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Jas. H.

Orme and Haynes & Taylor.

Thanks to the Voters of Crittenden County.

Words are not at my command to express my gratitude to the voters of Crittenden county for the loyal support they have given me

I have fought my battle to success on a high plain and have said nor done anything that would hurt the feelings of any one. I will work for the benefit of the county, regardless of the party whether or not they opposed me. Again thanking you one and all, I remain, Yours Resp't.
