GOOD ROADS.

The Crittenden Record-Press is pleased to note that the Mining interests of this county have responded nobly to the appeal through these columns for better roads. The following letter is one of many that shows the spirit of the mining interests for better things:

Louisville, Ky., May 22, 1911.

My Dear Sir:—Kindly mail me a subscription blank and the Eclipse Mining Co., will be glad to help in regards to building any roads over which it hauls.
We will be more than pleased to subscribe $100.00 to the present movement.

I hope you will meet with success. Respectfully Yours, ECLIPSE MINING CO.

by T. W. Leonhardt, Sec'y

This makes four donations from Louisville men of One Hundred Dollars each namely, Edward F. W. Kriser, A. & T. Pope, John Scheas and the Eclipse Mining Co. We also note that Mr. Ross Givens, proprietor and operator of the Corn Mines, gave One Hundred Dollars.

The contract has been let to Lawson Bros., of Marion, for 2000 yards of rock at 75 cents per yard. The other best bid was 90 cents per yard, f. o. b. cars at Marion.

BASE BALL

sion, adults 25 cents, children 15 cent.

AUSPICIOUS

Beginning Of Work On Marion's Twenty-five Thousand Dollar Church.

Arrangements for the laying of the corner stone of the New Methodist church are now practically completed, and will be carried out according to the programme printed in our issue of today.

Recognizing the publicity of this event the Banks and Business houses of the city have decided to close their places of business during the ceremony of laying the stone, viz: from 3:15 to 3:45 p. m., in order that their clerks, as well as the general public may have ample opportunity to enjoy the proceedings.

The procession will start promptly at 3 o'clock from the Masonic Temple, and the actual ceremony will begin as nearly as possible at 3:20. After the stone is laid the procession will then reform and proceed without delay to the Main Street Presbyterian church, where the principal exercises will be gone through.

The speakers from abroad will arrive Saturday morning on the 11 o'clock train, and will be met by the Reception Committee, consisting of Messrs. J. H. Orme, T. J. Yandell, S. M. Jenkins and J. C. Bourland, representing the City; T. A. Frazier, J. B. Kevil, J. L. Travis and J. G. Gilbert, representing the Masonic Fraternity; and C. S. Nunn, H. A.
Haynes, J. G. Rochester and Jno.
A. Moore representing the Methodist Church. The guests will be driven over our city and then taken to the homes of their hosts and hostesses prior to the commencement of the exercises of the day.

The visitors will be entertained as follows:—Rev. Dr. C. C.
Woods, by Judge L. H. James; Dr. Blackmer and Jno. B. Thompson, Esq., by Mr. and Mrs. J.
H. Orme; Jesse Whitworth, Esq., and W. E. Mathews, Esq., by Judge and Mrs. J. W. Blue; Jno.
L. Wheat, Esq., by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nunn.

In addition to the musical programme already announced, Miss Anna Haynes will sing a special piece; and the same lady will also sing at the service on Sunday morning in the Methodist church, at which the Rev.
Dr. C. C. Woods, of St. Louis, will preach.

Given fine weather there will doubtless be a large concourse of people present on this unique occasion.

STEAMER BURNS BUT NO LIVES ARE LOST

John L. Lowery Goes Down Near Smithland, Ky.,—Flames Light River For Miles.

Paducah, Ky., June 15—The steamer John L. Lowery, with fifty passengers aboard, burned to the water's edge off Hamlettsburg, Ill., at 1:30 o'clock this morning. There was no loss of life.

The place where the accident occurred is opposite Smithland, Ky., and rescue parties put out from the Kentucky side to aid in the work of saving life.
How the flames started has not been learned, but a faulty boiler is believed to have been responsible. The steamer started burning near the Illinois bank and the glare lighted up the water front on both sides of the river. The whistles of distress disturbed the stillness of the night and were heard for many miles.

The wildest of scenes were enacted on board the vessel when the flames were first discovered. Women shrieked and became hysterical, while many men frantic with fear, fought their way to the rails. All landed safe, however.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
