LETTER FROM CARRSVILLE, KY

Our Reporter There Tells Us Interesting Things About the Little City.—River is Falling.

The smallpox at Rosiclare and Fairview landing has obtained such a wide-spread distribution in those two places that the Carrsville Board of Health has forbidden the entrance of any person into this town from either place. This order is absolute. The twenty or thirty men living in Carrsville and working at the fluor spar mines across the river are now at home awaiting the raising of this quarantine.

Mining at Rosiclare it is stated will be resumed in thirty days or less as the mines will be unwatered by that time. The stock of fluor spar stored at Shawneetown will probably be sufficient to fill all orders up to the resumption of actual output.

Fairview has not stopped mining at all on their largest producer, the Blue Diggings shaft, and it is stated the opening at this point will yield ample tonnage for any unfilled or for the matter of that any new orders that may be received. This company is also opening a new shaft near the river and even in this flooded state of the country no trouble is experienced in keeping the water down and sinking the shaft at the same time.

The landing made by the steamer Lowery in one of the hardest winds of the season was gracefully done but in all probability Witherspoon's concrete fence at the foot of the hotel lawn was of great aid to the piolet in holding the boat, bets are being made here that this fence will not show up as very much of a fence when the water in the river recedes. The steamer it is thought was stonger than the fence. anyhow it sat upon it right smart.

"Take this away," said the guest to the waiter as the latter placed a boiled egg before him. "And what shall I do with it sir?"

"I don't care what you do with it," replied the guest, "but I would suggest you wring it's neck."

Nick Bridges brought in a drove of thirty or forty pigs, via packet to fatten on the moist Night Riders Burn Box Car.

A freight car on the Illinois Central railroad at Cobb, Ky., in which had been loaded seven hogsheads of hand packed tobacco consigned to a buyer in Clarksville, Tenn., was burned Thursday night by incendiaries, as believed, giving rise to some uneasiness that a revival of "night riders" is imminent. One report from Cobb is to the effect that the car and tobacco were burned by a band of men. Another report is that it was undoubtedly set afire, but by whom and just in what way is not known. In either event there is said to be no clew what ever as to who the firebugs were or their motives.

There were about 7,000 pounds of tobacco, and it is a total loss. While the burning of the tobacco bears all the ear-marks of the "night riding" of five or six years ago no serious import is attached to it.—Hopkinsville Kent.

New Pastor Called

The congregation at Main St. Presbyterian church has called Rev. J. F. Claycomb of Sturgis, Ky., as pastor for the next twelve months. Services every second Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Claycomb has accepted and will begin his work next Sunday, the 9th instant. He will preach at 11 o'clock in the morning and seven o'clock in the evening. Rev. Claycomb is one of the best known divines in this end of the state and is doing a great work at Sturgis where he has been pastor for two years. Every body cordially invited to attend his ministry.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Dear Sir:—
Please stop my ad. for fear I will sell my place too many times. A man was here before the ink was dry on the 1st issue of the Record Press. It is sold. Respectfully, corn. Bridges is certainly alive to live stock matters.
J. H. Brouster.

Some one suggests that the opportunity of a life time is now right here, bring in a lot of yeast and with the corn already in the river a wonderful amount of whisky could be produced very cheaply.

It is understood that Mr. Frank Hamby, the widely known real estate artist, is arranging for the resumption of our weekly newspaper.

More Marion gossip is heard in Carrsville every week than could be talked of in a town twice the size of Marion in any one month. Last week we had very good stories about a druggist, a dry goods man, a fluor spar miner, a Mason and an Odd Fellow. Very likely some of them were true, they sounded natural, at least.

Somebody said that the numerous churches here were well filled last Sunday, they ought to be thereis certainly enough of them.

Dr. Gardner performed several surgical operations on Albert Witherspoon last week. He handled the instruments of torture so painlessly that no one except Mr. Witherspoon really felt any unpleasant effects as each tooth was drawn. The rest of us did not mind it at all.

The river is now falling rapidly.

YEAR BOOK of Stark Bro's Nurseries & Orchards Co. MAILED TO YOU FREE

Just say on a Postal Card: "Send me a copy of Stark Year Book for 1913." When writing, also tell us how many trees, shrubs, vines, etc., you will probably plant this season.

This Year Book is more than a mere catalogue of Stark nursery products, it is a practical easy to understand text book for the guidance of the man who plants trees. Our own experience of nearly 100 years, the reports of experiment stations and the opinions of planters from all sections are condensed and reproduced for the benefit of busy people. An encyclopedia of orchard information, containing full size color illustrations of gloriously tinted fruits and many photographic reproductions in black and white; also information on many subjects in which the orchardist is interested.

Hundreds of varieties of apples, pears, peach, plum, cherry, apricot, quince, grape and all small fruits are described; weaknesses of each variety are pointed out and good points are explained. We feel that planters should know both.

Those interested in growing fruits or flowers or shrubs or shade trees will find this book of inestimable value; totally different from the average nurseryman's publications. It is a book you will keep for reference, and one on which you can depend as being absolutely accurate. Write today for your copy.

TECHNICALITY MAY BAR HIM

Unusual Question Confronts Col. Howell, Prospective Candidate.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 30.—William R. Howell, former commonwealth's attorney, may be barred by a technicality from making the race for the Democratic nomination for state senator in the Sixth district, composed of the counties of Christian and Hopkins. Senator R. M. Salmon has raised the question of Col. Howell's eligibility to enter the August primary on the ground that the latter has not been a legal resident of the district for twelve months. Col. Howell left his farm in Trigg county on last election day to make his permanent residence here. That was November 5. The election this year comes November 4, so the well-known Pen-nyrle orator would be apparently shy just one day of the period of residence required by the constitution. He had his plans made months ago to make the race and all arrangements to remove to Hopkinsville but stayed on the farm till election day so as not lose his vote for Woodrow Wilson in last November's election. Col. Howell has submitted the facts to a number of prominent Kentucky attorneys and will abide by their decision.

CHARACTERISTIC STATEMENT OF JUDGE GORDON

Says the Second District Is an Open Field for Aspirants

Earlington, Ky., Feb. 1.—Circuit Judge Flem Gordon says he has been misquoted in that he will make the race for Congress in case Stanley goes to the United States senate.

He says if he makes up his mind to run for Congress, he don't care whether Stanley goes to the senate or not, that he is "not looking for any one else's shoes" but wants a new pair, and if he decides to make the race, will run even if Stanley does run, and that the Second District does not belong to Stanley or any body else.

TURKS GIVE IN PEACE IS NEAR.

Adrianople is Sacrificed and Aegean Islands Left to the Powers.

Constantinople, Feb. 4.—The grand council of the Ottoman empire voted today to accept the proposals of the European powers for peace. These proposals include the ceding of Adrianople to Bulgaria and leaving the Aegean islands to the powers action.

The acceptance followed closely on the heels of the fourteen days' ultimatum for acceptance or rejection of the proposals on the part of the Balkan allies, and is thought to have been made after a realization by Turkey that the powers had the pressure which could be brought to bear upon the Ottoman empire to compel their acceptance of the terms.

It is now expected that rapid steps toward final settlement will be made, and the disbanding of the allied armies should be near.

Judge Nunn Goes South.

Judge Thomas J. Nunn of the court of appeals, left last Saturday for St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend a month resting. Judge Nunn is suffering physically from overwork and his conferrers prevailed upon him to take a vacation.—Frankfort State Journal.

TOBACCO SITUATION GROWS MORE CRITICAL

Public Sentiment Inflamed by the Purchased of Non-Pooled Weed.

Henderson, Ky., Feb. 2.—The tobacco situation has become more keen during the past few hours, and since the announcement of the Regie that they would open tneir factory Monday morning to receive non-pooled tobacco and even more has the public become aroused over the cancellation of half a million dollars of fire insurance which included a riot and night rider clause. All the tobacco companies have had all their fire insurance re-written in New York, and the new policies do not include this clause.

Unless the Stemming District Tobacco pool of twenty-five million pound is sold at the meeting Tuesday, new developments will likely occur.

being performed by Rev. E. M. Eaton at his residence. May peace and happiness attend them on their voyage through life.

Wants to Hear From Old Friends.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky., Jan. 31, 1913.

Enclosed find one dollar for which please send me the Crittenden Record-Press, for 1913. It was subscribed for, for me last year as a bridal present and as I will not be fortunate enough to receive it that way any longer, will subscribe for it myself, as I always enjoy hearing from my old home.

Best New Year wishes to the C. R. P., and its many readers.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Victor W. Johnson,
Route 4, Adairville, Ky.

Kentucky Wins in The National Corn Show.

In the National Corn Show held at Columbia, S. C., Jan. 28, Kentucky won the central zone and also the National Sweepstakes on the ten ears of white Dent corn raised by J. T. Henderson, of Shelbyville. There is a possibility of this corn winning the grand championship between the white and yellow corn which will be decided at this meeting.

No Friend Like an Old Friend.

Blackford, Ky., Feb. 14, 1913.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Dear Sir:—

Find enclosed check for one dollar to pay for paper for 1913 and oblige. I have been taking the paper ever since it was a paper. Wishing you continued success with your paper, I remain, your friend,

In Memory of Bro. Young.

The subject of this sketch was born in England, June 6, 1847, and was converted and joined the church in early life.

Uncle Hutch as many of us called him was a good man and loved by as many as knew him.

His health began to decline more than a year ago and continued to do so till death claimed him.

Some years ago he moved from the Tolu neighborhood to Wier, Muhlenburg, Co., where he lived until the latter part of 1912; then he and his family went to Murphersboro, Ill., where he died Jan. 9th, 1913. It was his request to be buried there.

He leaves a wife and three children by his last wife who was Alice McMican. Ed his oldest by his first wife who now lives near Lebanon, Ohio, and who is the wife of Foster Love who now resides in Murphersboro, where Bro. Young died. His wife and three children, Addie May Warthan and Jim Bigham are still with the daughter. Jot and Gabe his two sons by his second wife are in Los Angeles, California.

Bro. Young was a life-long Methodist and was loyal to his Church. Our church missed him when he moved away. We missed him as a neighbor and now that he has gone to heaven we shall miss him more and more.

May the richest benedictions of heaven ever abide with Alice and the children is our prayer.

HODGES CLOSE THEIR DOORS.

Will Receive no More Unpooled Tobacco at Present—Situation Growing Serious.

A critical situation was relieved Monday when Mr. Thomas Hodges, in behalf of the Hodges Tobacco Company, authorized the statement that no more unpooled tobacco would be received at the Green street factory.

The exclusive news in Sunday's Journal that all fire insurance in Henderson has been cancelled and insurance rewritten in New York without the riot clause, and that all arrangements had been made to throw open the doors of the lower Green street factory for the tobacco of independents, was a matter of general discussion all day Sunday.

No one questioned that the Hodges were acting clearly within their legal rights. But the question uppermost in every mind was whether the strained situation would stand this latest move on the part of the buyers without a volcanic explosion.

Great was the relief, therefore when on Monday the Hodges wisely arranged to close the Green street factory.

It was said, among other things that all local insurance carried by the Hodges has been cancelled and that insurance to the extent of nearly $350,000 had been taken out in New York, and that in this insurance there is no riot clause. In other words, the new insurance provides against trouble which might arise through the rather feverish state of the public mind just now with reference to tobacco.—Henderson Gl.

To Our Subscribers

All of whom we hope are our friends: The subscription lists of the Crittenden Press, the Crittenden Record and the Marion News which now amount to 5000 names are so unwieldy that we find it laborious to keep them posted up right unless each subscriber attends to his own renewal. We can't always send a statement before discontinuing one's paper altho we aim to do so and to give each person fair warning so they can renew. We have now several thousand of expired subscriptions due us which we shall be compelled to put out for collection. Won't you come in and pay your mite and thus save us the embarrassment of putting your small account along with a thousand others in a batch to be collected. THE CRITTENDEN RECORD-PRESS.
