THE COLYUM.

Making of good things we not overlook the fact that now has a baseball team reminds one the days of when it was the pride of team in western Kentucky at a game with Marion. Marion baseball is a healthy sport boosted by any community that the people of Marion should encourage the boys by their presence at the games.

Colonel Lee Vick is installing modern crossing over the ditch at the post office. Hope for material enough left by the little pile out by the "has-been" down by the railroad at Belleville street. It would be a good idea to live a little pile of material there so that strangers passing through Marion would at least think that a new bridge was getting feed, cow feed at Wheelers.

KNOWN IN MARION.

Threlkeld, of Fredonia, in an Evansville hospital Saturday morning as a result of a broken neck sustained Thursday when Paul Threlkeld hit him under the ear this morning.

A quarrel arose between the boys concerning a small store. Mr. Cox is said to have presented a remark which Threlkeld made concerning Cox's father to the effect that she lied about the purchase of a charged account. It is said that Threlkeld refused to retract his statement whereupon Cox struck him with his fist, unceremoniously inflicting a fatal blow on Threlkeld's head hit an iron post at a plan concerning the franchise. They were also appointed to investigate and look into plans for water works in Marion. An agent for fire extinguishers was present at the meeting but buying the extinguisher was not considered. There will be a call meeting in two weeks, on August 25th, for a report of the committee.

Both parties were very popular in Fredonia, and sympathy was equally divided. The boys lived next door to each other and have been friends for years. Threlkeld is the only son of Mr. Threlkeld. His father died many years ago. A big meeting with Mr. on the grounds anywhere in county without inviting more is going to be somebody off my visiting list. That is the unpardonable sin in this place.

Temperance Mfg.

Last Sunday afternoon three o'clock the temperance forces of Marion held a meeting at the Baptist church.

Rev. J. B. Trotter of the meeting with a few remarks after which C. S. Nunn, B. Yates talked for a time was decided to put over the election for statewide prohibition this fall and J. B. Trotter was selected chairman and W. P. Hogard secretary. An aggressive campaign is made before the election to make a saloonless Kentucky sure.

STATE MEMORIAL

For The Boys Who Lost Their Lives in The Great War.

A patriotic movement is now being organized in Kentucky for the purpose of erecting a State Memorial building to perpetuate the memory of those Kentuckians who lost their lives in the service of the country in the European war.

The proposed building is to be erected on the grounds of the University of Kentucky, of dimensions sufficiently ample to house all the student activities of the institution and to establish in the rotunda, tablets bearing the name of the entire list of Kentucky's soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice.

In the European War 2,700 Kentuckians, both men and women, lost their lives in the various pursuits of the war to free humanity. It is only right that there should be a shrine at which Kentuckians henceforth shall bow in reverence and homage.

The estimated cost of the building is $300,000. The money is to be raised by popular subscription, giving to each of Kentucky opportunity to contribute, and making this a memorial gift of this generation to all succeeding generations of State.

Each county that contributes is to have a tablet bearing the names of the men from the county who lost their lives. The names of the Crittenden boys who died in service are:

Fred Ellis Baker, Marion
Edward G. Baird, Crider
Harvey S. ...
William ...
