UNDERDOWN HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

The examining trial of Henry Underdown was held last Saturday, Judge R. L. Moore presiding.

The prosecuting was in the hands of County attorney Jno. A. Moore and the defending counsel was T. C. Bennett.

The first witness was Mrs. Reece Underdown, widow of the slain man, who testified that she was with her husband from the time he was brought to the house until his death on the train near Morgantown while enroute to a hospital in Evansville. She gave in detail the happenings during this time but knew nothing of the quarrel and subsequent fatal blow except as related by the defendant, Henry Underdown.

She was followed to the stand by the father and brother of the dead man, whose testimony was substantially the same as that of the widow.

Dr. A. J. Driskill of Marion, who was the physician called, testified as to the time of the call and the physical condition of the man when he arrived, also his opinion as to what caused his death.

The substance of the testimony of all the witnesses whom Henry Underdown had taken into his confidence regarding the affair is that early in the morning Henry Underdown had gone over to his brother's farm to turn a hog into his lot, and upon asking permission to do so was told it would be all right that time but the next time he would have to pay for it. This seemingly peeved Henry a little and one word brought on another until, Henry says, his brother rushed at him with a knife in his hand and having no time to get away from the knife struck his brother over the head with the post hole digger he had at the time. According to Henry he then picked up the knife and started for his home calling loudly to attract the attention of the folks at the house so as to summon aid for his brother.

Henry then went back to the scene of the quarrel with his father and assisted Reece to the house and a physician called.

The defense called no witnesses and offered no testimony from the defendant, counsel being content with telling the court it was a plain case of self defense and client therefore entitled to exoneration.

The prosecutor in answer stated that to his knowledge that in the past few years human life had been held too lightly in this county and argued that the offense was at least manslaughter.

The defendant was bound over to the June term of the Circuit Court in the sum of one thousand dollars.

In last week's issue of the Press the names of the parties connected with the affair were mixed up a little, stating that John Underdown was the perpetrator of the affair instead of Henry.

FUNNY, ISN'T IT?

The Elizabethtown News regards it as passing strange that a man who thinks he is a business man, will get up in the morning from an advertised mattress, shave with an advertised razor, take off advertised pajamas and put on advertised underwear, advertised hose, shirt and tie, advertised suit, set himself at the table and eat advertised breakfast food, drink advertised coffee or substitute, put on an advertised hat, light an advertised cigar, go to his place of business where he turns down the advertising solicitor or salesman for his home paper on the ground that advertising does not pay.

SAD DEATH

Charles Edward Haynes, little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Haynes died at five o'clock Tuesday morning of diphtheria. He was three years and three months old. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Trotter and the remains were laid away in Marion's beautiful City of the Dead.

The Press and a host of friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved ones.

HIGHEST AND BEST RELIEF ORGANIZATION ON EARTH

The Salvation Army has been so modest that the average man or woman has no conception of the scope, economy and efficiency of its work.

1—Incidentally it is a publisher. Every time it goes to press it publishes 72 periodicals with a circulation of one and one quarter million newspapers.

2—It is a world organization the only 60 years old, operating in 63 different countries, speaking 40 languages, but the same sweet, sympathetic spirit of unselfishness.

3—Its annual turnover is fifty million dollars spent for others. Its 14076 officers serve "stripped to the bone in sacrifice". This campaign will not add a penny to their remuneration.

4—Every year in the U. S. it is rescuing over 1200 children, waifs and strays from way down deep in holes of vice and poverty in our big cities training them for substantial citizenship.

5—Every year it reaches out the hand of help to nearly 2000 women and girls shunned and cast out and restores them to society.

6—Every day in our land its officers are visiting a thousand poor families, giving temporary relief to 18000 people furnishing 11000 needy night shelter.

7—Every year it has been keeping from the poor-house more than 17000 maimed and decrepit working men to whom it gives opportunity for earning a self respecting living—men whom the business world does not want because they can not do a full days work.

8—Every year it finds a job for over 77000 men willing and able to work but out of employment.

9—Before the sun goes down each day, the missing friends bureau has found some one separated from loved ones and stopped the heart ache. A daily occurrence some where in the Salvation Army world.

10—Daily it cares for families of prisoners and helps prisoners get a new start upon release from prison.

Would you sell your house for what it is insured for?

That's one way to determine whether your fire insurance is adequate. Most homes are under-insured not because owners are carrying less protection than formerly, but because values have tremendously increased and additional insurance has not been written to cover the gain in value. Better have us reduce your risk by additional insurance in the Old Hartford.

GENERAL PERSHING WRITES MISS BOOTH

Under date of March 3 Gen. J. J. Pershing wrote Miss Evangeline Booth:

"It has been brought to my attention that the Salvation Army will shortly conduct a campaign for the extension and endowment of the organization. That the country may be more fully informed of something of the splendid services performed by the representatives of the Salvation Army abroad during the war, please permit me to add a word of appreciation in addition to that already accorded by the men of the American Expeditionary forces.

"Early in 1917 you had a number of huts in the training area of the First Division, under a group of devoted men and women who laid the foundation for the affectionate regard in which the workers of your organization have been always held by the American soldiers. All during the war the work of the Salvation Army was carried on in the theatres of training and operation rendering valuable service in ministering to the welfare and comfort of the soldiers. Your organization and its individual men and women workers, by the excellence of their work and their self sacrifice, endeared the Salvation Army to all those divisions and other units to which they were attached and spread its good will to every part of the American Expeditionary Forces.

"My best wishes go with you for its future success and progress."

The Great Kentucky Go-to-Sunday School Day

All the Sunday Schools of the county will have a cordial welcome for you that day—go to one of them. Show your appreciation of what they are doing to make this a better county now and in the future, by your presence. They will appreciate it—you will enjoy it.

LETS ALL BE THERE.

<h4>ORDERING BY MAIL DOESN'T ALWAYS PAY</h4> Last July 1. Stallions of the Shady Grove section ordered a barrel of paint from a mail order concern with which to paint his barn last fall. Time went on and he heard nothing from his paint until cold weather when it was too late to use it. He refused to take it out of the freight office and the finish of the interesting story was written Monday in the Quarterly Court when the mail order house obtained judgment against Mr. Stallions for the amount of the shipment. The moral is that if the defendant in this suit had bought his paint from one of our good advertisers who sells paint, like the Marion Hardware Co. or J. H. Orme or T. H. Cochran and Co. he would have gotten his paint when he wanted it and saved the expense of a lawsuit.	<h4>M. H. S. BASEBALL TEAM</h4> The Marion High school has organized a baseball team and are going to play interscholastic baseball this year. The loyal boosters of the school contributed the money to pay the expenses of the suits and material and nothing is to hinder them from having a splendid team. Mr. Gumbert and Mr. Christian, while attending the K. E. A. at Louisville purchased eleven suits, costing $111., a catchers mit costing about $14., and other material. —FOR SALE Big easy riding touring car, plenty of power to pull the hills, 5 good tires. Big bargain. See W. M. Kemp or phone 77	<h4>PASSED THE EXAMINATIONS</h4> At the close of Prof. J. B. McNeely's school at Jackson Schoolhouse the following pupils passed the examinations for promotion to the high school: Misses Odessa Beavers, Marie Gibbs, Virgie Stimmet, and Orman Beavers. Certificates were granted by County Supt. J. L. F. Paris. The efforts of these young people are commendable. WOOL POOL All wool growers give in number of fleeces and approximate number of pounds by May 10th. The pool will be sold on this date for delivery May 15. J. R. BIRD. 40 3
