Patton, Jo Robinson, Walter Cloyd, J. R. Sanders and wife, Mr. H. R. Turner and wife and daughter, Campbellsville, were here Thursday. LOCAL JOTTINGS. Every body was well pleased with the Fair. Russell Springs Fair will open next Tuesday. Born, to the wife of W. G. McKinley on the 19th, a daughter. There will be an abundance of work for the next grand jury. Quite a number of fancy horses changed hands here during the Fair. Quite a number of visitors to our Fair were mentioned in last week's issue. Mr. Claude Callison sold a mare and colt a few days ago to Branch Sublett for $132. Mr. Buck Rasner lost by death last Friday night a very valuable family horse. We have the best supply of Flat Bonds and Lines in stock ever in this town. The band that played here will make the music for the Russell Springs Fair. Auction at J. J. Hunter's store, Gradyville, Saturday, August 31st, beginning at 10 a. m. We have it straight that a number of all wells will be put down in Adair county in the near future. E. B. Wilson, Cane Valley, sold a nice lot of hogs to Anderson Holladay a few days ago, for 5 cents. Nice stock of Men's Neglige Shirts, Collars, Ties, Socks, Underwear, etc., at RUSSELL & MURRELL'S. Circuit Court will begin at Columbia the third Monday in next month. The docket will be larger than usual. Mr. Frank Rice, who owned a one-third interest in the Cane Valley Rolling Mill, sold it last week, to Mr. Flem Christie for $1,000. Our Mid-Summer Clearance Sale still continues. All summer goods go regardless of cost. RUSSELL & MURRELL. It would be impossible were we to undertake to give the names of all the visitors from adjoining towns during the Fair. They were here by the hundreds. The Fair was a success in the way of attendance. The display of stock was not large, but there were a sufficient number of fancy horses to make every ring interesting. The debate between Eld. Tobias Huffaker and Lucien Cabbell will take place at the court house next Monday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. Every body invited. Mr. Oscar Pile has purchased from his son, Allen, the residence in which the former resides, and the latter will build a dwelling on a lot near the residence of W. W. L. Walker. For sale.—One mule, six years old, one horse, eight years old and one cow five years old, a farm wagon, etc. Also desire to sell my farm of 187 acres. Address me at Pellyton, Ky. W. J. JONES. Mr. J. H. Smith, Font Hill, Russell county, was awarded several premiums on his stock, and before leaving for his home he sold Bridgewater & Hardesty, Marion county, three mules, one for $140 and two for $145. Mr. Pile is also sold to W. C. Smith, Cane Valley, a fine Shropshire buck for $15. During the twelve or fourteen days rain Green river at Neatsville was at no time past fording. Corn on the river was not damaged in the least, and there will be a large yield. A great deal of damage was done to corn on the Cumberland river banks, but the main bottoms were not reached. In estimating this loss no one farmer is a very heavy loser. It was divided from Burnside to Nashville.

Nice line of Men's Fine Shoes, made for us by Emerson's Sons and Helmers, Bettman & Co., every pair guaranteed. RUSSELL & MURRELL. Parties in Columbia or vicinity desiring their pianos and organs tuned will please leave word with Mrs. Rollin Hurt, who will have me notified, and the work will be done at once. FRED M. SCHEIDLER. The hop given by the young men at the Maccabee Hall Wednesday night was largely attended and very much enjoyed. The music was good and the dancing graceful. Several ladies and gentlemen from a distance were in attendance. All persons owing me taxes for the years 1898, 1899 and 1900 must call and pay at once if they want to save cost. I must collect these back taxes. The taxes for 1901 are now due. Call upon me or my deputies and make payment. J. W. HURT, SHERIFF. With the exception of a little unruly conduct in the afternoon of the first day of the Fair the best of order prevailed during the whole of the exhibition. There were many visitors from the adjoining towns and they were loud in their praises of the excellent good order. Mr. John C. White barely escaped with his life at the Fair grounds last Saturday. He was a rider in a plug horse race, and while the fastest speed was being made, the animal fell. Mr. White was knocked unconscious, and it was some minutes before he could be brought around all right. Last Thursday Mr. J. H. Weatherford, a representative citizen, and Miss Nannie Wheat, a popular young lady of this county, sister of Mr. T. W. Wheat, were married in Columbia. The ceremony was performed by Judge J. W. Butler, near the court house, the contracting parties being seated in their buggy. Quite a number witnessed the rites. Now is the time to place all orders for monuments and tombstones wanted between now and Christmas. Delay no longer, but call on us at our shop, or write us a card and we will call on you. If you want work done this Fall let us have your order at once, so we can get it in by the time you want it. Coakley & Sims Bros., Marble Works, Campbellsville, Ky. There is but one way to bring about reformation, and that is by kindness. If you meet a man who has fallen into temptation, take him by the hand and make him feel that you have an interest in him, and you are sure to put that individual to thinking. Abuse never accomplished anything. Objectionable habits are distasteful, not the person who has formed them. Dr. Barg, the Cincinnati Optician, will be in Columbia next Thursday and Friday—positively the two last days for this trip. If your eyes are defective, you should not fail to see him. His office is at the Hancock Hotel, and he will take great pleasure in making examinations. He comes to this place well recommended, and his work gives perfect satisfaction. Dr. Jackson will be at the Russell Springs Hotel, Russell Springs, Ky., during the Summer season—July and August. Persons desiring to try the new method of healing should avail themselves of the opportunity while on their summer vacation. Good hotel accommodations can be obtained at reasonable rates. CHAPPEL & JACKSON, OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS, SOMERSET, KY. Call or write for further information. The management of the Russell Springs Fair will try and induce the young girls, Misses Lina Rosenfield, Bessie Wolford, Mabel Atkins and Edna Lewis to give a cake walk in their ring the third day. The young ladies so highly pleased the vast assembly here that their services are in demand by other associations. The way they acted here enlisted praises from every body. They did not expect to be called upon, and were persuaded to enter the ring only a few minutes before the music started, but their walking and acting was perfection. An unsuccessful attempt was made by a mob at Lebanon last Friday night to take the two Shipp boys from the jail and hang them. Thirty or forty men rode into town, made their way to the jail and had commenced breaking down the door when the city night watchman fired into the crowd dispersing it. Much excitement was created, but the second attempt was not made. The Shipp's are held for the murder of Henry Horde, which occurred about two months ago. Invitations to the marriage of Mr. Allen Pile, of this place, to Miss Helen M. Boyd, of Salem, Kentucky, were mailed last week. The ceremony will take place to-day at the bride's home and will be witnessed by a large circle of admiring friends. This announcement will be quite a surprise to the many friends of the groom, as only his immediate family were apprised of the approaching union. Mr. Pile is in the furniture business at this place, and is a gentleman of excellent character and popular standing. The bride is said to be a very deserving young lady, belonging to one of the best families in the Purchase. Miss Lorena Pile, sister of the groom, accompanied her brother to Salem, and will return this week. Mr. and Mrs. Pile will be at their home in this city after October first. They will be joyously received and the best wishes of the groom's many friends will be extended.

SUCCESSFUL FAIR. The regular program of the Columbia Fair was finished last Friday afternoon and from start to finish the exhibits were all good and the people have been well paid for their time and money. The gatherings were rather small the first and second days but the third and fourth were good and the Association is hale and hearty. The premiums offered were inviting and brought out keen competition from some of the best strings of stock in the State which includes those of our own county. The exhibits in Floral Hall, the first day, attracted the good ladies and the ability of the ladies in the rings is aided in domestic manufacture and the many fine hogs, sheep, cattle and mules shown, were ample proof that this section is the equal of most any country and that our farmers are not of the easy-going make-up. The many good rigs of saddle and harness horses, that were so hotly contested, from beginning to close of the Fair, proved that our horse men are able to meet the best from all the land. The stock men from other sections who were here had stock worthy of blue in the best company at any Fair. The truth is that the entire exhibition was good and we feel it our duty to state that the finest lot of colts, the get of one stallion, that ever met on our Fair grounds were seen last Friday afternoon when Jordan Peacock's colts were led into the ring for the judges to determine the best four colts of 1901, entitled to liberal premiums given by Mr. Grady—the owner of Jordan Peacock. The specials offered by Coffey Bros. for the colts of Kentucky Squirrel did not bring out such a large number of colts but it did bring to the track one of the finest colts belonging to R. F. Pauli we have ever seen—one that will be worthy, barring accidents, to meet the best in all the land at the great Fair to be held in St. Louis. The young ladies riding ring, on the third day, was witnessed by 2500 people and the two young ladies who did the riding won the admiration of all. It was the closest contest ever witnessed in this section. On the fourth day the finest turnout elicited much praise. With only three contestants, it was a fine show and the judges consumed unusual time in determining the winner. The cake walk, the crowning feature of the entire program—like the best wine, was retained for the closing hours of the Fair and when those four beautiful little girls, Misses Bessie Wolford, of Nashville, Lina Rosenfield, Mabel Atkins and Edna Lewis, of Columbia, stepped to the tune of Goo Goo Eyes for fifteen minutes it captivated the entire assembly of 1500 people who witnessed it. They caught the old, the young and words of praise came from every throat, but the richest capture was made when Mr. J. T. Ferrin, a big hearted, whole soul gentleman from Pennsylvania, presented a five dollar bill to each of the young ladies. Mr. Ferrin is in this section in the interest of the great oil company of Guffey, Galey & Co., but the cake-walk drove all his trouble away, aroused his noble impulses and his gratitude was expressed as above related. The Mount Vernon Band rendered such music during the Fair that all grumbles and frowns, as is usually the case, were driven away by words of praise. Mr. E. B. Mullins is President, C. C. Davis, business manager and Victor Tate leader. The "boys" are all good fellows, gentlemen, and no other band has so completely satisfied the people who have attended fairs in this section. They were all well pleased with this section and with the people and are now enjoying the good things of Russell Springs, waiting over to render efficient music for the Fair there next week. Our good wishes accompany them. Below we publish the list of winners: second place in the competition for honors and money in our Fair. Fine jeans, Geo. Reynolds, Premium, White Flannel, Mrs. W. E. The old gentleman's riding contest billed for the first day of the Fair was carried over for thesecond day. There were four entries and it was hotly contested from start to finish. "Uncle" Perry Hancock, in his 87th year, won the premium and N. B. Dohoney came in for second place. Mr. Cabbell Answers. To Tobias Huffaker:— I suppose the time and place that you have suggested for the discussion of the propositions you proposed will be agreeable. You may drop out the second or include it in the first. We can arrange every thing satisfactorily when we meet. I will select C. S. Harris as moderator. L. C. CABPELL. Mr. Jesse Murrell celebrated his 89th birthday July 28th at his residence on Florence street, and the congratulation of a number of friends is added to that of his family on this notable occasion. There were present at the family reunion in his honor his children and grand-children to the fourth generation. To have lived so long worthily is no small matter, and the hope that these anniversaries may long be celebrated are cordially expressed.—Fort Worth Register. Mr. Murrell is a native of Adair county and for many years was in the mercantile business in Columbia. His many relatives will be glad to learn that he is yet hale and hearty. Young men who occasionally get off their base have but little idea of the amount of interest the best people take in them. It is a rare thing that a boy grows to manhood in a community without falling into some of the evil habits that men become heir to, and when these habits are once formed they are hard to set aside. But will power will accomplish much, and for several days there has been a great improvement in the walks of many young men of this community. So marked has been the change for the better that favorable comments have been spoken by the best citizens of the place. Every body who is in love with the community is anxious for the young men to rise and shine, and to reach the highest round of the latter associates with dissolute habits must be given the go-by, and strong and determined resolutions formed. When a man leaves off his evil habits every body is for him; follow them and the world is against him.
