

PERSONAL

Mr. J. N. Coffey is in Louisville. Judge H. C. Baker is at Liberty this week. John B. Coffey was in Lebanon last week. I. S. Taylor, of Glensfork, was here Monday. Horace Young, of Joppa, was here Saturday. Charles Williams, of Eunice, was here Monday. Fred McLean returned from Lebanon Friday evening. Dr. W. T. Grissom, of Bliss, was here County Court. J. R. Shirley, Milltown, was in Columbia last Friday. Frank Sinclair returned from the markets last week. John Cummings, of Sparksville, was in Columbia Saturday. Owen Hardesty, of Taylor county, was here Monday. Jno. D. Sharp, of Amandaville, was in Columbia Monday. W. E. Bradshaw was in Louisville several days of last week. C. C. Holt of Russell county, was here several days of last week. J. R. Antle, of Creelsboro, visited Mr. J. F. Turner last week. W. F. Grant, and S. A. Winfrey, of Neatsburg, were here Monday. Mr. W. R. Lyon, of Campbellsville, was here Thursday and Friday. Rev. G. Y. Wilson, of Gradyville, was in Columbia Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dulworth, of Camp Knox, were here Monday. Robert Young, of Cumberland county, was here the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newby, of Burkesville, are visiting in Columbia. Oliver Willis, who has been in Illinois for several months, is in Adair county. Mr. George Diddle, of Gradyville, visited Miss Mildred Walker last week. Mr. James Atkins, of North Dakota, is visiting friends and relatives in Adair. Mrs. A. I. Hurt and daughter, Miss Verna, were on the sick list the first of the week. Messrs. J. O. Ewing, Jake McGee and J. E. Cully, of Burkesville, were here Monday. Robert Conover, who has been in the South for several months, returned home last week. Miss Sallie Diddle, who has been quite sick with influenza for two weeks, is much improved. James Garnett, who suffered intensely with throat trouble last week, is able to be out again. Mr. M. L. Mitchell, who has been on the sick list for several days, is able to be out again. Mrs. Sallie Bradshaw and Mrs. W. F. Hancock left this morning for the Louisville market. Mr. Eres Barger left last week for New York to join the New York American ball team. Misses Ione Rounds and Katie Russell, visited Miss Clarice Stotts, of Bliss, Saturday and Sunday. M. O. Montgomery, who is in the employ of the L. & N. R. R., is visiting his parents in this city. B. T. Neat and family and L. T. Neat and wife left Monday morning for Elda, N. M., where they hold Government claims. Misses Ethyl and Annie Conover left Tuesday morning for Denton, Texas, where they will engage in teaching. Misses Mallie and Martha Murry, who have been taking music from Mrs. L. L. Rounds, have returned to their home in Russell county. Misses Ollie Rankin and Pearl Ray, of Monticello, students of the L. W. T. S., visited Miss Bessie Shearer, near Columbia, from Friday until Sunday. Mr. E. H. Hughes, of Quanah, Texas, spent last week in Adair county. No former citizen of Adair is given a warmer welcome on his return than Ed Hughes. Eld. Tobias Huffaker left last Sunday for Daisy, Ga., where he has accepted a 3 months position as teacher in the public school of that place. Mr.

Huffaker enjoys the reputation of a splendid instructor and has never had any trouble to secure good schools in this country.

Attorneys J. F. Montgomery and James Garnett are in Frankfort to argue the Butler Will Case before the Appellate Court.

Mr. John Shelton, a clever and popular young man of Columbia, has been in this city for the past week. He has been book-keeper for the Columbia Singletree Co., for some time and is here with Mr. Henry Coleman, the manager, on business.—Lebanon Enterprise.

Dr. J. B. Buchanan left Wednesday morning for Louisville, where he with the assistance of other physicians, operated on Mr. H. C. Wood, and we are informed the operation was a success. We are surely proud to hear this news, for Mr. Wood is held in the very highest esteem by many of our very best people.—Taylor County Enquirer.

Eggs, 12 cents to-day in Columbia.

A large crowd was in Columbia County Court day.

Hogs are worth to-day on the Louisville market $7.

An infant child of Green Bailey, Jr., colored, died the 1st.

A canning factory for Campbells-ville—Commercial Club at work.

FOR SALE—An extra good farm mare. E. L. FEESE, Columbia, Ky. 17-2t

The Fair grounds and twenty-two acres back of it was knocked off for $3,029.

The Roley bank expects to begin business about April 1st. Work on the building has begun.

Joe Tom Collins, a lawyer, and a very clever gentleman, died in Campbellsville last week.

The Greater Louisville Exposition will attract many Columbians and Adair county people.

Mr. M. F. Dudley has removed from Greensburg street to the Flanagan property in Tutt addition.

Mr. Azure Damron and family, of Purdy, have removed to the Hobson property on Burkesville street.

Mr. William Sapp and wife, (nee Miss Carrie Sherrill, formerly of this city,) have removed from Louisville to Taylor county.

The good road question is up to the people of Adair. If you want solid roads you must go down in your pockets for the cash.

An examination shows, beyond a doubt, that all early pears and the entire crop of peaches were killed in the bud by the hard freeze in January.

FOR SALE—Acetylene Gas Generator, pipe and all fixtures for Acetylene Light Plant; also one large Spring wagon. JOE WILLOCK, Campbellsville. 14-tf.

Mrs. Sallie Bradshaw and Mrs. W. F. Hancock are in the Louisville market selecting their millinery stock for next season. They will have their stock in readiness before Easter. 17-tf

The German Coach horse, Arwed, was on exhibition Monday. This is one of the best stallions in the county and has always secured his share of the patronage.

We are requested to announce that Rev. E. W. Coakly, formerly pastor of the Baptist church at this place, will begin a series of meetings at Gradyville in September.

The base ball season will soon open. We judge Columbia will have a team, and if too much work is not done "Under the shade of the old apple tree," we can win some games.

The series of meetings at the Presbyterian church continues to grow in interest and large audiences are in attendance. The services will probably continue for several days.

Miss Bessie Shearer has a hen that lays at night instead of day time. Every evening this hen goes to roost at the regular time and the next morning an egg will be found deposited upon the roosting plank.

THE "M & F" ESTABLISHED 1855 COLUMBIA KENTUCKY COURCES OF STUDY:---College-Prepratory, Normal, Shorthand, Tyde writing, Music, Elocution, Art. A strong faculty; attractive and up-to-date courses of study; excellent facilities for normal work; unsurpassed advantages in music, elocution, etc. For further particulars consult the Principal, A. L. WHITFIELD.

EXPENSES. Primary, per month, $2.00 Intermediate, " " 2.50 Normal, " " 3.00 College-prepratory, " 3.00 Music, " " 4.00 Elocution, " " 2.50 Art, " " 3.00 Room & Board, per wk, $1.50, 2.00 The Principal retains a room in the Doritory occupied by the boys and gives them his personal attention. The girls occupy the new dormitory and are under the care of Mrs. R. W. Shirley, a matron of rare skill and judgement, who has control of the boarding department. A substantial reduction from the rates of tuition (except Music) in cases of more than two coming from the same family, and non-resident pupils paying in advance.

SIMS BROS. : : DEALERS IN : : Marble, Granite, Tombstones and Monuments, Building Stone. Have got our Machinery all up and can turn out first-class work on short notice and can work our Granite from the rough. Campbellsville, Kentucky.

WE WANT TO SELL!

Having to give up the building we now occupy we offer our entire stock of SHOES AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS We have decided to close the Entire Stock at COST, less a Reasonable Discount, and prefer selling as a Whole. The Stock is in Fine Shape; no odds and ends. Will be glad to show anyone the Entire Stock. Yours truly, WILKERSON & DAVIS, CAMPBELLSVILLE, KY.

FAIRPLAY. Finis Harvey and family are visiting at J. M. Turner's this week. Mrs. J. M. Turner is right sick at this writing. Mr. John Sandusky and wife have removed to Greensburg to make it their future home. Mrs. Dotia McClister is reported to be on the sick list. Little Wain, son of V. Grider, is on the sick list. Miss Hattie Burbridge left this place for Jeffersonville, Ind., a few days ago. Mr. M. L. Grant was here one day this week looking after sheep. Mr. Henry Powell and Miss Dollie Akin were happily married the 27th, Rev. G. R. Abrel officiating. Mr. Wesley Turner is on the sick list.

ROWE'S X ROADS. Mr. Rufus Campbell and Miss Ollie Sullivan were married recently, 'Squire Robt. Antle officiating. Mr. Campbell is one of our best teachers, and Miss Sullivan a very popular young lady. Prayer meeting at Oak Grove every Sunday night. Come out and help us. Arch McElroy is here from Oklahama.