

Avoid Danger

When you are sick, or suffering from any of the troubles peculiar to women, don't delay—take Cardui, that well-known and successful remedy for women. Thousands of women have used Cardui and been benefited. Why not you? Don't take any chances. Get Cardui, the old, reliable, oft-tried remedy, for women of all ages.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Luzania Morgan, Sneedville, Tenn., writes: "For ten years I suffered with the turn of life, and tried many remedies without relief. I had pains all over my body and at times I could not sit up. At last I took Cardui and now I can do my housework. I have told many ladies about Cardui and recommend it to all sick women." Try it.

AT ALL DRUG STORES

Eddy, Texas.

Everything is all right in Texas, except we are needing rain.

There are lots of oats sown if it would rain to bring them out. We are all about through picking cotton, and are plowing and making preparations for another crop.

There was a mistake in my last letter as to the amount of my cotton crop. I made $1,600, worth instead of $160, as was reported.

Mrs. Cynthia McKinney and her son, L. H. George, former Kentuckians, are on the sick list.

I like to read letters in the Adair County News from all parts of old Kentucky. The Esto and Rows X Roads letters are of special interest to me, and I want the correspondents to keep sending them in.

I would like to have the pumpkin that T. F. Collins grew. It would eat fine.

There are lots of people here from old Kentucky.

T. O. Collins.

Longstreet.

Mr. F. M. Wilson is still improving slowly. It is hoped that he will be able to begin his school soon.

Mrs. Hopper, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is dead. Her death did not come as a surprise. She is survived by three small children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

The debate at Owenton school has aroused much interest. Mr. Robt. Foley against Mr. J. B. Wade, the latter won the decision.

Mr. H. H. Foley is making staves.

Mr. W. H. Brown of Owensville, Ind., is visiting relatives in this part.

We are having some frosty weather now.

It seems that the wheat crop in this part will almost be a complete failure.

The people selected between two as their choice for Congress, a man who has been thrice convicted of a heinous crime. But he will have to combat with the big Democrats from the remainder of the state and a Democratic house.

On the 8th of November the voice was heard, how is every thing? The watchman cried out, all is well, and Democracy still prevails.

Nell.

Miss Margaret Hestand of Flat Rock, spent several days at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Cattie Bell last week.

Quite a number of the young folks from this place attended an Evangelistic service at Breedings on the 6th of this month.

Master Dave Lee Walker did business at Red Lick last Wednesday.

Rev. C. B. Glaize, of Edmonton, will fill his regular appointment at this place Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Mr. James Reece, of this place bought a farm recently from Zach Barden, near Sparksville, for $2,000, and in the near future remove to it. They are good people and will be very much missed from this community. We wish them success.

Cyclone.

Farmers are busy gathering corn in this section.

Mr. Bob Smith and wife were visiting relatives near Joppa last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. George Todd and sister, Miss Ann, spent last Sunday with their brother, Mr. J. P. Todd, this place.

Frank McFarland was in Columbia last Monday.

Mr. J. P. Todd purchased Mr. Wm. Francis farm located on the pike for $1000. We are glad Mr. Todd has decided to remain in our community.

Mr. Eugene Grasham is remodeling and building more to his house. When completed will be a very handsome residence. Murrell Bros., are contractors

Turkeys have been roosting high as Thanksgiving is drawing nigh.

The social given by Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bault was largely attended and all reported a nice time.

There has not been much hunting since the game law expired. Plenty of rabbit, but quail very scarce.

Mr. Robt. Montgomery, of near Mt. Pleasant, who is seriously ill, is no better at this writing.

Garlin.

Mr. W. F. Neat has been on the sick list but is able to be around again.

Bro. B. M. Currie is preaching a series of sermons at Pleasant Grove of night. Every one seems to be very much interested in them.

Misses Katie and Mary Squires, Miss Cora Reynolds, Mr. Jim Pelley and Mr. Riggins and family, were visiting at Mr. W. F. Neats last Sunday.

Miss Willard Huffaker was visiting Miss Cora Reynolds one night last week.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the musical association at Bear Wallow last Sunday.

Mr. John Kinnett who has been living in this neighborhood for the past four months, hauling lumber for Mr. Doff Bryant, has moved back to his home on Casey Creek.

Mrs. Lottie Leach, wife of Garlin Leach, died last Wednesday and was buried on Thursday.

Miss Pearl Neat was visiting her brother, S. C. Neat, Columbia one night last week.

Little Miss Lettie Bennett was visiting Edith Cooper one night recently.

Mrs. Johnson, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Royse, has returned to her home at Columbia.

Miss Vista Royse spent one night last week with Miss Frona Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Redmon were shopping in Columbia last Saturday.

Mr. C. S. Walkup and Mr. William Rigney are on a land trade.

Owensby.

We are having cloudy gloomy weather at present; and in a few days according to the weather signs we may sit by a big fire and gaze out upon this old earth which will be enveloped in a month of snow.

Mr. Sam Back, of Creelsboro, was here one day last week.

Messrs. Leonard and Staton, traveling salesmen, were here last week.

Mr. Ezra and sister, Miss Laura Moore, have moved to Jamestown. We regret very much to give them up as they are fine folks; but we are glad to have Mr. Clemmens and family among us, as they are fine folks too.

Rev. J. L. Murrell and wife of Campbellsville, were visiting in this part last week.

Mr. Sam Aaron has gathered all his corn and put it in the crib. He says he has the best crop he ever had.

Mr. Robt. Murray and wife, Mr. Mont Hale and wife and Mr. Miron Conover and wife, visited the family of Mr. Elihu Collins recently.

Mr. Frank Lawless and family will start to Oklahoma to-day.

Mrs. C. C. Helt, Mrs. Edd Lawless, Misses Idell Sims, and Sallie Lawless were guests of Miss Callie Gaines one day last week.

Mrs. Josie Higginbottom visited uncle Flem Carter last week.

Mr. F. L. Selby's store house was consumed by fire last Tuesday night. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Alva Grider is very sick with malarial fever at this writing.

Mrs. Green Kean is in a very critical condition at present.

M. L. Owens and family visited at D. G. Grider's last Sunday.

Rows X Roads.

Corn is turning out fine both in quantity and quality.

Mr. Marcus Kell and Miss Tina B. Murrell were married here last Sunday.

Misses Rosa Selby and Nona Kelsay were visiting at Thomas Hadley's last Sunday.

Tom Selby is building himself an up-to-date dwelling.

Belton Helm and wife and Miss Flora Cook have gone to Jackman's Bottom to visit the family of P. Helm.

P. Helm and family will leave for Kansas November the 14th. They will go back with Mrs. Lizzie Pierce to her home at Belle Plains, Kans. Mrs. Pierce has been in here on a visit for a month or two.

Mr. George Blair, wife and baby, Mrs. Richard Hadley, and daughter, Miss Mary, were visiting the family of Thomas Hadley last Sunday. We were so glad to see them come, but my heart was so sad to see that my dear brother was not with them.

Fount Selby, John Oaks and company are hauling logs for the Nashville market.

The Bishop Carter meeting will commence here at Oak Grove December 2nd. He will dedicate the new church December 4th. Come, everybody.

The condition of Miss Susie Aaron is critical. Can't live but a few days unless she gets better.

Fount Selby's store was burned here November the 15th, just after dark. His loss was between four and five thousand dollars. It must have been set on fire by an enemy. The fire originated in the coffin room. Fount said that door had not been unlocked for four weeks.

Lost, a scarf pin in the town of Columbia, the end of the pin blunt.
Mrs. J. A. Young.

Boyd.

'Oppossum hunting is all the go in this vicinity.

Mrs. Rachel Bottom and little daughter Pinkie, visited Osa Bottom Sunday.

Mrs. Callie Jeffries is very sick at this writing.

Mr. J. B. Bottom purchased a nice young mare from Leslie Ferguson for $75.

Mises Doras Bottom and Minnie Tupman visited the family of Alonzo Chelf Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie McDumott and children, visited her mother Mrs. Shirrell, near Roley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bottom visited their daughter, Mrs. Leslie Ferguson Sunday.

The pie supper given at Bottom school house for the benefit of Orphans of Kentucky, was quite a success and all reported a nice time.

Quite a number of young people from this place attended the social at Mrs. Mollie Jones' last Saturday evening and all reported a nice time.

Mr. W. D. Bottom of Russell Springs is visiting his son, Mr. J. P. Bottom, of this place.

Miss Millard Shirrell visited her aunt, Mrs. Mollie Jones of Knifley, a few days last week.

Misses Bettie Smith and Ruth Whitley, were the pleasant guest of Miss Allen last Friday night.

Mr. Joe Sam and Marvin Tucker, who have been visiting their parents, at this place, have returned to their respective places of business, namely Louisville and Decatur, Ill.

Miss Minnie Tupman who is teaching our school visited at home last Saturday and Sunday accompanied by Miss Dorac Bottom.

Mr. Charlie Jones who is working at White City visited his mother, Mrs. Mollie Jones last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Sam Bottom who has a mill on the Somerset road was at home from Friday until Monday.

Rugby.

Corn gathering is the order of the day at this place.

Its seems to our farmers at this place that the prices on tobacco has gone dead—but hold on to it, it will come again some day.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gabbert were visiting at Mr. Bob Strange at Fairplay Sunday.

Mr. Bob Royse was delighted on the 31th, of Oct. with another big girl at his house. Mother and child doing well.

Mr. Ruel Shive is preparing to move to a new home.

Mrs. Edna Gaston and Mrs. Stella Page were visiting at Mr. Jim Rupe's Wednesday.

Mr. Arthur Curry and family are fixing to move to Weed to their new home. We regret very much to give Mr. Curry up as they are such good neighbors.

Sparkesville and Dirigo base ball teams played a very interesting game Saturday. Sparkesville boys beat Dirigo 10 to 3. Come again Dirigo we like to meet you and have a hand shake.

Mrs. Susie Akin is getting some better.

Mr. Joe Tom Brake and wife were visiting at Mr. Arthur Curry's Saturday night.

Mr. Kate Akin was visiting at Mr. Calvin Coomer's Saturday.

Mrs. Dee Page's, father and mother of Basil, visited her Sunday.

Miss Anna Shive and Mrs. Icy Strange attended church at Antioch Sunday.

Program.

Of the Fifth Sunday meeting of second North Concord Association to be held with the Clear-Ford church on the fifth Saturday in Dec. 1910, and Sunday following.

Devotional exercises 10 a. m.
What is the best means of convicting men of sin?—M. F. Grime, and W. F. J. Wilson.

Let brotherly love continue—J. M. Williams, E. G. Wilson.

Church pastors—Their beginning and character of their preaching—C. L. Bradley, J. S. Wade.

SUNDAY

Devotional exercises.
Bible sanctification and modern sanctification compared—A. L. Baker.

Destitution and needs of our association—J. S. Wade, Aaron Wilson.

Bible plan of giving to God and its value to the church.—W. F. J. Wilson, J. K. Grider.

W. F. J. Wilson,
W. A. Breeding,
E. J. Walters,
Committee.

Pickett.

Bad colds are prevalent in this neighborhood at present.

Shreves, a little son of W. C. Rodgers, who has been down with fever for some time, is improving.

G. W. Dudley was in Columbia one day last week.

Mr. Schuyler Neat, a grocery drummer, was here to see our merchants one day last week.

Corn is turning out well in this section.

The spoke trade at this place is doing a good business.

Miss Mary Wade and a Mr. Light were married last Sunday.

Bro. Pangburn closed his meeting at Pickett's Chapel last Sunday night. He had very good success.

Rev. Roach is conducting a series of meetings at Fry this week.

Mr. Ed Whitlock and wife, of Bliss, were visiting at J. W. Pickett's Saturday night and Sunday.

Bro. Hulse stayed one night at G. T. Kemp's last week. He was en route to his quarterly meeting at Thurlow.

Quarterly meeting at Pickett's Chapel the 10 and 11 of December.

Felix Pickett and Miss Vanada Kemp were married a few days ago. Rev. Scott officiating.

Arrested.

Thomas Bridges, son-in-law of Saumel Fisher, who was found dying on the Glasgow pike near Scottsville a few days ago, has been arrested, charged with having killed the old man.

It developed at the inquest that Bridges was the only living witness who was present when his father-in-law received the wounds which caused his death. Bridges claimed that he and Fisher were building a chimney when Fisher fell and he supposed he had struck his head on a stone.

Pickett Tobacco Warehouse

INDEPENDENT

C. A. BRIDGES & Co.

PROPRIETORS

Corner Eighth and Main Streets, Louisville, Ky.

CHAS. A. BRIDGES
W. G. BRIDGES

Four Months Storage Free

Give us a trial. We guarantee to please you
Tobacco supplied with the best the market affords
Meals, 35c

MILLEN HOUSE.

M. D. MILLEN & Co., Props

Located on Railroad St., one square east of L. & N. Station

Lebanon, - Kentucky.