VOLUME XXV

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY SEPT. 19, 1922.

NUMBER 48

Handsome Edifice Dedicated.

The new eighty thousand dollar Methodist church was dedicated at Campbellsville last Sunday, Dr. H. C. Morrison, President of Asbury College, delivering the sermon. The building is estimated to have a capacity of two thousand people, including the side rooms, and all available space was taken, and standing room was in demand. The interior of the building is most attractive in artistic splendor and the arrangement of all the departments are perfect and convenient. After Dr. Morrison had closed his very interesting discourse he announced that there was a collection of twenty-five thousand dollars to be taken before he could proceed with the dedicatory ceremonies. Clerks were called and in about fifty minutes the amount was raised. To raise such a large sum in so few minutes was certainly a credit to Campbellsville and Taylor county. The amount being raised, Mr. Henry Parrott presented the church to Dr. Morrison and the dedicatory ceremonies followed.

Lunch was then served in the basement of the building and hundreds were fed.

After dinner Mayor Quin, of Louisville, delivered an address on Co-operation. He is a gentleman full of ideas and a most entertaining speaker, and all that he said was well received. The idea was that Christian people could accomplish much by co-operating in work.

A. The close of this most wholesome address, Mr. Baker, who is a Sunday-school evangelist, entertained in a most happy address.

There were perhaps three hundred people present from Adair county, and all other adjoining counties were largely represented. We noticed quite a number from Lebanon, Greensburg, Danville, and a few from Louisville, and a number from Glasgow.

We venture the assertion that there is not a town in Kentucky outside of Louisville and Lexington that is adorned with as many handsome church edifices as is Campbellsville. The Baptist and Christian Churches have attractive and costly buildings, only recently erected. The Presbyterian church was built many years ago. It is not so large, but the interior is very attractive. Campbellsville has a right to boast of her church edifices, and the Christian spirit manifested in the community is not eclipsed by any town in Kentucky.

Public Sale.

On Saturday, the 30th day of September, I will sell on the farm of R. O. Cabell, deceased, 1/2 miles east of Zion church, to the highest bidder, the following personal property: One aged saddle mare, 4 young ewes, one extra brood sow and 7 pigs, one pure bred Duroc gilt, 1/2 of 20 acres of corn, 1/2 of one acre of cane, stack of hay, farming tools, chickens, household and kitchen furniture. Sale will start at 10 a. m.

A. O. Young, Executor.

More About Culling.

Results of the poultry culling keep coming in. Mr. Horace A. Murrell, who held one of the demonstrations reported this week, that he culled 22 hens out of 82. The 82 hens laid 193 eggs in the week before the demonstration, or 2 3/10 eggs per hen. The 22 culled laid no eggs after the demonstration and the 66 good hens left laid 171 eggs or 2 9/10 eggs per hen.

Mr. W. A. Garnett's flock numbered 100 hens 40 were culled. The 100 hens laid 157 eggs, or 1 1/2 eggs per hen the week before culling. The week after the 60 hens laid 152 eggs or 3 eggs per hen. The culled laid 18 eggs or less than one-half an egg per hen.

Lost.—A wool sweater, color American beauty trimmed in black, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 10, between Coburg and Green river bridge. A reward offered.

Mrs. W. A. Martin, Coburg, Ky.

Death of Miss Sallie Conover.

Last Saturday at 12 o'clock the subject of this notice died at the home of her brother, Mr. Wm. Conover, this place. She had been in declining health for more than a year, and was seldom seen from her home. A few days before she died she was taken violently ill with pneumonia and lived but a short time.

She was born and reared in two miles of Columbia, but had been a resident of the town several years before her demise. She was a consecrated Christian woman, an ardent member of the Baptist Church, and was always in her pew until her health failed.

She was a sister of Messrs. Robert and Wm. Conover, making her home with the latter, in what is known as the Coffey property, fronting the Campbellsville pike. During her illness she received the closed attention every thing that skill and tender hands could do was done. Her passing was like one going to sleep.

The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Carson Taylor, and the interment was in the city cemetery, by the side of loved ones.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

The News extends its sympathy to all who have been bereft on account of her going away, and may God comfort them in their sorrow.

Farm for Sale.

My farm, consisting of 104 acres, 60 acres in grass, 10 acres in woodland, remainder in cultivation. 2 story 6-room dwelling, with porches and hall. Also good cellar, one good feed barn, also tobacco barn that will house 6 to 10 acres. Other good outbuildings, with very good orchard, one never failing spring. On Columbia and Campbellsville pike, in 2 miles of Cane Valley, and 4 miles of Columbia.

W. E. Keltner, Columbia, Ky. 48 30.

Mrs. J. L. Walker and Mrs. W. R. Dohoney Entertain.

One of the loveliest dinner parties of the year was given by Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dohoney on Mrs. Walker's lawn, Saturday afternoon, at six o'clock. Two large tables, beautifully decorated with dahlias, were filled with choice dishes. The dinner was served cafeteria style.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Geo. Stults, Gordon Montgomery, Lee Grissom, Joe Patteson, C. M. Russell, Bruce Montgomery, Allen Walker, Daisy Hamlett, W. A. Coffey, Ed McKee, Mary Rickman, W. J. Flowers, Fred Myers, W. R. Myers, Lanis Staples, Fred Hill, Eros Barger, Ores Barger, W. B. Patteson, J. O. Russell, S. P. Miller, J. L. Murrell, J. D. Lowe, J. G. Eubank, Lula Sinclair, Fannie Willis, Mont Conover, Ochsie Barger, Clay Smith, W. A. Hynes, R. V. Bennett, N. T. Mercer, R. L. Davis.

Misses Minnie Triplett, Mary Miller and Sallie Baker.

Bicycle Tires and Sundries.

We have just received a large stock of bicycle tires and sundries that we can sell you at a bargain. See them and get our prices before buying elsewhere.

T. G. Rasner & Son. 48-2t.

Pie Supper.

There will be a pie supper at Blair schoolhouse on Friday night, Sept. 22. Everybody is cordially invited. Girls come and bring pies. Boys come and bring well-filled pocket books. The money received for the pies will go for the benefit of the school.

The beech mast is said to be the heaviest for many years, and boys are in clover, so to speak.

DEPLORABLE DEATH.

Mr. J. T. Goodman, a Former Resident Dies at Colorado Springs, Colo., Thursday Morning.

WENT WEST TO REGAIN HEALTH.

The intelligence of the death of Mr. J. T. Goodman, a former highly respected citizen, reached here by wire last Thursday afternoon. It was a sad blow to many friends, as the deceased was highly respectable and a man who had many friends and no enemies.

He was a resident of this place for five or six years, and if he had an enemy in the town or county we never knew it.

His health commenced to fail about three years ago, and about two years ago he went out West, hoping that a change of climate would be beneficial to his waisting constitution. At times he wrote that he was feeling better, but in reality there was no permanent benefit, and he gradually went down until the final dissolution.

Mr. Goodman, if we are correctly informed, was a native of Fountain Run, Monroe county, and was a son of a Methodist preacher, Mr. J. A. Goodman, who died in Columbia about three years ago. The deceased was reared in the same faith, and was a devout member of the Church of this place up to the time he went West, and it is likely he never removed his membership. He was an officer of the congregation and a liberal giver in every cause having for its object the advancement of Christianity. He was instrumental in raising quite a sum of the Centenary fund.

The deceased was not only popular in Adair county, but on Cumberland river, Russell county, where he was married to Miss Effie McFarland, daughter of the late John McFarland, and where he resided for a number of years, he was unusually popular. He was a Democrat in principle and a few years ago he made the race for sheriff in that county, which is largely Republican, and his personal popularity reduced the dominant party's majority, many Republicans voting for him.

The deceased was a zealous Mason, a member of Columbia Lodge, No. 96, and Columbia Chapter No. 7. He had held responsible positions in each institution, and his pocket-book was open when the call for charity came. He was also a Modern Woodman. He will be sadly missed by the fraternity.

Mr. Goodman is survived by his wife, son, Raymond, and mother, the son is by a former wife, who died in his infancy. It is a serious loss to part with a man who was as useful and who possessed the many good qualities as did Mr. Goodman, but God knows best, and our advice to the surviving members of the family is to become reconciled, and live so as to meet him in a better world.

During the years he resided in Columbia he was a friend to every body and every body was his friend. Remains will reach Campbellsville at the noon hour Wednesday and will arrive in Columbia in the afternoon. The body will be in charge of the Masonic Fraternity. The funeral will be preached by Rev. R. V. Bennett at 10 o'clock. Masons of Russell county and members of Adair county lodges are fraternally invited. Columbia Lodge, No. 96 will conduct the ceremonies.

A Vaudeville will be at Tutt's Hall next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. There are seven in the troupe, gentlemen and ladies. Admission, 15 and 25 cents. Two reels of moving picture each night.

Pie supper at Garin school house next Friday night. A big time for all that will come.

Acquitted.

A dispatch from Henderson, Ky., says:

A jury in Circuit court today returned a verdict of not guilty in the case against J. L. Gaskins and George H. Manley, Federal prohibition officers, who were on trial on the charge of drawing and pointing a deadly weapon upon George C. Green, former sheriff of this county. The alleged assault took place last June and both defendants were fined $100 and costs when tried in Justice Bennett's Court.

Judge Hunt instructed the jury to find the defendants not guilty.

The above case is similar to the one that is pending against Gaskin in the Marion Circuit Court.

For Sale.

Duroc boars, ready for service, Defender strain. Also my famous boar, Adair Pilot, No. 213239.

Will Close.

The books of the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association will close on November 6th. More than 90 per cent of the entire crop is now pledged to the Association. Are you going to be with the 90 per cent or with the 10 per cent and the speculators?

The tobacco growers association is the greatest movement ever inaugurated for the benefit of the farmers. It is the only farmers organization which has had the endorsement of the United States government to the extent that it offered to lend it Ten Million Dollars, and the endorsement of all the business interest in the country. The banks are behind the movement almost solidly. The Kentucky Bankers Association at its recent state meeting passed resolutions approving the plan and urging the farmers to join.

It is undoubtedly a step in the right direction and ever tobacco grower in Adair county should sign a contract at once.

For Sale.

On my farm 1/2 mile south of Glensfork, Sept. 22, I will offer for sale, 15 bu. of wheat, 5 bbls. of old corn and various garden products, one good milk cow, one hog weighing 175 lb. Also my household and kitchen furniture, together with all kinds of preserves and canned fruit. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Mrs. J. W. Marshall.

Important to Growers of Dark Tobacco.

There seems to be a misunderstanding on the part of many Dark Tobacco Growers as to the Co-Operative Marketing Organization.

The Dark Growers are forming an association exactly the same as the Burley organization which has been in successful operation for a year. The contract is the same and the organization work is being handled here by the same committee.

Reports from the dark district indicate that the necessary amount of tobacco will be pledged to insure the success of the movement and the books will be closed on October 1st. It is, therefore, very important if you intend to sign a contract that you do so at at once. After October 1st, you will be in the hands of the speculator.

G. R. REED, Chairman, Organization Committee.

The engine at the light plant was out of commission two nights of last week and the town was in darkness. It has been put in fine repair and is now doing good work. The lights are better than they have been for some time. It is hoped that the engine will watch it closely and see that there will be no further trouble. When the lights are not on after dark all classes of business stop.

A Desirable Farm.

My farm on the Russell Springs road, five miles from Columbia, is for sale, and I desire to transfer it as quickly as possible. There are 120 acres in a high state civilization, running water in each field, comparatively a new dwelling house and all necessary outbuildings. Plenty of fruit, of all kinds, and fire wood in abundance. Close to church and school and in a first class neighborhood. Terms will be made easy for purchaser.

B. O. Hurt, Ozark, Ky.

Wanted.

A man and his wife, or brother and sister, who want employment, at once. Apply at this office. Will furnish light house and water. 48-2t.

Held for Murder.

Mrs. Louella Bennett, who stabbed her husband, Walter Bennett, in Jeffersonville, Ind., last Sunday night week, has been indicted for murder in the first degree by a grand jury of Clark county, Ind. She was brought before the county Judge, and was held without bail and remanded to jail. Her trial is set for October 4th. Her husband was a native of Adair county, and his remains were sent here for burial. The interment took place at his old home last Wednesday.

Fertilizers.

I have several brands of the best fertilizers. Call at my place of business. J. P. Hutchison, Poultry House.

Serious Accident.

Last Saturday week a very serious accident occurred in a ball game at Webb X Roads. I. J. Cunningham was pitching and when he undertook to throw a very swift ball, a noise was heard for several feet by those who were in the game. Going to him it was found that the main bone of his arm was broken between the shoulder and elbow. Dr. Tarter was called and reduced the fracture.

I will be at the Farmer's Mill this week with my Grader and will grade wheat. W. H. Dixon.

Arrested on a Bench Warrant.

Messrs. I. S. Coffey, W. L. Marshall, Tyman Cox and Brooks Noe, all peace officers of Green county, were here last Wednesday. While here they arrested Charles Robinson wanted in the Green Circuit court, on a bench warrant, and conveyed him to Greensburg. Robinson had recently served out a fine here.

Died at Creelsboro.

Last Saturday morning Mrs. Minnie Clayton, who was the wife of Mr. A. A. Clayton, died at her late home, Creelsboro. She was a very estimable lady and her death brought much sorrow to the community. The husband of the deceased is a brother of J. P. Clayton, this place.

Rev. Arthur Gross, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will preach at Union next Sunday forenoon and afternoon. All the members of the Church are requested to be present as well as the entire neighborhood. Besides preaching there will be some interesting matters to come before the congregation. Do not fail to attend. The meetings are for everybody who will put in an appearance.

Everybody is going to the colored fair the two last days in this month. Some fine horses will be shown, and the races will be exciting. If you want to laugh and grow fat see the amusements that will be put on.

The meeting which conducted was at the Baptist Church by Rev. Carson Taylor, closed last Sunday night. There were several additions to the Church. The Baptizing will be next Sunday afternoon.

All that is needed to make Columbia one of the best business points in the Green river section of Kentucky is good roads throughout Adair county. The Fiscal Court will meet next month, and road building should be seriously considered by the Court. Good roads throughout the county would greatly enhance every farm in Adair, and no set of men would receive greater benefit than the farmer. Why not spend some money in bettering the highways of this county? With good roads the value of every man's property would be enhanced.

Mr. Elmer Keene has bought a one half interest in the Stanley Epperson store and can now be found at that stand. Mr. Keene is a most excellent gentleman and we are glad that he decided to remain in Columbia. He invites his friends to call and see him at his present location, promising to furnish them at the lowest price with anything they desire in his line. His partner, Mr. Epperson, is a very agreeable gentleman and there is no doubt but this firm will do a large business.

M. O. Stevenson, agent for Mrs. Jo Barger, sold the farm, on the Russell Springs road, five miles from Columbia, and known as the Jo Barger farm, to D. L. Walker, son of Mr. Roy Walker, of Nell, for $4,500. There is on it a good dwelling house, all necessary outbuildings and a good barn. The tract is about 102 acres. Mr. Walker will be given possession at once, and will remove to it in the next few weeks. He is a good citizen and will be a valuable acquisition to the neighborhood.

It is generally believed that Cumberland river will be locked and dammed. All the counties along the river banks have voted in favor of it but Monroe, and it is said that the Fiscal Court of that county will come across at its next meeting which will be held soon. When the locks are in a very rich section will be opened for development.

Mr. Fred Hill, who owns the small lot between his drug building and the Columbia banking building, now going up, will erect a brick business house on the lot, the work having been started. This building will make a desirable stand for a news and book store, barber shop, or a cigar and tobacco store, or a music store.

The Lindsey-Wilson is fuller than it has been for many sessions this early in the start. Students are coming in daily, and in a short time the teachers will have all they can handle. Mr. Bennett says that all his spare time is taken up in answering letters in regard to terms, etc. A Junior College for next year is assured.

Rev. R. V. Bennett preached his last sermons for this conference year last Sunday. He will be succeeded by a minister for the Church but will remain as principal of the Lindsey-Wilson. A preacher in name cannot fill his place. He must be a preacher indeed, and we trust that someone will assign a capable one.

Mr. John D. Turner, who lives on what is known as the R. K. Young farm, one and a half miles from Columbia, purchased last Wednesday, from Sanders & Hendrickson, music dealers of Campbellsville, a fine Player Piano. Mr. Turner has several daughters and the purchase was made to please them.

Mrs. W. A. Hynes met with a painful accident a few days ago. She was shopping on the square, and as she stepped out of Mr. C. R. Hutcherson's store, one of her ankles creaned and she was unable to bear any weight upon it for several days.

A series of meetings will begin at the Christain church, this place next Sunday. The pastor will do the preaching, and Miss Catherine Warriner, of Danville, will be in charge of the singing. Be ready for it; come everybody.

School pie supper at Blair school house this fall.
