COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY SEPT. 26, 1922.

NUMBER 49

Death of a Fine Citizen.

A message announcing the death of Mr. H. P. Barger, who was addressed as Porter Barger, reached Columbia from Louisville last Thursday morning. The announcement was a shock to his many Columbia friends and the whole southern portion of Adair county. He went to Louisville three weeks ago for an operation which was performed in St. Anthony Hospital, and from the time he came from under the knife, apparently he was recovering. In fact, Mr. H. B. Garnett, who went down to the State Fair, called to see him and Mr. Barger told him he expected to be able to come home in a few days. Mr. Garnett left him believing that he would soon be well. The operation was a success, and when death struck him he was sitting in a chair in his room. He had a weak heart and inaction of that organ caused his death. His remains reached Columbia Friday and from here were conveyed to Joppa where he resided, and later were interred in Columbia Cemetery.

He was about 65 years old and was a very industrious man from youth up, and he could name as many friends in this county as any other one man. His parents died when he was but a small boy. Mr. Herschel Willis gave him a home where he lived as one of the family until he married.

He was reliable, his word being as good as his bond, and was especially kind to his wife and children. He became a successful farmer, and no member of his family had to call upon him twice for anything they desired. In making them happy he was happy himself. When he came to Columbia he met you with a smile, and the warm grip of his hand told you that he was glad to see you.

He left, besides his wife, five children, three daughters and two sons. Two of his daughters are married and are living in the same neighborhood, the single one is teaching at Zion schoolhouse. His two sons are excellent business men. One is on the Atlantic Coast and the other on the Pacific Coast, Eldridge reaching here in time for the funeral. The deceased was a devout member of the Zion Baptist Church, and was always in his pew. He was also a liberal giver for church purposes.

The Joppa neighborhood has lost one of its best citizens, and no family but has experienced a like fatality, has the least conception what the wife and children have lost. May the Giver of all that is good sustain them in the sore trial of parting from husband and father, is the wish of the writer.

His burial was largely attended, and there were many beautiful floral designs.

Mules Wanted.

I will be at Columbia, on Monday, Oct., 2nd to buy a car load of mules, from 3 to 7 years old and from 15 to 16 hands high. Must be sound and in good flesh.

Sam Burdette.

New Preacher.

Conference has adjourned. R. L. Sleamaker, a new preacher to this section, comes to Columbia, to succeed Rev. R. V. Bennett. The latter remains principal of Lindsey-Wilson. Rev. T. J. Wade remains as Presiding Elder of Columbia District.

Died at Campbellville.

Mrs. Alice Hord, who was the widow of the late Henry Hord, an excellent lady, died Monday morning at her late home, Campbellville. She was about 76 years old and a half sister of the Gowdy brothers of that place. She was an aunt, by marriage, to Mrs. Rollin Hurt, this place.

Call at once and investigate The New Edison free record offer.

Funeral Services of Mr. Goodman.

Besides local relatives and friends, there were quite a number from Russell, Barren and Monroe counties here last Thursday to attend the last sad rites of Mr. J. T. Goodman, who died in Colorado Springs, Colo., on Wednesday, September 13, 1922.

Religious services were held at the Methodist church, the deceased being a zealous member of that denomination, conducted by Rev. R. V. Bennett, pastor. The Masonic fraternity of which the deceased had long been a member, attended in a body, its impressive ritualistic ceremonies being used at the grave. When friends withdrew the mound was banked with beautiful floral offerings.

Preamble and Resolutions.

Columbia Lodge, No. 96, Free and Accepted Masons, takes this method of expressing to the widow and son, mother and other relatives of the late J. T. Goodman, its profoundest sorrow in the loss of husband and son, whose death occurred in Colorado Springs, Colo., September 13th, and whose remains were brought to Columbia and interred on Wednesday the 21st inst., with honors of the order. Bro Goodman was born in Monroe county and was 54 years, 10 months and 27 days old when the end came. He was also an active and highly respected citizen of Columbia for quite a number of years, a devout member of the Methodist Church and a zealous Mason, his purse at all times open to worthy causes. Columbia Lodge, No. 96, F. and A. M., has lost one of its best members and his going away is sincerely deplored. His long association with the fraternity, his wise counsel, is imbedded in the hearts of his brother members, and he will not be forgotten.

Therefore, we as a lodge tender to the sorrowing wife, son and relatives our heartfelt sympathy in the great loss that they have sustained.

2nd. That the members of the fraternity wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that this preamble and the resolutions be spread upon the record book of the lodge.

3rd. That we commend his manner of living to each and every member of the fraternity, knowing that he was a good and true Mason, one whose manner of living should be emulated.

4th. That a copy of this preamble and the resolutions be sent to the widow of the deceased.

Geo. E. Wilson,
J. C. Strange,
J. E. Murrell,

Committee.

Mr. G. A. Atkins, of Milltown, met with a very serious accident a few days ago. He was loading rock upon a wagon when a very large one fell, catching one of his legs and quite a bit of flesh was torn to the bone. It is hoped that he will recover soon.

Being a member of the Edison Library entitles you to play the entire catalogue list of Records free.

H. Taylor.

Remember that Congressman Ralph Gilbert will address the citizens of Adair county, at the court-house, at 1 o'clock the first Monday in October

Murdered a Boy.

Luther Gideon Sneed has more than likely committed his last crime. A dispatch from Franklin, Ky., dated the 21st inst., states that he found Thomas Jackson Butt, a boy 12 years old, in a hickory tree, gathering nuts. Without provocation he fired the contents of the gun at the boy, killing him instantly. Mr. J. G. Rogers, who lives on an adjoining farm, heard the shot and hastened to the scene. He caught the lad as he fell from the tree and he died in a few minutes. Sneed was seen a short distance away with a muzzle-loading shot gun. In half an hour after he was arrested by the sheriff and carried to Bowling Green to prevent mob violence. Sneed is a native of Adair county, and in his pocket was a piece of an Adair county paper, and the wads for his gun were taken from the same paper. Sneed's father, who is a subscriber to the Adair County News, receives it at Franklin. It is a mistake about Luther Sneed serving in an Assym. He has served a term in the penitentiary and has been in many broils. He has done considerable time in the Adair county jail and for years has been regarded as an all round bad man.

Public Sale.

On Saturday, October 7, at 10 o'clock, I will offer for sale my house and lot and household goods, near the Graded School building, and opposite Eld. Z. T. Williams residence. Positive sale. One fourth down and the rest on Easy terms.

Mules.

I am in the market for the rest of the season to buy good mules.

Sam Burdette.

The largest sale held in Adair county for many years will be pulled off by G. E. Neil at Gradyville, Saturday, October 7. Read his big advertisement.

When you buy that Phonograph, consider the Edison, with the thousands of free records.

H. Taylor.

The tobacco receiving house is progressing rapidly, and the contractor thinks that he will have it ready for the growers by the specified time, 15th of November. There are now quite a number of hands at work on the building, and others will be employed as soon as they can be worked to an advantage. The contractor wants every lick to count. It will be an immense building, and persons who have not been out to the grounds, have but little idea about its dimensions. A building that will cover an acre of ground is some building.

Nine months old Short Horn male calf for sale.

W. T. Dohoney, Columbia, Ky.

Pie supper at Coburg schoolhouse next Friday night. Come, everybody.

Time Brings Changes.

How many people are there now living in Columbia when McFarland Canterbury was jailer of Adair county?

How many when Thos. E. Bramlett was Circuit Judge of the Columbia Judicial district?

How many when John A. Peebles walked down to his office every day at 10 a. m.

How many when Sikes Wheeler was a noted character about Columbia?

How many when there was only one church building in Columbia?

How many when Daniel Booty and John Sanders were noted school teachers of this county.

How many when Wm. Stewart was a clerk in the department at Washington.

How many when the wooden bridge that spanned Russell's creek near the Meyers & Barger Roller Mill was built?

How many when Jas. H. Reynolds, S. H. Murrell and Joe Young, the father of J. H. Young, did more riding over Adair county than any other three men.

When the first Hebrew opened a store in Columbia? He sold goods in the old brick where the postoffice now stands.

How many when Gaither's and Jack Squire's companies left for the Mexican war?

How many when Drs. Nathan Gaither, H. O. Owens and S. B. Field did about all the practice for Adair county?

How many when Mr. Wm. Todd, the father of J. D. and A. G. Todd, came to town every Saturday afternoon, smoking his cob pipe?

How many when Willis Wheat sold goods where the Bank of Columbia is now doing business, and had for his salesman Mr. Jo Coffey?

How many when Jim Bramlette and John S. Browning made the race for the Legislature?

When John Eubank had a wagon shop in a brick building that stood on the street where Mrs. Bettie Butler's residence now stands?

Cottage for rent.

W. F. Cartwright.

Pie supper at Stapp Springs next Friday night for benefit of the school.

Mr. J. R. Tutt's Illness.

Every few days some friend asks us about the condition of Mr. J. R. Tutt, who has been a prominent merchant of Milltown for quite a number of years, and who has almost retired from business on account of his health. He has reached his seventy-fifth birthday and up to one year ago he had been active since he reached his majority. He is in no immediate danger, gradually failing in strength, but he is not confined to his bed. He sits about his store, and his son, J. R. Tutt, Jr., looks after the business. Mr. Tutt was born in Columbia and went with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Tutt, to Milltown when quite a child, and it can be truthfully said that he has been a resident at his present abode for more than seventy years. He has led an honorable life and been a great help to the people of his community. He has been a firm man and at all times ready to meet his obligations. God has prospered him, and when he leaves this low land of sorrow and disappointments, marks of his industry about Milltown will remain. May he live many more years is the wish of all who know him.

Dedication.

Dedication of Methodist Church at Christies Chapel, near Knifley, Ky., Sunday, Oct. 8, 1922.

Colored Fair at Columbia.

A big colored Fair will be held at the Fair Grounds Friday and Saturday, September 29 and 30. There will be fine racing and attractive saddle rings, and many good horse shows. A splendid Band of music. Everybody in all the adjoining counties should attend.

Tim Miller, President.

U. S. Bradshaw, Sec'y.

The Meeting.

The meeting at the Christain Church started last Sunday and a very large crowd was in attendance at the evening services. The song services are conducted by Miss Catherine Warriner, of Danville, who sings beautifully, her clear, melodious voice, bringing sunshine and inspiration to the audience. She is accompanied by a local choir. Good singing is half the battle in a series of meetings, and large crowds are expected to attend throughout the week and perhaps longer. Eld. J. I. Wheeler, the pastor, is doing the preaching.

Saw Mill Damaged by Fire.

The saw mill which was owned by Henry Cooley, located near Craycraft, was partly destroyed by fire last Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock. The fire did not reach the lumber that had been cut. The principle loss was the belting and the running gear. It will be two weeks before the mill can again start. This mill had a contract to cut a great deal of lumber for the Tobacco Receiving House, this place but it is not believed the fire will retard the building of this house, as other arrangements will be made.

Fertilizers.

I have several brans of the best fertilizers. Call at my place of business.

J. P. Hutchison, Poultry House.

Will Remove to Columbia.

Mr. J. F. Foley, one of Russell's county's best citizens, has purchased of Mr. Bruce Montgomery, the residence this side of the Fair Grounds, for $3,220 and will remove to it in a short time. This is a very desirable home and we are glad to announce that Mr. Foley and family will become residents of Columbia. This property is located near the Lindsey-Wilson, and we are informed that Mr. Foley's object in removing to this place is to educate his children.
