

DEFEAT WOULD HAMPER NATION SAYS PRESIDENT

CONTROL WOULD SERIOUSLY INTERFERE WITH CONDUCT OF WAR.

Washington, — President Wilson issued an appeal to the people to re-elect a Democratic Congress in the November elections if they approve of his course in this critical period.

Following is the President's appeal: "My Fellow Countrymen:

"The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without rival, but my power to administer the great trust assigned me by the constitution would be seriously impaired should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

Divided Leadership.

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the crises which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliations to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that make it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Unity of Command.

"The leaders of the minority in the present Congress have unquestionably been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn since we entered the war they have sought to take choice of policy and the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of instrumentalities of their own choosing.

"This is no time either for divided council or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil action as it is upon the field of battle. If the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and judge all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction.

Interpretation Abroad.

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would, moreover, be interpretative on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the Republican party are urging you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support my leadership, but even if they should do so, some credulous voters on the other side of the water, they would suppose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here that the Republican leaders desire not so much to support the President, as to control him.

"The people of the allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had so much as a support their President by electing to the Congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact not in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

"I need not tell you, my fellow-countrymen, that I am asking your support, not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times divided councils can be endured without permanent hurt to the country. But these are not ordinary times. If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

All Other Issues Must Give Way, Says Dr. W. W. Landrum, One of Louisville's Foremost Temperance Advocates.

Dear Brother: October 11, 1918. Grace, mercy and peace be with thee. In a Louisville morning paper I read to-day a report of a certain resolution said to have been passed by the Western Baptist Association. The title of the paper's report is "Vote as You Pray."

Legislature has passed the prohibition amendment. Congress has voted us a dry nation. National prohibition is as dead an issue as slavery or free silver. The one great issue is the winning of the war and the settlement of the momentous questions arising after the war. Those questions must be settled by the party that always sustains the President.

"I earnestly desire the election of Governor Stanley to the United States Senate." WOODROW WILSON

WILSON WANTS STANLEY TO HELP HIM WIN THE WAR

Wilson Wants a Democratic Senate To Conclude An Early and Victorious Peace.

Wilson Wants a Democratic Congress To Aid Him In Bringing the Boys Back Home.

Supported by a Senate in thorough accord with his wise policies and lofty ideas, Woodrow Wilson will speedily bring peace and order to a distracted world. This glorious day will be delayed if he and his party are repudiated at the polls and Lodge and Peurise and their faithful follower, Dr. Bruner, are permitted to heckle and harass him. Every day's unnecessary continuance of this struggle means the loss of precious lives, means weary hours of waiting for the return of our loved ones.

Support Wilson, his party and his followers for the sake of our brave boys abroad; indorse him for the sake of their loved ones at home. Gladden the great heart of the first citizen of the world by a vote of confidence on November 5. Stan'ey Indorsed By Labor

Cadiz, Ky., Oct. 22, 1918. My attention has been called to a statement in the Louisville press that all six preachers in our town were opposed to the election of Stanley as Senator. The author of that pronouncement had never consulted me. I am not a Democrat in politics, and am not now interested one hair's-breadth in the partisan phases of this campaign. But my sober judgment of the issues involved compel me to favor the election of Mr. Stanley in preference to Mr. Bruner. Certain Baptist Associations in Western Kentucky have been fit in the exercises of their inalienable right to urge our people to vote against Mr. Stanley, but to that advice I cannot consent.

I have left the most pressing and urgent duties at the National Capital and traveled a thousand miles to bring to you this message that your President and his associates are watching with anxious and intense interest the outcome of this election in Kentucky and are hoping that you will not fail to show your appreciation of the splendid work which has been done by giving a vote of confidence on the November election day and electing to the Senate, Gov. CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Do not imagine that because other cough medicines failed to give you relief that it will be the same with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Bear in mind that from a small beginning this remedy has gained a world wide reputation and immense sale. A medicine must have exceptional merit to win esteem wherever it becomes known. Chas. A. ABOUT CROUP.

If your children are subject to croup, or if you have reason to fear their being attacked by that disease, you should procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and study the directions for use, so that in case of an attack you will know exactly what course to pursue. This is a favorite and very successful remedy for croup, and it is important that you observe the directions carefully. Boys' High Top Boots at Low Cut prices at Fish's.

Berne, Oct. 29.—Ludendorff's resignation is interpreted to mean that Germany is expecting that the Allies' armistice terms will include the handing over of the German fleet, the cession of Metz and Strassburg to the Allies and the Allies occupying the fortifications of Cologne, Mannheim and Goblentz as a guarantee of Germany's acceptance of President Wilson's conditions. A precedent for the third condition is Bethmann Hollweg's dispatch on July 31, 1914, asking France to remain neutral and requesting German occupation of Toul and Verdun as a guarantee of French neutrality.
