Call on Rollie Green for a bargain, at the Great Sample Shoe House, No. 4 W. Main St., while visiting the Chautauqua at Lexington.

BUGGIES AND WAGONS.—See T. S. Shrou's new Buggies, Surreys and Wagons, if in need of such vehicles. He will sell cheap for cash, or will trade for a mule, horse, or old buggy. Examine and save yourself money.

THE SICK.—Charles Horseman is not improving in his sickness. Ford Coyle, of Washington Branch, at the time this notice was written was in a critical condition, very dangerous, indeed, with a complication of diseases.

DENTISTRY.—Bender comes to us highly recommended as a painless dentist and thorough workman in all the branches of his profession. He extracts, fills and crowns teeth without pain and without any of the usual complications of diseases.

he worked at his trade, he died penniless and was buried by a fund contributed by the citizens of Mt. Sterling. He must have been nearly one hundred years old.

ANNUAL G. A. R. REUNION.—The Cartmill Post, No. 141, G. A. R., have decided to hold their annual reunion at Midland City, Bath County, Aug. 20-22. Entire privileges let at the Post room at Salt Lick Saturday, July 26th, to the highest and best bidder, right reserved to reject any or all bids. Those who wish may send sealed bids to Elias McQuitty at Salt Lick. The reunion will be held in Reiston's grove, within 100 yards of the railroad depot. The shade is ample, water fine, the White Sulphur Cornet Band will furnish the music, and all the usual side features will be provided. The attempt will be made to surpass in attractiveness all previous reunions of this Post.

WEDDING.—Charles W. Nesbitt, of this town, and Mrs. Sallie Thompson, of Mt. Sterling, were to be wedded in Cincinnati yesterday (Wednesday), and make a bridal tour to New York City, Niagara Falls, Lake Chautauqua, Mead, Va., returning by way of Lexington, Va. The wedding, accompanied by a large party, she being Miss Tipton, of the bridegroom is a prominent and well-known man of Owingsville, present Commonwealth's Judge of this Judicial district. They are widely known and his friends are too numerous to count. In this consummation of his happiness we congratulate both him and his lovely bride and wish them a long and happy life together.

BARTINE'S SHOW.—Bartine showed to a full tent last Friday afternoon and to nearly as large a crowd at night. This was the third annual exhibition here. The home of the proprietors, manager and several of the performers is at Lebanon, O. Wallace Barnes is acquainted with many of them and says they are well-to-do, reliable people. They had a poor business before they reached this county, having showed in too many large railroad towns. They had a good crowd at Sharpsburg Thursday, but did no good at Mt. Sterling Saturday. They had a crowded tent at Olympia Monday. They went from Olympia to Morehead, and also intended showing at Hillsboro, Flemingsburg, Mt. Olivet, and then making their way into Ohio. The show is being improved and enlarged each year and the proprietors hope to finally develop it into a big show. The street parade while not elaborate was very good, the band an excellent one, and the performance so far as it went a first-rate one.

"UNCLE PATE" WELLS' DEATH.—Alexander Wells, born in this county Sept. 22, 1814, died last Friday, June 19th, 1896, of old age, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Felix Clark, near Olympia, and was buried at the George Jackson graveyard Saturday. "Uncle Pate" Wells, as the deceased was universally called, was the seventh and youngest son and last survivor of his father's family, which included Edward ("Uncle Ned"), James, Thomas, Whis, Benjamin, Joseph and Mrs. Samuel Hart, mother of Jailer Hose Hart. Uncle Pate was married Nov. 8th, 1836, to a sister of Samuel Goodan, near town. She died several years ago. Four children survive: Mrs. Felix Clark; Mrs. John Clark of this town; Mrs. George Clark of Flat Creek, and John Wells, who resides in Texas.

TOBACCO REPORT.—Expressly for the Outlook, by J. S. Phillips & Co., PLANTERS WAREHOUSE, Louisville, Ky., June 20, 1896.—This week we ask you to please print the attached quotations, which are made by an equal number of buyers and warehousemen. They give the idea of both sides as to price. The only difference between this and last week's tobacco market is a certain, strong and growing demand for all real bright tobacco. The trade is severely discounting the prices of all bad and doubtfully-ordered tobaccos. We beg you to prize in real dry-keeping order.

BATH SALES.—1 hhd. old leaf at $7.10; 3, old lugs, $6.90 to 5.95; 5, new trash, $3.60 to 35c; 1, old trash, $2.05.

June 18th.—Offerings very light. Quality and prices common, but no material change in quotations. Receipts are now lighter.

THE PROPOSAL REFERRED.—Some ten years ago Albert Storey, the Daniel Lambert of Mt. Sterling, took a queer notion to wander, and cutting abruptly loose from his base of supplies and the scenes of all his triumphs marched rapidly out into the vast expanse of the world. The story of his campaigns by field and flood has not yet been all told, but he burned himself severely down South and himself setting in he was compelled to stay a long time at Hot Springs for treatment. The report came back to this section that he was dead. He was much missed and lamented by his old friends and acquaintances, to whom there was only one Albert Storey. Fancy their astonishment when he showed up in town last Friday with his portable home-spun candy factory! But physically he was not half the Storey he once was, and besides his rubicund round visage was disguised by a pair of brush-heap sandy horseshoe whiskers. However, the contraction of his bulk had not affected the first time in his life that he spent over two weeks at a time out of Bath county. He had a great time and caught lots of fish.

Mrs. Elva Catlett and daughter, Miss Agnes, returned Monday from a visit to relatives and friends at Paris.

ANDREW JACKSON BUTTON.—Jas. A. Anderson, of Forge Hill, showed us an interesting button, plowed up by Richard W. Goodpaster on the farm of the widow of John Fenwick, near Licking river. The button is a brass one of the style much in fashion for coat buttons in the period before the war. This one has on the eyelet side the inscription "Andrew Jackson March 4th A. D. 1829," with twenty stars, all arranged around the outside of a quadrilateral figure. The face of the button once had on it lettering and probably a portrait, but is now worn nearly smooth.

LET HAMILTON'S DEATH.—Eli Hamilton, aged 66, died at the Eastern Kentucky Asylum, Lexington, on June 15th. The remains were taken to Myers' Station, Nicholas county, and interred on the 17th. His estate was attacked by a lingering illness and Isaac Day went to West Liberty Saturday on business.

JUDGE C. W. GOODPASTER and wife made a visit to Lexington Monday.

E. L. Payne and wife, of Stepstone, visited the latter's father, R. L. Tipton, Sr., Sunday.

Miss Anna Peters is ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Watt Peters, on Slate Avenue.

Mrs. W. R. Peters, Jr., and children, of Bethel, visited C. C. Hazelrigg's family Tuesday.

Dr. Everett and Glenn Perry went with the excursion party to Natural Bridge Tuesday.

James Harrison and sister, Miss Nettie, of Little Rock, visited at C. C. Hazelrigg's Tuesday.

Wm. Reynolds, of North Middletown, was calling on friends here from Friday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Case are visiting relatives in Fleming county, near Sunset, this week.

J. R. Robertson and Jas. Terry, of Moorefield, were registered at the Owings House Monday.

Mrs. George Hawk and son, of Cynthiana, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ewing the past week.

Miss Mary Goodpaster went Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. C. C. Chenault, in Mt. Sterling.

Wm. Clayton and wife, of Young's Springs, were in town Monday, the guests of Sheriff Lane's family.

Miss Emily, daughter of Dr. W. C. Nesbitt, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Charles M. Crain, of Farmers, came over on his bike Saturday and spent several hours with friends.

Mrs. Owen Fitch and son, Master Robert, of Winchester, arrived Monday, on a visit to her uncle, T. H. Brown.

Samuel N. Cassidy, of near town, and Richard Lane, of Stepstone, are selling tobacco in Louisville this week.

E. B. May and wife, of Mt. Sterling, and Jeff Prater and wife, of Salyersville, were registered at the Owings House Sunday.

James P. Hamilton, of near town, went Tuesday to attend the meeting of Kentucky Educational Association at Newport, June 23-25.

Mrs. Eliza Clark and granddaughter, Miss Lida Gillispie, who had been visiting Mrs. John Scott the past week, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas A. Lee and son Roscoe, of New York City, arrived Thursday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Guggel.

Squire George W. Sorrell returned recently from a two-months' visit with the family of his son, J. N. Sorrell, in Franklin county. It was bought lumber and contracted to have a barn built on a farm he owns six miles from Frankfort.

W. C. Payne, Route Agent of the Adams Express Co. on the C. & O. Railway, Lexington Division, with his family, passed through town Saturday on his way to Grange City and Hillsboro on a visit to relatives.

Lee Rice, of Wyoming, is selling tobacco in Louisville this week. He will stop off at Frankfort on his return to intercede with Gov. Bradley for a pardon for George Dentley. He has a strong petition in George's interest.

A letter from Miss Mary L. Ford to a lady friend in town states that she stopped over at Lynchburg, Va., for a visit with friends on her return to her home at Madisonville, Charlotte county, Va. Miss Ford had charge of the Intermediate department at Bath Seminary under Prof. Crabb the past two sessions and filled position with eminent satisfaction to the patrons, while she was much beloved by the pupils for her kindly interest in their educational progress and earnest labors in that behalf. She is a handsome lady, with most charming manners and accomplishments. Her culture and many amiable qualities made her society most welcome in the refined homes of the town, and the many warm friends she made here were very reluctant indeed to part with her.

Wm. Moore, of Roe's Run, went to Frankfort Friday, returning home Saturday. While there he visited with the family of his son, J. N. Sorrell, in Franklin county. It was

Many symptoms of catarrh, headache, earache, indigestion, dyspepsia, etc., are the result of decayed teeth and roots of teeth. To be cured of these aches and pains one must commence at that origin, which are the teeth and gums, which is only cured by the skillful treatment of a dentist. Those who are of a nervous and delicate condition can come and have teeth extracted and filled and feel as calm as if they had no work performed.
