No, you don't come that on us, Artie Sewall! Will pay us, when you and Bill Bryan thump a fifty-cent dollar free-silver law through Congress and sign it? No, and that doesn't go either! You'll pay us New York firms of the John N. Robbins Co. $822 and $848 for repairing Arthur Sewall & Co.'s ships W. T. Babcock and Croquis respectively, and Johnson & Hammond $8,500 because your Iroquois collided with the E. S. Powell, in good 100-cent dollars under the present gold standard. You won't do it? Then we direct our lawyers to sue you for those sums and attach your goods in this jurisdiction until the courts pass up on the cases. Now you can go ahead with your rat-killing and free-silver making. We'll be on hand when you issue your free silver and will get our share with scowp shovels and dump carts."

She gave herself to her Savior in her 12th year and continued to walk in the path of righteousness through life. She entered the bonds of matrimony with W. H. Gray (son of Fielding Gray,) in the Christian Church at Hillsboro November 15th, 1888. D., of Atlanta, Ga., will visit Owingsville during the week of the Institute and on Tuesday night, Aug. 25, will give one of his popular song recitals, which promises to be the best entertainment Owingsville has had for many a day. He has electrified and captivated large audiences all over the South. His wife, Mrs. Lucie Browne, who is a pianist of great attainments, is his accompanist. This is the opportunity of your life-time to hear at home a singer equal to the greatest.

Price of admission suits the times, only 25 cents. Proceeds for the benefit of Methodist Church. Some testimonials: "An inexpressibly sweet voice." "Atlanta Constitution." "This man has stirred all Montgomery with his song recitals." "Montgomery Journal." "That he is an artist no one will ever doubt after hearing his interpretation of a song."—Western Express. FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.—With this issue, we are authorized to announce Charles W. Nesbitt, of this town, as a candidate for the Circuit. Judicial nomination in this district. Charles W. Nesbitt is the second youngest son of the late James Monroe Nesbitt, was born and reared in this town, and has resided here all his life. His father, as is well known, was one of the most prominent attorneys in Eastern Kentucky, his reputation being made while he was still a young man and continuing until his decease. Legal eminence is hereditary in the family. James J. Nesbitt, another son, has for several years ranked as one of the leaders at the Owingsville Bar, and also a political leader of distinction, having represented Bath and Rowan counties in the Legislature with marked ability. Charles W. Nesbitt has served two terms as County Attorney and is at present Commonwealth's Attorney of this judicial district. He is a young man of popular manners, an excellent mixer, and has a strong personal friendship in every county in the district. He has an influential relationship to Montgomery both by blood and by marriage. He fell heir to a large part of the popularity of his father in Menifee and Rowan counties, and has added to it by his own qualities. The strength of his worthiness for the nomination is well recognized, but at present he seems to possess advantages of position in the race.

No, you don't come that on us, Artie Sewall! Will pay us, when you and Bill Bryan thump a fifty-cent dollar free-silver law through Congress and sign it? No, and that doesn't go either! You'll pay us New York firms of the John N. Robbins Co. $822 and $848 for repairing Arthur Sewall & Co.'s ships W. T. Babcock and Croquis respectively, and Johnson & Hammond $8,500 because your Iroquois collided with the E. S. Powell, in good 100-cent dollars under the present gold standard. You won't do it? Then we direct our lawyers to sue you for those sums and attach your goods in this jurisdiction until the courts pass up on the cases. Now you can go ahead with your rat-killing and free-silver making. We'll be on hand when you issue your free silver and will get our share with scowp shovels and dump carts."
