VOL. XXIV.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1903.

NO. 47

57 When you have a news item or wish to communicate with THE OUTLOOK office by 'phone ring up

It is a short time between show-nos.

For Sale.—Yellow and black sand. Outlook office.

There was a good shower Wednesday night of last week.

A number of showers Friday afternoon helped melt down the clouds.

Children's day will be celebrated at the Wyoming Christian Church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

The sand hauled for the Court-house improvements is a great place for the little shavers.

We must have our money, so please call and settle.

S. S. SKEWER.

New and up-to-date merchandise at half prices at the big sale at Heyman's, in Sherburne, Bath Co.

Robert Johnson, the barber, had a dozen frying chickens eaten by some varmint one night last week.

Henry Duff, of Stepstone, lost 78 young turkeys and 49 young chickens by limberneck one night recently.

Gas Loeb has charge of the big sale of dry goods, clothing, etc., now in progress at Sherburne, Bath Co.

The dedication services at the Bethel Christian Church last Sunday were highly attended despite the rain.

The fine showers the past week have made tobacco seasons which the farmers have eagerly taken advantage of.

Reliable dry goods, clothing and shoes almost given away at the big sale at Heyman's, in Sherburne, Bath Co.

It was no trouble for it to rain after it got a good start. The moon chasing 26th ult. seems to have had its effect.

On June 19 and 20 I will hold competitive examination for applicants for A. & M. College.

W. P. PEAR, Sup.

Decorative day (Saturday) was privately observed and there was a profusion of flowers placed on the graves in Owingsville Cemetery.

The talk of the country—Heyman's slaughter sale of new dry goods, clothing and shoes.

Gus Loeb, Mgr.

That's all right about sweet potato plants. If you will just look at Brother & Goodpastor's you would not have any others "on the Xmas tree."

Wm. E. Richards, of Georgetown, had a stroke of paralysis the fore part of last week and was unconscious for a while, but was better at last report.

A Rowan county spectator at the ball game Sunday remarked that the Bath county team's pitcher was "throwing barrel hoops."

T. S. Shroust not only sells all kinds of buggies but a No. 1 hand-made break cart at $35.50 as good as you can buy at any price; guaranteed for two years.

I make the best break cart on the market, $30, $35, $40; rubber tires, 1.15 to $22 per set. Buggy repairing and painting a specialty.

OSCAR PALMER.

Lot.—Sunday a lady's small solid gold watch with fob containing agate in nickel setting. $2.50 reward to finder.

JAMES Y. BAROON.

T. S. Shroust has the best buggy painter in Bath Co., and if you have your buggy painted for any price from $3 to $8 see him. If not satisfied when you see your buggy after having it painted there will be no charge.

Funeral Furnishings. Prompt equipments and modern services; also dealer in first-class furniture of all descriptions. Call and see before purchasing elsewhere.

M. D. FARRIS, Owingsville, Ky.

S. L. Hays, Funeral Director and Embalmer.

For Sale.—On Monday, June 8th, 1903, (County Court day) I will sell at public auction the stock of monuments and tools of the Owingsville Granite and Marble Co. in order to close out the business. Terms three months time without interest.

R. B. CONNER.

Bring your old buggies to T. S. Shroust and trade for a new one, or if you want a second-hand buggy at any price from $5 to $30 come and see them; we have plenty of them nicely painted and repaired until they will give satisfaction. He keeps a man painting every day.

Engagement.—The engagement is announced of Mr. G. Chapman Young, of this city, to Miss Joan Elston, who is a very attractive girl, is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. J. C. Elston, of Crawfordville, Ind. Mr. Young is connected with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. He was formerly a member of the bar. He is president of the High School Alumni Association, and is one of the best known young men in Louisville.—Louisville Post.

PERSONAL.

Arthur Byron returned last week from Falmouth.

J. T. Shroust, of Lockman, Clark Co., was in town Monday.

Robert Gault, of Frankfort, came up Monday afternoon on a visit.

Reuben Gudgeff went Tuesday to attend Circuit Court at Morehead.

Jack Graves, of Mt. Sterling, was here one day last week on business.

Mrs. Thomas L. Darnell returned Wednesday from a visit to Louisville.

Wilay G. Prater, after spending a few days in town, left for Prestonburg Sunday.

Thomas J. Jones was up town Saturday for the first time since his attack of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kincaid, of Stepstone, were guests of Mrs. Lida Kincaid Thursday.

Miss Kate Conner returned Thursday from a visit of six weeks to relatives at Bardonia.

Mrs. Walter Harper, of Mt. Sterling, came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Eliza Dawson.

Mrs. Ida Elliott and daughter Miss Julia went Friday to attend the Blue Grass Tournament at Mt. Sterling.

Miss Linda Allen was called to Frankfort Tuesday by the illness of her brother-in-law, Jerry Corbett.

Miss Lillian Barnes and George Dickerson, of Salt Lick, were visitors at D. Sheehan's Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. N. Crooks has returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Saunders, at Sharpburg.

Rev. E. E. Holmes, of Cincinnati, joined Mrs. Holmes at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutcheson's Thursday.

Misses Julia Elliott and Lottie Atchison returned home Thursday from Madison Female Institute, to spend the vacation.

Miss Pearl Sorrell, who had been visiting her sister Mrs. Oscar Palmer, returned to her home at Bethel the latter part of last week.

Mrs. S. J. Feasing, son Henry and baby daughter Mary Belle, of Tusculum, Ala., came Wednesday night to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Conner.

Miss Elizabeth Boyd Scott, on the closing of Madison Female Institute, came Saturday to visit her aunt Mrs. B. M. Goodpastor on her way home to Morehead on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Martha Ann Perry, of Yocum, Morgan county, stopped over Saturday afternoon with her mother, Nancy Crouch on her return from a trip with her daughter to Louisville. On Monday she and Mrs. Crouch went to Morehead on a visit to relatives.

Jim Will Atchison, of New Orleans, spent some days in town with relatives the past week. He went to town this morning many years ago. He reports his father, Wright Atchison, still alive at the age of 88 and able to jump an acre of corn in less than two minutes before touching the ground.

HYPOTRIZED SOME OF THEM.—A hypnotist Saturday afternoon played some tricks on the streets and gave an exhibition to a small crowd at the Court-house this night. It seemed to be the best thing.

T. S. Shroust has two diplomas which can be seen in his furniture store. They called to embalm a body and the body is not perfectly presentable on day of burial there will be no charge.

We hereby notify parties who hold claims against estate of the late George Leadson to present same properly approved for payment.

J. J. MARK & B. SAUNDERS, Admsrs.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—Remaining Owingsville postoffice June 1, 1903: Miss Emma Jones (2), Claude P. Stephens, J. W. Moore, Jno. Eason, Richard Edda, Mrs. Lee Gibson, Wm. Paine, Joe Crouch, Req. Mrs. Fred Clarke, A. B. Boyd, H. A. Austin, J. R. O'Bryan, N. Lining. Persons calling for above letters please say "advertised."

J. A. BARNES, P. M.

KENTUCKY CHAUTAUQU.—The Seventeenth Annual Session of the Kentucky Chautauqu will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, June 30 to July 10, inclusive. One of the best programs ever offered will be given. The detailed program will be mailed to any address upon application to Charles Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky. 47

PROTRACTED MEETING.—At the Owingsville Christian Church protracted services will begin Sunday, June 7th, at 11 a. m., to continue through three weeks. Week day services will begin at 8 o'clock p. m. each night except Saturdays.

Elder T. S. Tinsley, former pastor of this church, will preach one sermon—Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, June 7th. All his old friends are urged to give him a rousing welcome.

K. of P.'s OUTFIT.—The following K. of P.'s went on a trip to the present terminus of the Licking Valley railroad Saturday, returning home Sunday night: C. W. Honaker, Walter Coyle, J. K. Emmons, Judge N. B. Patterson, T. S. Shroust, Nathaniel Markland, W. P. Conner, Jr., Dee Conner, S. P. Atchison, Judge C. W. Goodpastor and J. Add Power. They left here about noon and took the L. V. train at Salt Lick about 2:30 p. m. At Yale they were joined by the K. of P.'s living there and the whole party went on to the Miami Branch cave in Morgan county sixteen miles above Yale, where they camped in the train and explored the cave, which is a large one containing many stalagmites and stalactite wonders, natural ice water, a running stream, etc. The party had a fine time, being guests of the Yale K. of P.'s.

GOOD SHOW.—Fred Cook's Moving Picture exhibition at the Court-house Monday night was attended by a crowd that left standing room only. It was much enjoyed by the spectators, some of the moving pictures being of thrilling interest. Some of the comic scenes also were fine. The show was to be given again Tuesday night.

RAISED BATH CO.'S ASSESSMENT.—Judge John A. Daugherty having been notified by the State Board of Equalization that Bath county's assessment on real estate except town lots and also on personally has been raised five per cent. went down to Frankfort Tuesday to appear before the Board to try to have the original equalized assessment stand.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—It would be a great accommodation to us if all correspondents who can do so would send their items in so they would reach this office on Monday. In this way the work can be properly divided between Monday and Tuesday and the forms can be prepared for going to press before night Tuesday. Otherwise the printers have to work after night and they don't like it a little bit, after working hard during the day also.

THE JONES SALE.—The receiver's sale of the stock, etc., at T. J. Jones' livery stable was held Thursday. Nearly everything was bought by Mrs. T. J. Jones and Samuel Estill, Jr., Buggies brought $15 to $60, horses $50 to $100 except one at $31. Estill bought the omnibus. Mrs. Jones had already five horses and bought six more. Estill bought a horse for $70, another for $100, a jack for $25, another for $100. The sale amounted to between $1,400 and $1,600. Mrs. Jones is continuing the business at the same stand.

BOUGIES SOLD.—The following persons got buggies or carts from T. S. Shroust the past ten days. His low prices make them sell.

ROLL OF HONOR.—Last week was given the list of pupils who had been on Roll of Honor at Bath Seminary for the entire year; that is, received a general average of 90 or more quarterly report. Through some error the name of little Miss Nannie Peed was omitted, to the disappointment of herself and teacher, for she had been an industrious student throughout the entire year, having received a general average of 97 in recitations and 100 in department. She is noted in school for her industry and bright, happy disposition and is a great favorite among her playmates and teacher. It is useless to add that she is among the first on the Roll of Honor.

Mrs. L. D. BROTHER.

ROBERT WILSON'S DEATH.—Robert Wilson, who had long been in bad health, died at his home in Maysville Saturday. Mr. Wilson formerly lived in the Bethel neighborhood and was a prominent and wealthy citizen and a man esteemed for his high character. He was a farmer by avocation, though in the latter years of his life he did not actively engage in that calling. He resided at various places after he left his former home. His wife, who was Miss May V. Peale, survives him and has the deep sympathy of innumerable friends here, where she resided and taught school before her marriage. Only two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their death some years ago was a blow from which they never recovered. Deceased was a brother of George and Matt Wilson, and Mrs. Wm. Whaley, all deceased. Probably none of the family of brothers and sisters survive.

DISPUTED GAME.—The Morehead baseball club again came down on Sunday and in the afternoon played a match game with a club composed of six Sharpburg and three Owingsville players. There was a large crowd out to see the game. In the ninth inning, with the score 14 to 13 against the Moreheads, Fitcher Thompson became disabled and the Moreheads objecting to a substitute pitcher the game ended. The crowd roared hard for the Bath county team, but the Moreheads had some young fellows with them that could rout a twenty-acre field up quicker than a drove of razor-back hogs and turn hand-springs equal to circus performers. The Moreheads were well organized and in fine practice. They played accordingly, each one filling his position admirably. The Bath county team need only to play together a while in order to outclass the Moreheads. The former was composed of Henry Craycraft, Jos. Sharp, Howard Thompson, Ed Crouch, Jo Peters, Hickey, Allie Crockett, Burns Tackett, Bob Catlett, Emmet Fratman and Ray Patterson. Patterson and Crockett each played only a short time.

KENTUCKIAN FOND OF MUSIC.—"When I was with Remyeni," said a Washingtonian, who many years ago was the press agent for the eminent Hungarian violin virtuoso, "I used often to be diverted by his amusing surprises he was fond of bringing on persons, who, not being aware of his identity, were on a course unfamiliar with his almost incredible proficiency with his instrument. Remyeni was very fond of America and Americans, had a remarkable knowledge of American history for a man of his nativity and training, and liked to visit American spots of historic interest.

"One afternoon down in Kentucky we drove to visit Ashland, Henry Clay's old home. Remyeni had no engagement to play that evening, and so we made the return trip an easy drive. Along toward dark we passed a little tumbled-down cabin, in front of which, seated on a rough-hewn bench, a gaunt man was 'fiddlin'—I say 'fiddlin' advisedly.

"Pull up," said Remyeni to me—I was driving—"and we'll listen."

"That is a first-rate instrument he is playing on," said Remyeni in his peculiar Magyar accent, "but the music!" and he chuckled quietly.

"After playing 'Old Zip Coon' about 15 times without once stopping, the gaunt man on the bench swung into 'Little Brown Jug,' which he performed about the same number of times, to the enormous delight of the six young ones, all apparently of the same approximate age, and his corn-cob-smoking wife, who emerged from the cabin and gathered around the bench as he sawed away.

"When he had finally wound up his 'Little Brown Jug' performance and rested the violin and bow on his knee Remyeni clapped out of the carriage and advanced toward the cabin, and, hitching the horse to a roadside tree, I followed him.

"Remyeni had been cordially received by the gaunt man, and was examining the violin when I reached the cabin.

"This violin is a genuine Jacobus Stainer, and a good one!" Remyeni was saying to the owner of the instrument. "Have you had it

How To TELL A MAD-DOG.—There are two stages of rabies. In the first, the dog is restless and uneasy. He has a hacking cough, shifts from one place to another, and towards the end of the first stage begins to bite at the place of inoculation. In this stage he is harmless, and can be easily put out of the way. In the second stage he becomes violent, wanders off, and will bite anything that interferes with him, though he will never attack unless he is attacked. Always turn out for a dog that won't turn out for you, and you will avoid all danger.—Ex.

REMEMONCE OF A BACHELOR.—"I was once a bachelor, and I know who dodged it." "Some of us would like to know who dodged it." "I dodged it by never getting married." "The funny, funny thing that a woman calls clothes a man calls mysteries." "Even if a man knew the names of all the queer things women wear it would not help him to understand why they do." "Whatever happens to be a good point of a woman's figure it is around that spot that she dresses the rest of herself.—New York Press.

WOMAN'S REPLY TO GRANT.—At a recent meeting of Confederate veterans in Richmond a story was told which, if true, shows that once at least Grant lost his characteristic imperturbability. While he was in Virginia during the Civil war an old lady sent her grandson to ask where he was going. The General answered gruffly: "Tell your grandmother that I am going to Richmond or Petersburg or heaven or hell." The boy came back in half an hour and said to the federal commander: "My grandma says you can't go to Richmond because Gen. Lee is there; you can't go to Petersburg because Gen. Beauregard is there, and you can't go to heaven because Gen. Jackson is there."

PURSE FOR HILLIS.—Memphis, Tenn., May 27.—The utterance of the Rev. Dr. Dwight Hillis, of New York, about making up the bed of Booker Washington, should be a visitor at his home, met with condemnation in this part of the South. Several of his admiring friends of McKennie, Tenn., sent him a purse of 30 cents, with the following words: "Dear Mr. Hillis—We are all poor, but want to share our substance with you in admiration for your wonderful sacrifice of yourself on the altar of duty for mere opinion's sake. Your courage is assuming the affirmative on the question, 'Shall Booker Washington have me spread his quilt,' is one of the finest examples of manly independence that the twentieth century has yet produced. 'We rather think the Indianapolis chambermaid has you bested at the game, and her position is probably more remunerative than yours, but we glory in your spirit, and we are not willing for your efforts to go unrewarded. Yours affectionately, 'ADMIRING FRIENDS.'

A FAIR WARNING.—Mrs. Samuel Clemens was Miss Olivia Langdon. For some years before she met Mr. Clemens, she had been confined to her bed with what was believed to be an incurable disease; but she was at length miraculously restored to health. The cure was the sensation of Elmira, N. Y., and young Clemens, then a newspaper report

WATCH AND JEWELRY REPAIRING
Odd, but it almost seems as though some watch adjusters can't make a watch do right, just as some physicians can't make headway in certain cases. A change often brings about a cure in both watch and patient. If your watch gets cranky—and watches do get that way at times—bring it in and let us adjust it; no charge.
