ARRAMISH & ROBERTSON, Bethel, Ky.
FATAL SHOOTING OFFER.—At a dance at the colored dancing hall in Sharpburg Friday night Henry Wells and Kemp Ames, of Carlisle, both colored, got into a row. The quarrel was renewed outside. Each shot a couple of times at the other. Wells was grazed by a bullet and Ames was shot through the body. Wells was brought here Saturday and lodged in jail. Ames died Sunday afternoon. Wells' examining trial is set for Thursday. He claims self defense.
DR. A. B. BOYD'S DEATH.—Dr. Andy Boyd died at Fairmount, W. Va., Saturday afternoon. He had been practicing his profession of dentistry there for about six months. His wife, who was at Carlisle, was notified of his illness and went to him, arriving there Thursday afternoon. The body was brought to Carlisle Monday night and the funeral was held there Tuesday.
Deceased was a son of Spencer Boyd and was born and reared near Reynoldsville. He was aged 32 years. After the death of his parents the family removed to Carlisle. Deceased learned the profession of dentistry and practiced it in Carlisle and for some years at this town, returning to Carlisle about five years ago. He married Miss Ova Hendrix, daughter of Squire Thos. J. Hendrix, of this town. She and their two little sons, Tharp and Smith, survive. Deceased's brother Thomas died at Carlisle recently. His surviving brother and sisters are Misses Mary and Bessie, of Carlisle; Kay Radiff, of Mexico, and William, of Virginia. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their loss.
B. F. MARTIN.—Farmers, Ky., April 23, 1905.—Resolutions on the death of our worthy brother B. F. Martin.—H. F. Martin was born in 1851 and died on the 29th day of March, 1905, at his home in Farmers, Ky.
He was initiated into Farmers Lodge No. 32, I. O. O. F., on the 11th day of December, 1902. Constant in attendance, never missing a meeting in the Lodge unless prevented by some unavoidable cause, was an ardent member, a faithful observer of the principles of our order. The brotherhood of love of an Odd Fellow was truly engrained in his nature, always ready to assist a brother in distress or to do a fraternal act whenever opportunity offered; loyal to friends and generous to foe.
He was frank and open in all his intercourse with his fellows and faithful to the principles he espoused.
He has filled his sphere well and stands before the Great Judge who recognizes merit and is merciful to all.
We feel that the world has been benefited by his having lived in it. And in his death his family has lost a devoted husband and father, the church a faithful pastor, the Lodge a useful member, and the community a good, honorable citizen.
Let us honor and keep the virtue of our beloved brother fresh in our memories, while we bedeck his grave with the evergreen of sympathy, believing that he, with Byron, would say:—
"Nay, no marble bestow
The splendor of woe,
Which the children of vanity rear;
No fiction of fame,
Blazen my name;
All I wish, all I ask is a tear."
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, a copy sent to THE OWINGSVILLE GAZETTE for publication and a copy spread upon the minute book of our Lodge.

STREET FAIR.—A committee of business men is working on a project to give a mammoth street fair here about Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 18, 19 and 20. Liberal subscriptions have already been made. Practically the same committees will be in charge that conducted the highly-successful street fair last September, and vice president will be appointed from every magisterial district and voting precinct in the county. Premiums will be offered for everything that is produced on a farm. The intention is to employ Saxton's band of Lexington, and if this is done the Dance Club will give one of their justly-famed hops.
WARNING.—Hoopston, Ill., April 20, 1905.—OWINGSVILLE OUTLOOK: In view of the fact that a number of people from Bath county have conceived the idea that the gold at the end of the rainbow is to be found here, I desire to devote some of the spare space of your paper to information concerning Hoopston and Vermilion county.
First, the industrial opportunities, which have been exploited there, are wanting. Kentuckians from Barren and Metcalf counties have awarmed in upon this town and vicinity. They are still coming. This migratory movement is due mainly to the fact that the American Can Co., which controls the can-making interest of the country, has advertised for Ky. labor in Ky. newspapers. He who runs may read the warning: Stay away from Hoopston and Vermilion county. Already the "tie-shuffle" has begun. Hobos may be seen along the railroads eating their concoction of shipstuf and water. We know of at least one way-worn Kentuckian of this vicinity (Hoopston), by the way, is known here by the name "Silvester Slim" who has boarded the rods and doubtless ere this has completed his illegal journey to the "land of sun and flowers." These facts may be valuable to some one who contemplates coming to this section. Respt.

is fishing in troubled waters, and it seeks to catch a serpent rather than a fish.
It is no longer the Democratic party. It has embraced paternalism to the verge of socialism. The victory of the socialists of Chicago has stamped it and it will declare for governmental ownership of all railroads engaged in interstate commerce as soon as it gets a chance. Mr. Bryan declares that the Mayor-elect of Chicago has a chance to become the greatest man of the age. All he has to do is to saddle socialism on Chicago. He says that he indorses Mr. Roosevelt's railroad policy because it will lead to ownership if persisted in, and that is abundantly true, and then he gave us another twist of the Bryan political kaleidoscope. He now says he is in favor of the United States acquiring all the roads engaged in interstate commerce, and the others he would have the States acquire. Not a great while ago he said it would not do for the general government to have such enormous machinery in its hands.
The Hon. Frances S. Newlands, a Senator in Congress from the American "Old Sarum," Nevada, was at the New York dinner and followed Judge Parker. What he was doing there at all I can't understand, unless he was trying to represent Bryan, and why he made a speech I cannot imagine, unless it was to show that he had not the slightest conception of the principles of the Democratic party and the teachings of its exemplars.
The report goes on to say that the Hon. Newlands opened his address by outlining the principles of Democracy as he understands them. I wish I had been there. I am sure he said something to put people a-marveling. When I first got that the Hon. Newlands was a member of the Fifty-third Congress. That was in 1893. At that time he would not have walked on the same side of the street with a "Democratic principle." And now he is an elder in the Democratic Israel, expounding Democratic doctrines and preaching Democratic gospel.
Nothing after that he ran against old Stowser for Senator and he declared on the stump that he was "a Democrat on the money question and a Republican on the tariff question." He was a 16 to 10er and a protectionist. Therefore he had been a Republican, but was always a silver man.
The Hon. Newlands had this to say Thursday night: "Judged by these standards (which he had just laid down) there are men in the Democratic organization who are not Democrats." Could Stowser have put it wiser? Could Daniel have adjudged it shrewder? Nay, verily. Then the Hon. Newlands gave us this profundity: "Judged by these principles there are men in the Republican party who are Democrats." And whom do you suppose he was talking about? Why, Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican President, and Theodore Roosevelt, the last Republican President. The man was not joking. A surgical operation would not get a joke into his understanding. Swift and Dickens might have worked on a man like the Hon. Newlands for a decade without conveying to his mind the faintest sense of humor.
Now, Newlands heard Bryan and Ben Tillman say that Lincoln was a Democrat, and as he is not as steady on his Democratic pins as he would like to be, but just as steady as a man so lately in the Republican party is capable of being, the Hon. Newlands jumped at the absurdity and he says to it. It only shows the loose, shackling, rusty way some Democratic leaders talk politics. It is exceedingly Bryanesque.
Abraham Lincoln lived and died utterly oblivious of the fact that he was a Democrat, and I make no doubt that had he known what Bryan, Tillman and Newlands say they know, Lincoln would have been just as unsteady as they are. He believed in the doctrine of Hamilton. He idolized Henry Clay. He opposed the Mexican war, a Democratic affair. While he was living the Democratic party had no use for him, and he had no use for the Democratic party. But it has got to be eminently Democratic these days to proclaim the rot and the absurdity that Lincoln was a Democrat.
And Roosevelt is no more of a Democrat than Lincoln. It is true he put some tariff Democracy in some of his writings, but he has got bravely over that, and the standpatners are not the least little bit afraid that he is going to dump any of his former free-trade berets at their door. If Mr. Roosevelt is a Democrat, what is the Democratic party pretending to be alive for? Why don't they go and take possession of their President if he is theirs? Why don't they make him do some Democracy if he is a Democrat? Why don't some of them get into his cabinet if he is one of them, or go to foreign parts?
It is simply idiocy for Democracy to make capital out of Roosevelt's "Democracy." There is nothing in it. There are two things the Democratic organization may do. It can continue on the road to socialism and go to the devil, or it can take the advice of Judge Parker and deserve to live.

A Rare Musical Treat.
The music-loving people of Owingsville and vicinity will be pleased to learn that Miss Esther Margolin, the renowned violinist, assisted by a corps of eminent entertainers, will give a select musical concert at the Court-house here Thursday evening, April 27. Miss Margolin has in the past few months given concerts in most of the principal cities of Kentucky, and the local press was enthusiastic in their praise. Miss Margolin is a violinist of reputation throughout the country. She has appeared before large audiences in all the principal cities. Miss Sara Gronnan, pianist, is well known throughout the State as a performer of rare ability. Miss Clara Louise Mauls has a sweet voice of remarkable tone, and has charmed thousands. Miss Ollie Pigg, the cornet soloist, has no equal on the instrument. She never fails to arouse intense enthusiasm. Herr Von Frogg, the impersonator, is a great New York favorite and a sure cure for the blues. This entertainment will be a social event and no one should miss it. The admission will be 35 cents, 15 cents for children. Tickets are now on sale at Kimbrough's drug store.

Savoynard's Wisdom.
[Louisville Post.]
Washington, April 15.—The Jefferson Day speeches of Judge Parker and Mr. Bryan serve to emphasize the wide gulf that separates the conservatives and the radicals, and now we realize what an impossible task the Democratic party set about, last summer, when the attempt was made to fuse the element that believed in Cleveland and John S. Carlisle and the element that believed in Bryan and Jerry Simpson, Jefferson and Hamilton, Jackson and Clay, Breckinridge and Douglas were not so wide apart as Parker and Bryan, and Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln were not wide apart the day that Fort Sumter was bombarded.
It is true that Mr. Bryan gave Judge Parker a great deal of lip service—of which he constantly keeps a large supply on hand—last campaign, and it is equally true that on the night of November 8 last Theodore Roosevelt gave no more evidences of satisfaction with the result than did William J. Bryan next morning. Therefore, I say lip service is german, and the word for the occasion.
Judge Parker's speech last Thursday evening would not have been challenged by any Democracy of the last generation. It is the Democracy of Tilden and of Thurman, of Cleveland and Lamar. But it is out of fashion at last, on the shelf and has given place to "radicalism." We have talked on times when the constitution of the United States has no more binding force upon a Democrat than it has upon a Republican, when the Democratic party had no more reverence for that sacred instrument than the Populist party had. The Democratic party
