A. D. Bryant, of Athol, has purchased a farm near the mouth of Troublesome Creek of F. P. Crawford and will soon move to it. Mr. Bryant is a good citizen and will prove a good accession to that neighborhood.

The first number of the Camp ton Courier came to our table last week. It is owned by a stock company living at Camp ton and it is edited by L. T. Hovemale, formerly of Frenchburg. We hope the people of Wolfe county will give it the patronage it deserves.

Greenwell, 5c. Ask any grocer.

The Swan-Day mill, after being idle several months on account of lack of timber, started up this week. The recent small tides brought enough logs for about three month's run. It gives employment to about fifty men.

James W. Edwards still being unable to attend at the trial in the Court of Appeals in the Hargis-Callahan case, his deposition was taken Thursday to be read as evidence in the case. Commonwealth's Attorney John R. Allen, of the Fayette Circuit Court, was here and conducted the cross examination.

Green R. Kellar, editor of the Carlisle Mercury, was here from Saturday till Monday the guest of F. W. Fletcher. Mr. Kellar was Clerk of the Senate for several terms and was a candidate for Secretary of State at the Music Hall convention, since which time he has retired as an active participant in state politics.

MARRIAGES.

Huey Keith and Lena Tharp were married yesterday at the residence of the bride near Jackson.

Tilden Combs and Pheba Spencer were married at the residence of the bride, near Lost Creek last Thursday.

Every store in town, Greenwell, 5 cents.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit court convened last Monday with Judge Riddle on the bench. The first business was to organize the grand jury and the following responded to their names when called:

Joseph Helton	George Spencer
Lewis Deaton	Roger Combs
R. T. Davis	Wm. Griffith
W. W. Caudill	Joseph Lovely
J. A. Bailey	R. M. McQuinn
W. P. Noble	Esquire Riley
R. M. McQuinn	was appointed foreman.

The Judge then reminded the jury that Breathitt county was being talked about a great deal over the entire country just now and it rested with them whether our present conditions should continue. If the jury follows his instructions we will certainly have better times, but we will see what we shall see and try to give credit to whom credit is due.

The following gentlemen compose the petit jury:

JURY NO. 1.
Bryant Spicer	Sol. Noble
J. S. Cope, Sr.	Floyd Craft
Joel Stamper	W. B. Little
A. C. Russell	Wesley Turner, Sr.
John Moore	J. M. Snowden
Sam Noble	Dillard Hadden
JURY NO. 2.
Ben McIntosh	M. M. Hounshell
J. E. Lang	Wm. Smith
James Lee	John Burton
A. C. Hudson	Ezekiel Spencer
G. H. Williams	H. C. Calhoun
Green Bryant	Jno. B. Thompson

Notwithstanding the bad weather a large crowd was in town, as is usual on the first day of a circuit court here.

J. K. Roberts was appointed Commonwealth's Attorney. Monday and Tuesday were principally taken up in the trial of misdemeanor cases.

R. T. Davis, one of the grand jurors, was excused on his own motion on account of his private business demanding his attention, and A. C. Bowman was substituted in his stead.

Indictments were returned Wednesday against Elijah Bush, Alex. Jackson, Robert Neeley, John D. Turner and James Patton for murder; Nathaniel Clemons for malicious shooting and wounding and against Robert Morris for seduction, and on Thursday morning indictments were brought in against Alex., James and Elbert Hargis, Jesse Spicer, John Abner and John Smith for the murder of James Cockrell, but the Court would not allow them to be filed pending the case now in the Court of Appeals concerning the Fayette Circuit Court indictments.

A number of other indictments were returned for minor offenses. No felony cases have as yet been tried.

Among the visiting attorneys are the following: Hugh Riddle, Irvine; Hon. J. C. Lykins, A. H. Stamper and J. M. Tester, Camp ton; Z. T. Hurst, Boxer; T. C. Johnson, Tallega, and F. E. Fogg, of West Liberty.

IN MY NEW STORE.

I wish to thank my many friends for the most generous patronage I received while at Lost Creek, and ask that they still patronize me, and I will extend to each and every new customer the same attention my old ones have received in the past.

I am Receiving New Goods Daily and will continue to receive them until my store will be known far and wide as

The store that keeps everything and sells goods so cheap

that the other merchants will wonder how and why I sell this way.

J. R. BLAKE

For Jailer.

Lewis Gross places his announcement in this issue of THE NEWS as a candidate for jailer, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Gross is a good citizen, about 50 years old, has never asked for office before and asks that the people of Breathitt county, irrespective of party, give him a just consideration.

My friends are everywhere, Greenwell, 5 cents.

Important Notice.

The officers of the Breathitt County Sunday School Association are called to meet Sunday at two o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Plans and a programme are to be made for the county Sunday school conventions to be held April 1 and 2. Let every officer be sure to attend, also, the Sunday school superintendents.

THE DEATH ROLL

Mrs. Mary E. Snyder, of Louisville, who had been in San Antonio, Texas, for several weeks for her health, died at the depot in Louisville on February 5th, just as she was carried off the train. She had been suffering with consumption for about two years and after her trip to Texas, finding out she could not recover, she asked to be brought home, and almost succeeded, dying in a few blocks of home, but in the presence of her friends. She was the daughter of M. W. Puckett, deceased, and a sister of James Puckett, of this county.

John Griffith died at his home on Turkey Creek, this county, last Saturday, after a short illness of pneumonia. He was one of the most prosperous citizens of his neighborhood, having accumulated quite a lot of money and property. He leaves a wife and several children. He had been deputy sheriff of this county for the past three years and did his work well. He was prominently mentioned as a candidate for sheriff for the next term. He was of a jovial disposition and was in the best of health until a short time before his death, which furnishes another illustration of the uncertainty of life.
