T. T. Cope is in Beattyville attending court.

Get your Thanksgiving turkey from Clarence Hadden.

Stop with Hart Bros., at Reed hotel when in Lexington.

Dr. R. B. Gardner, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

All kinds of goods things at Clarence Hadden's for Thanksgiving dinner.

John E. Patrick returned Saturday from Stanford and Richmond, where he had been for several days.

Kelly Kash attended court at Beattyville, Wednesday and Thursday.

J. Howard Duvall returned last Monday from a pleasant visit of several days at Lexington.

Go to C. Hadden's, the only man in town that handles every variety of fancy groceries.

J. T. Steele has resigned his position with Day Bros. Co., and has accepted a similar one with M. S. Crain.

Wade Soper has purchased of Judge S. S. Taulbee a lot on Lincoln Avenue, adjoining his present residence.

I have for sale stove wood in any quantity at my house, opposite M. S. Crain's store.

Wm. CALMISE

Miss Nancy Jett, of Winchester, is visiting Miss Nancy Spencer and other friends, at this place during the past week.

Charles Easter left last Monday for the cities to buy a new stock of goods for Firestein & Easter's store at this place.

The Blue Grass seed warehouse, belonging to David S. Gay, of Winchester, was burned Tuesday night, loss about $25,000.

Mrs. Dulcinea Hurst has been very ill for a number of days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Steele, at this place.

Floyd Day went to Hindman last Tuesday, to look after some important litigation, in the Knott circuit court, which is now in session.

J. L. Hagins returned Tuesday to his home at Doyleville, after about two weeks stay here, attending to business matters, and also the election.

Col. Nelson O. Tiffany, Secretary of the Masonic Life Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, the guest of W. H. Whitaker.

Mrs. Henry C. Hurst returned last week, from Montgomery county, where she had been to see her father, who was dangerously sick, but is now some better.

Old Uncle Isaac and Aunt Matilda Whitaker, father and mother of W. H. Whitaker, our barber, are in town this week, visiting their son and daughter.

Henry G. Anderson, a coal miner of Salyersville, was shot in the stomach and, probably fatally injured, at that place, Saturday. Alvin Craft was arrested and placed in jail, charged with the shooting. There is no hope of Anderson's recovery.

W. H. Whitaker, our barber, who has served us so long, has accepted a position, we understand, with the Masonic Life Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., for a very handsome salary; but his barber shop will still be conducted at the same stand by first-class barbers.

E. C. Duff, Jr., was elected county judge of Perry county over H. T. Crawford by 8 majority. Crawford was the regular nominee. M. C. Eversole was elected over Holliday for sheriff by a small majority. J. E. Johnson was re-elected clerk, without opposition.

J. H. Hammons has been appointed post-master at Beattyville. Mr. Hammons has been chairman of the Republican county committee for several years and has served one term as jailer of Lee county. He succeeds Miss Reed, who has served two terms, to the entire satisfaction of the public.

Miss Flossie Davis is quite sick with fever.

Fresh Oysters and Celery at C. Hadden's every week.

Mrs. Pruda McIntosh, of Rousesou, was here Thursday, shopping.

P. H. Harris, the photographer, has moved into the property adjoining Day Bros. store, on Main Street.

John E. Miller, post-master at Clay Hole, was here Thursday. He is preparing to move the office to Taulbee & Landrum's store, about 1 mile from its present location.

The election in Lee county resulted as follows: J. F. Sutton, Judge; D. B. Pendergrass, clerk; H. T. Beatty, county attorney; James P. Sizemore, sheriff; R. T. Eager, county superintendent; Lewis Spicer, jailer; E. R. W. Cox, surveyor, and G. W. Brown, coroner. John Griffith carried the county by 403 majority.

Circuit court began at Beattyville last Monday. Quite a good crowd was in attendance. Monday and Tuesday were taken up in the trials of misdemeanor cases. Several of the Breathitt county cases will be called; but the cases against Moses Feltner will not be tried at this term, on account of the papers not having been filed in time.

An entertainment was given at the Arlington Hotel last Friday night by Judge and Mrs. S. S. Taulbee, in honor of the victorious candidates at the recent election, which was attended by nearly everybody in town, and by many from the surrounding country. Everybody seemed delighted with the great victory and rejoiced that the yoke had been thrown off, and wished the officers elect God speed in their great work of reform.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

A CARD OF THANKS.

EDITOR NEWS:

Through the columns of The News, which I highly appreciate, it would be somewhat consoling to me if you would express to the people my kind appreciation for their sympathy and love they had for my deceased father, Edward Marcum. Whilst he did not linger long after taking sick, he expressed to two of his sisters, and others that were at his bedside, that he was prepared to meet the Almighty God. Again thanking the people, I am, yours very respectfully, BRUCE B. MARCUM.

THE BLUEGRASS REJOICES.

LEXINGTON, NOV. 10, '05.

MR. H. S. BARNETT.

Foreman News, Jackson, Ky. The Hogbacks have certainly made a great fight in Breathitt and we rejoice with The News and the friends of law and order generally on the results. We hope it will be a little easier to get news out of Jackson in the future than it has been in the past, as there has been an embargo on newspaper dispatches. However, it is to be hoped that Jackson will not be as prolific of newspaper stories in the future as she has been in the past. Please give our kind regards to the editor of The News and with best wishes personally, we are, yours very truly, SAM J. ROBERTS, Editor Lexington Leader.

THANKS RETURNED.

EDITOR NEWS:

I want to extend to every good citizen of Breathitt county my heartfelt thanks for the noble victory they have won. I owe the people of this, my native county, a debt of gratitude which I can never repay. I want to promise my friends that they will never have cause on my part to regret that they voted for me and I want to say to the men who voted against me that I am their friend and I want them to be mine. The election is over and I want everybody to be friends. A brighter sun never shined on Breathitt than the day the Hogbacks were elected. We have made our pledges to the people and we will redeem them. In the immortal words of the poet, who said: "When Freedom from her mountain height Unfurled her standard to the air, She tore the azure robes of night, And set the stars of glory there." With good feelings to all and ill will to none, I am, yours gratefully, JOHN H. BLANTON.

LABORERS WANTED.

The Death Roll.

Green Breeding died at his home near Beattyville last Saturday night, of heart failure. He was a son of John Breeding, of Booneville, and a former resident of this place. His funeral was conducted at Beattyville Monday morning under the auspices of the Red Men, of which order he was a member, after which the remains were taken to Booneville for burial.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued during the past week:

William Fugate and Miss Rebecca Fugate, both of Clay Hole; Nimrod McIntosh and Miss Ptaty Miller, both of Noble; W. S. Morris, of Cannel City, and Miss Gracie Patrick, of Boxer; Wm. H. Gillum, of Jackson, and Miss Ida May Young, of Taulbee; Arbin Hogg, of Hazard, and Miss Dora Colter, of Elkatawa; Sam Holbrook (col.), and Lizzie Collins (col.), both of McQuinn.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ROOSEVELT.

Amid our rejoicing concerning the redemption of Breathitt county, death plucked from our midst another gem. This reverses the adage that says: "Joy comes after sorrow, like sunshine after rain".

Wm. H. Deaton departed this life Nov. fifteenth, at 2 p. m., of typhoid fever, at his home, at this place. He was an obedient and faithful son of John E. Deaton and wife.

Died, at the age of twenty-three years, just in the prime of manhood. It will be remembered that this is two deaths in the family in the past month; Malinda Deaton having died within the last two or three weeks, at the age of about twenty-two years.

"Death is here, death is there, "Death is busy everywhere."

TROUBLESOME.

John Harvey, of Dwarf, is here visiting relatives.

Miss Amanda Howard, of Camp-ton, has been visiting relatives and friends here.

Isom Terry, formerly of Knott county, is here helping put the finishing touches on Sam Holliday's house.

A. J. Dobson and Joseph Stacy, the nominees for justice and constable were elected Tuesday by a handsome majority, defeating William Smith and Joseph Ritchie.

Samuel Holliday's house that has been under construction so long, is nearing completion. Mr. Holliday is going to quit the old log cabin and move into his fine building soon.

NED.

H. H. Miller has been suffering with boils.

Many hogs are dying in this neighborhood.

Born, to the wife of Solomon Neace, a daughter.

S. J. Miller has received news of the death of his mother at Lee City.

The people of this vicinity are greatly elated over the Hogback victory.

Emanuel Campbell (Little) fell from a wagon, which ran over his leg and broke it.

William Neace is slowly improving from a serious wound inflicted by a knife.

Ben-Math Fugate and Lucinda Fugate were united in matrimony on November 2, John H. Combs officiating.

The people of this neighborhood are more patriotic than political. John H. Combs and others reasoned with them on patriotism.

John Grigsby has received news that his son, Samuel Grigsby, belonging to the U. S. army, had re-

Johnny Watts, the merchant of Jackson, came to this vicinity previous to the election in the interest of the Nightingales, and shortly before daylight Tuesday morning while near the mouth of Cock-rill's Fork became badly scared at a Hogback, or rather at a hog with a back.

New coats and vests $1.00 Jones' Bargain store.

BOONEVILLE.

Monday was circuit court day at Beattyville and most of our lawyers and business men were in attendance.

The election is over and some of our citizens are wearing faces long enough to drink slop out of the bottom of a four gallon jug. A telephone message has been received here to the effect that Green Breeding, formerly of this town, but now of Miller's Creek, Estill county, died Sunday night.

The blotched or disfigured condition of the ballots in Cow Creek district, this county, will no doubt lead to a contest in the sheriff's race between A. M. Neely, who was elected on the face of the returns and who has the certificate of election and H. H. Rice his opponent. Neely was elected by 47.

Three of the independent candidates were elected, viz: W. B. Bullock, county attorney; A. M. Neeley, sheriff, and H. C. Combs, Clerk, and three nominees, as they called themselves, viz: John F. Brewer, judge; John R. Baker, jailer, and W. W. Wilson, assessor. There really was no one a candidate who could be called a bolter, as the primary of December 3, 1904, was not a free and full expression of the people. The ballot box in Booneville District No. 1 was stolen and not a vote cast or counted for any one in that precinct, which casts about 325 Republican votes, so the candidates who were defeated by reason of that steal run on and on Tuesday were elected. Guess they will let our ballot box alone next election. YALLER BRITCHES.

EVERSOLE.

Crawford Bros. shipped a car-load of sheep last week.

Carolina Collins, of Sugar Camp, died at her home last week.

Wm. Robinson, of Garrard county, is visiting in this vicinity.

Bascom Rose, who has been sick with typhoid fever for some time, left for his home in Garrard county, last week.

Work on the steel tramway from Tallega to the head of Meadow Creek, is progressing nicely. The road is completed to L. C. Rose's, on Meadow Creek.

Mrs. Emma Osborn, of Meadow Creek, left Sunday evening for Louisville, to undergo a medical operation. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lula Seale.

Walker Wilson, deputy sheriff of this county, who was shot and probably fatally wounded by Wm. Osborn, several days ago, is no better, and it is doubtful if he can recover. Osborn is still at large.

The election went off quietly in this county. About one-half of the Hogback ticket won the election, Clay Combs being elected for county clerk; John R. Baker, for jailer; Judge Brewer, re-elected to the office of Judge; Judge W. B. Bullock, (or Yaller Britches), for county attorney, and A. M. Neely, for sheriff; but there will be a contest over the sheriff's place, at Cow Creek, 86 ballots were ruined by some of the election officers.
