CORRESPONDENCE.

GEORGE'S BRANCH.

Dan Thompson is on the sick list... N. H. Sally, of Rousseau, and Vetric Boyd, of Jackson, passed through this vicinity this week, buying ties for the Swamp-Day Lumber Co. Samuel E. Patton, of Jackson, passed through here Monday en route to his job in Perry... The public school house on Caney caught fire recently while school was in session and before the flames could be extinguished burned down... Wm. New, the whisky man, was fined $20 in Squire Deaton's court last Saturday. He had previously taken an oath that he would not, nor have any more sold on his premises. He was also demanded to fill a peace bond, in default of which he was sent to jail. It looks as if Billy will have to quit the business, as there are three more warrants awaiting his return, besides a probable case for perjury and one in the Federal court... I note that M. M. Redwine, the new circuit judge of the new judicial district, whose commission antedates to Beckham, in a decision, has declared the dog tax law to be unconstitutional and void. Wonder if Mr. Redwine was not a member of the body that enacted the law? as his name was very prominently mentioned in all arguments before the House of Representatives, and he handled the machinery wonderfully that moulded the district in which he is now judge, and never one argument from him in defiance to the act that effects so many people. This is a stream in the reaction of the State administration devised to collect some votes. Dear Judge, had ye ment to be 'ginst the dog tax, why didn't ye speak right out in the legislature and nip her in the bud? Too late now. Your little decisions can't affect the overwhelming tide of public sentiment this law has created. The mass of voters have got it in for 'em and the State is going "Hogback"... In his message to the Fifty-ninth Congress, President Roosevelt said: "The plain people, who think—the farmers and workers with hand or brain, the men to whom tradition is dear, who love their country and try to act decently by their neighbors, owe it to themselves that the most damaging blow that can be given a State or a Nation is to elect an unworthy sinister agitator." In such a case we must vote right and not flinch duty, for in such a case Democracy itself is on trial and in the end the honest man, whether rich or poor, has as much to fear from the insincere and unworthy demagogue, promising all to get an office and doing nothing but evil afterward. Henry Waterson suggests as a remedy for our State that there is no better time than now to organize an independent element strong enough to swing the balance of the power from the evil-doers in power. I suggest that the "Hogback" party expand and it will cover the ground suggested by Roosevelt and Waterson.

HERALD.

The school at War Creek, conducted by Miss Louise Spencer, will close December 22. A box supper and a Christmas tree will be given in honor of Miss Louise, for the good school she has taught. W. D. Back, of Jackson, was calling on one of our fairest girls here Monday. If all reports are true, we imagine that Billy will soon cease his visits to Herald and take the fair brunettes to visit his home... Miss Cappie Terry was a guest of her brother, Charles Terry, of Jackson, Saturday... Adda

Herald was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. M. Terry, Sunday... Dora Little is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. M. Beecher, of Elkatawa... Miss Alice Turner visited Miss Emma Herald Thursday night... Richard Herald visited his sister, Mrs. W. D. Cundiff, Sunday... Harlan Griffith, of Elkatawa, was visiting here Monday... B. H. Herald has 1,000 new ties at Oakdale for sale... Miss Ruth Terry was visiting at Booneville Monday... Seldon Back will close his school at Snake Branch on December 21st... Those present at the dance given by Mrs. Belle Terry Friday night were: Breck Little, Richard Herald, W. M. Mullens, Miles and John Caudill, Edward and Oscar Terry, Clay and James Gabbard and Misses Emma and Maggie Herald, Ruth and Lillian Terry, Dora Little, Pruda Allen, Alice Turner, Pruda Back. All enjoyed the dance and promised Mrs. Terry a Christmas present.

LOST CREEK.

Col. E. P. Landrum, of Perry county last week on business... Mrs. Martha Smith was visiting Mrs. Nannie Morris, at Jackson this week... Rev. G. E. Drushal and wife were in Jackson Tuesday... Mrs. E. P. Landrum was visiting friends in Jackson the first of the week... Mrs. Sam Hays is quite sick with rheumatism... Asher Strong is attending school in Jackson.

ROUSSEAU.

George Hensley has bought a fine saddle horse... Gale Howard's fine yellow horse, which he bought of Green Hensley, two years ago, died last week... Benjamin Harvey, of West Virginia, is visiting his son, Wm. Harvey... Wes Harvey is preparing to move to the Shack Allen house... N. H. Sally has concluded not to go to Georgia and is going to work for Floyd Day... Billy Combs is inspecting ties on Quick-sand and the people are pleased with his inspecting... Daniel McIntosh and Pleas Davis will preach at Lambrie Sunday, December 23, at 10 o'clock a. m.

CROCKETTSVILLE.

Miss Emma Lewis, of Jackson, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Eliza Stamper, of Capoe, and her father, John B. Lewis, of Miller Branch. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Letitia McWhorter, of Sturgeon, and extended her visit to Thomas Lewis, of Terrill's Creek, Jackson county, and saw her grandparents who are in the eighties... The wheels of industry are rolling at a hurried pace here. Estill Morgen's mill, on the Riley Fork of Long's Creek, is turning out railroad ties by the hundreds. John Burton, Wm. Fox, James Cornett, Pleasant and Charley Turner have entered into a contract to furnish logs to keep the mill running. Riley & Burton are also doing a profitable business near the mouth of Miller Branch... Uncle Delaney Boling, of Terrill's Creek, Jackson county, desires to say to the people of this county that the "Hogback" party is the pure Democracy. He says that the Democracy for the people to adopt is to select good men for offices and then elect them regardless of party affiliation... John B. Lewis has returned on a visit to his father and mother who live in Jackson county... The oldest people in that part of the country, should Mr. Lewis live until March 22, 1907, he will be 89 years old, and on March 10, 1907, Aunt Chaney will be 88 years old. They live with their son, Thomas Lewis. They became offended at each other 20 years ago, and although they live under the same roof, in separate rooms, they have not spoken to each other since that time. They are in good health and can walk about without canes to aid them. At one time they owned the farm where Anee Short now lives on Turkey Creek. They desire to send through the columns of THE NEWS their best wishes to their old and long remembered friends in Breathitt and wish them a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

CLEMONS.

Judge J. J. C. Bach is preparing to build a house on his farm here... Mrs. L. M. Clemmons spent Sunday at Peter Strong's. Mr. Strong also entertained Ned Wilson, Small Carpenter and Misses Mattie and Callie Wilson, all of Quick-sand, with a candy pulling Saturday night... Larkin Clemmons spent Sunday with Ben Clemmons... Elijah Clemmons visited H. C. Clemmons Saturday... Floyd Nagler has returned from the West to look after his children here... D. G. Jones has lost a nice red heifer and would be glad to receive any information concerning her whereabouts... Rev. M. D. Richie and son went to Frozen last Friday to attend a lodge, of which they are members... O. H. Sears was here Sunday looking after the right-of-way through T. G. Back's for a railroad for the Stephenson Bros. Lumber Co... J. D. Clemmons has been to Spring Fork to look after his tie job... G. W. Fugate and wife paid Jack Whitaker, of Lambrie, a visit last week... H. C. Clemmons has three old coins bearing the following dates: 1600, 1786 and 1804. Who has older coins?

LEE COUNTY.

Looks as though we should have a few more weddings ere the early spring time, judging from the new houses that some of our young men are putting up. Melvin Kincaid is building a new house, and James and Ed Shoemaker are each putting up new houses... Well, as I promised to tell of the wedding last week, as you know our failing, we will have to tell it this week. Married, on the 29th ult., at the residence of W. E. Kincaid, the bride's father, Miss Margie Kincaid and J. E. Williams, of Flat, Ky. Mr. Williams is a student of the Louisville Medical College and a promising young man... James Vanderpool, of near Torrent, while hauling logs last Thursday, was kicked in the stomach by a steer and died from the kick Friday evening while en route to a hospital in Lexington. Mr. Vanderpool leaves a large family of small children and a wife to mourn his loss. His remains were taken to the Davis grave yard, near Primrose, for burial... G. W. Treadway was before T. S. Shackelford last Saturday for the purpose of posting a stray steer that has been at his place for some time. Miss Julia Johnson is visiting at K. N. Junction... Uncle John Abner sold Clay Crawford, of Athol, a nice bunch of hogs last week... M. F. Cable has purchased the place near here and will put a saw mill on the place soon... The oldest daughter of Breck Hall is dangerously ill.

Get your girl one of those nice boxes of candy at Clarence Haddens for Xmas.

Henry Cundiff, of Elkatawa, was here Monday.
