A FORMER PUPIL

Writes of the Progress of the Institute.

RICHMOND, KY., 3, 1, 1908.

My Dear Sir:—Please print in your next issue within writing, headed "Educational," and accept my thanks in advance.

Allow me to join you in ignoring the Governor's act in not appointing you to the Circuit Judgeship in our district. I fully expected to hear of you becoming our Judge when I heard of Judge Riddell's death, and I still believe you should have received the appointment, because I believe you would have more suited the people of Breathitt county and the remainder of the district.

You should be praised and honored for all things glorious if you would but take up the reconciliation of the Democratic party in Breathitt county and unite it as it once was. Through your personal influence and your excellent paper you could easily accomplish it.

Yours very truly,
SOUTH STRONG.

EDUCATIONAL.

In early January, 1908, I had the pleasure of visiting Lees Collegiate Institute, Jackson, Ky., now managed by Prof. Lester Crego, of Valparaiso (Ind.) Normal University. To my surprise I found nearly all the seats occupied at chapel exercises, and a seemingly spirit of enthusiasm that would make any one feel proud of the days spent on the same ground and for the same cause.

There is something about Prof. Crego's management and pedagogics that takes well with all, and at the same time has the necessary effect on the unruly element. In fact, I was reminded more than ever before of the best school days the mountains ever had, when the J. C. I. was at its best under the skillful discipline of Professors Marion, Goff, Mickel and Logan.

It is a great pleasure to all who were ever connected with these most excellent teachers to have those days brought to memory. It is a pleasure to all old students to know that Lees Collegiate Institute is falling in line with the days of old, when Breathitt county was the recognized center of educational interest of Eastern Kentucky.

The good citizens of Breathitt county are heartily congratulated for every good word of cheer and every act of encouragement rendered Prof. and Mrs. Crego in their estimable work.

It is to be hoped that every good citizen of Eastern Kentucky will take advantage of this great educational revolution sweeping over our State today and put a higher premium on the education of their children. Too much time has been wasted in seeking public office; too many thoughts wasted for political aspirations; too much discord between individuals; hence the cause of Kentucky's position near the bottom of the ladder in education. The father has been too neglectful of the son's interest, too forward in the bad example, too ready to uphold the offensive act, hence the cause of illiteracy and the heinous crimes which stain our country.

I am glad to give a good report from our Eastern Normal school at this place that has already proven to be a wonderful power for educational development in Eastern Kentucky. With that handsome sum of $150,000 recently appropriated by the State Legislature we will be able to comfortably provide for all who may come, thirsting and clamoring after higher ideals, nobler thoughts and greater aspirations.

I am yours for better workers in Breathitt. SOUTH STRONG.

ED TURNER HANGED.

Pays Penalty With Life For Murder of Wife.

Ed Turner, formerly of this county, was hanged at 4:53 o'clock last Thursday afternoon in the jail at Chattanooga, Tenn., for the murder of his wife, Lillian. The deed for which he paid the extreme penalty occurred on the side of Lookout Mountain in April, 1907. Turner preserved a remarkable composure from the time he was notified that the Governor had refused to interfere until the trap was sprung. He walked to the scaffold with a firm tread, and in an equally firm tone told the Sheriff who sprung the trap that he had nothing to say. A few minutes before he was led to the scaffold he stated that he intended to die like a "Kentuckian."

Turner's body, which was in charge of E. C. Jones, was brought to his old home at Shoulder Blade last Friday, where the burial took place Saturday. Quite a number of pieces of rope, which were claimed to have been cut from the rope that Turner was hanged with, were distributed throughout Breathitt county last week. E. C. Jones, who accompanied the body from Chattanooga, visited The News office Monday and requested us to state that the rope used in the execution was left in Chattanooga, and that the pieces distributed in this county were not cut from the rope with which Turner was hanged.

The following is a copy of Turner's last letter written to his brother at Shoulder Blade:

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.,
February 26, 1908.

George Turner,
Shoulder Blade, Ky.

Dear Brother:—As I leave you as a brother, and as there are only two of us it almost breaks my heart to think that I will leave you all alone in this old world, and for me to die the death that I will have to die. Oh! my God! my God! Think about it well, brother.

This is the last letter I will ever write to you in my life, and it is a horrible death for me to be murdered here, and I know that I did not murder my wife. But it is only a few moments of punishment; then I will be at rest. I am going home to die no more, brother. I pray to God that you will raise your children up in some Christian form and send them to school. Try to make good men and women out of them.

I hope you will all live a Christian life and meet me in heaven when all of you die. Brother, don't weep after me, and I do pray to God that He will be with you, one, and all, until we meet again. This leaves me as well as common. I hope you are all enjoying the best of health.

I will send you the mortgage of Preston Spencer's and you can give it to him. I can't think of any more tonight, and it is bedtime. You can keep this letter to remember me by, if you want to. You can read this letter any time and think of me. I will send you my watch and you can keep it as long as you live; also some of my pictures and you can send one of them to my sister and keep the rest.

I will close for the last time in life. So good-bye to you all. Good wishes to you all. I am as ever, your brother,
ED TURNER.

THREE KILLED

In a Fight in a Lumber Camp.

Three men were killed and a fourth mortally wounded as the result of a battle with revolvers following a quarrel in the lumber camp of Congleton & Williams Bros, on Rose Fork creek, near Evelyn, Lee county.

John Hamilton, James Bowles, Richard Spicer and George Frazier had been working together all day last Friday with about 70 other men, hauling lumber and staves. The children of Bowles and Frazier had fallen out with those of Spicer and Hamilton. The men quarreled over the matter all day as they worked.

When evening came Spicer went to feed his stock. Bowles and Frazier came up to his barn and renewed the quarrel. Spicer is reported to have urged that there be no continuation of the matter. Hamilton came up shortly after the arrival of Bowles and Frazier and took the part of Spicer.

The argument grew more heated and Bowles whipped out a revolver and began firing. He killed Hamilton instantly and shot Spicer in the leg. By this time Spicer had out his revolver and was firing at Bowles when Frazier joined in the shooting. When the smoke cleared away it was found that Spicer was dead, with two bullets in his chest, and Bowles had been killed with a ball through the heart.

George Frazier was arrested and lodged in jail at Beattyville Saturday and on Monday was taken before County Judge Sutton. He waived examination and was held without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Clemons.

James Clemons has been sick with the gripe for several days. J. D. Clemons is preparing to move to Lambric. Answer to the Rousseau Bible question: If there were three kinds of fruit in the garden and man ate one and died, man must leave off sin and take up the cross and follow the Lord and he shall live again in heaven. Will some one tell me in The News how many promises there are in the Bible for a sinner to be saved and what they are? I read in The News where a correspondent says there will be two new moons in March and two in April. The only reason for that is accounted for by the money panic, and there was not enough change in March to make a change on the last day.

Ned.

Mrs. Mariah Combs has been very low with gripe, but is improving. Edward P. Combs, little son of J. H. Combs, has been in a serious condition, but is improving. G. W. Noble is preparing to change his residence for a season. Edward P. Turner is suffering from the effects of a boil on his neck. John H. Combs invites all who can conveniently come to meet him at the mouth of Riley, on the next regular meeting time third Saturday and Sunday in March. Come let us reason together.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Campton.

On account of bad roads only a small crowd attended county court here Monday. Tom Willson is visiting his parents in Madison county. Quarterly court was in session Monday. There were a number of suits for trial. Mrs. A. B. Cox is visiting in Breathitt county this week. S. S. Combs, of Madison county, came up Monday and will remain in town some two or three days looking after business interests here. Isaac Elkins and family, who have been residing in town for the past year, will move to their farm one-half mile south of town this week. Sam Elkins and wife will occupy the house vacated by his father. W. L. Byrd left Monday for Clark county where he will make his future home. His family will follow him in a few days. His friends here regret very much to see him leave, as Letcher has always been regarded as one of the best business men in the county.

Seldon Hanks, of Ashland, together with his mother and sister, Miss Bulah, are visiting friends and relatives in town. A protracted meeting is now in progress at the Methodist church. Considerable interest is being manifested. Judge G. W. Gourley and Hon. T. C. Johnson, both of Lee county, are looking after the interests of their clients in court here this week, and the former is advising with his Republican friends in his race for Circuit Judge. Senator Benj. Sewell came up home Saturday from Frankfort for a few days rest. He was jubilant over Bradley's election for U. S. Senator. He was accompanied by Representative, A. C. Oliver who fought until the last for the election of Beckham for Senator. John Tester, of Stillwater, was attending county court here Monday and talking politics. If all reports be true, we will have a number of weddings to report next week. The will of Granville Evans, lately deceased, was tendered in the county court Monday for probate. Among others we notice the following names on the register of the Central Hotel for the past week: Marion Knight, and H. C. Ward, Hazel Green; R. H. Bryant and George F. Brown, Lexington; S. H. Hurst and H. B. Hurst, Peartree and S. J. Fain, Winchester.

Simple Home Recipe.

Got from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminating tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs. Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

E. C. Jones, of McWhorter, was here the first of the week on business. Mr. Jones has accepted a position traveling for the Murray-Dribrel Shoe Co., of Nashville, Tenn., and will enter upon his duties April 1st. He will travel in 15 counties in Eastern Kentucky.
