Henry Branson, who holds a position in S. S. Taulbee's store at Robbins, was the guest of his particular friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Dyer, of Winchester, was visiting relatives and friends here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Judge S. S. Taulbee is preparing to build a cottage on his lot on Court street, opposite the Arlington Hotel lot.

Capt. J. E. Lang finished up a stove drive out of Quicksand last week. He landed about 50,000 staves in the boom here.

Among those attending the Republican committee meeting at Irvine from here were Dr. A. M. Arnold, A. H. Patton, Z. T. Hurst and Kelly Kash.

Preacher Evan R. Evans and wife will conduct a gospel meeting this (Friday) night at the McCormick Chapel in South Jackson to which every one is welcome.

Governor Wilson has pardoned B. F. French of the State's part of the fine of $5,000 assessed against him for contempt in the Marcum-Hargis case. He paid the balance into court last week.

The three candidates for the Republican nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney, were here Wednesday after a canvass of the county. One had been on the Middle Fork, another on Troublesome creek and another on Frozen creek. Each reported the section he had visited almost solid for him. Wonder if there won't be some conflicting reports soon?

The announcement of Hon. A. F. Byrd will be found in our columns this week. Mr. Byrd is too well known in this section to need any introduction from us. He was born and raised in Wolfe county but moved to Clark county a few years ago. He has been very successful in business and also in the practice of his chosen profession—the law. He served one term as Commonwealth's Attorney of this district and the reputation he made in that office is world wide, having appeared for the State in what is known as the feud trials, which grew out of the Cox, Cockrill and Marcum assassinations. He is an orator of ability and should be nominated his voice will be heard in every county in the district and he will do all in his power to bring the Tenth district back to the Democratic fold.

The Light Plant Being Overhauled.

J. W. Norwood, secretary of the Jackson Electric & Hydraulic & Manufacturing Company, arrived from Lexington Wednesday with R. V. Cason, of Eminence, and Jerry Cawby, of Lexington. Mr. Cawby is manager of the Lexington Electric & Machine Co. and spent Wednesday and Thursday overhauling the machinery of the plant. He will put it in good order and have it ready for furnishing light to Jackson just as soon as a few new parts can be obtained from the shops. Some of these were ordered Thursday. A new boiler pump, new belting and rebabbited joints are also needed and are being rushed to completion.

Mr. Cason was one of the many applicants for engineer. A good combined ice and electric man will be chosen Saturday and it is said a Cincinnati man formerly of the Edison works will probably be the successful one.

The contract for the new ice plant will probably be let the first of May.

All who want electric lights should see J. S. Pemberton, who will have charge of that department.

Subscription blanks for stock at $10 per share may be secured at the Jackson Deposit Bank, as there is still a small amount left for Jackson subscribers.

Primary June 20th.

The Republican Committee for this Judicial District met at Irvine Thursday and called a primary election to be held June 20th, for the nomination of a Republican candidate for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney of this district.

"Preacher" and "Soiled Doves" Convicted.

The police court has been busy this week inquiring into the offenses complained of by Paul Derthick in the last issue of The News. The "preacher" and two of the "soiled doves" were convicted and are now serving out their sentences.

New Bridge for Jackson.

The Fiscal Court was in session Wednesday and Thursday. The contract for the building of a new bridge here and the re-erection of the old one at Lost Creek, was awarded to the Empire Bridge Company. The new bridge is to be 24 feet wide with an 18 foot roadway and a 5 foot sidewalk. The old bridge has earned nearly $30,000 for the county and the new one will pay for itself in about three years. The bridges are to be completed by October 1.

The Commencement.

Active preparations for commencement week are in progress at the college. The program will be published in full next week.

The first event which marks the close of the year's work is the debate between the two literary societies. The question is, "Resolved: That Great Combinations of Capital Are an Evil to Our Country." The affirmative will be upheld by Sewell Williams, Ernest Newland and Seidon Back, and the negative by the following speakers: Kash Williams, Hezekiah Combs and Fred Cope. This debate will be held in the college chapel on next Friday afternoon, May 1, and the public is cordially invited to hear these young people. We promise you some good music and recitations, also.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. T. W. McCorkle, of Nicholasville, on Sunday, May 10, at 11 a. m. in the college chapel.

Ladies, get your skirts pressed. Send them to the bath rooms and they will be cleaned nicely.

L. Park Opening.

The L. Park Hotel at Torrent will open for the summer season Friday, May 15th, with a grand ball. The hotel will be under the management of Miss Daisy Day, daughter of J. Taylor Day, of Hazel Green. Mr. Day has made arrangements by which he can furnish the famous Swango water, fresh from the springs, near Hazel Green. We predict a prosperous season for the hotel under the new management.

A Meeting for Men and Women Who Work.

At the Christian church next Sunday morning the Sunday school will begin at 9:30 o'clock as usual and the regular preaching and communion service will begin at 11 o'clock. The evening service, beginning at 7:15, will be especially devoted to men and women who work. The subject of the sermon will be "The Dignity of Labor." All people who will come will receive a cordial welcome.

Marriages.

At 5 o'clock on April 16th, F. M. Begley, postmaster at Hazard, and Miss Pollie Owens, of Barbourville, were married in the parlors of the Imperial Hotel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. M. Summers, of the Christian church.

June Jett and Miss Carrie Day, daughter of Squire Wm. Day, of Frozen Creek, were married at the home of Mrs. Louellen Hargis last Friday evening at eight o'clock. Rev. C. M. Summers officiating.

A Lecture To-Night.

Rev. Marion Hunt, of Louisville, preached a strong sermon Monday night to a large assembly at the Baptist church. Mr. Hunt is a pastor of a church in Louisville which contains about fifteen hundred members, he seemed to be doing great work in the Lord's vineyard.

Mr. Hunt was accompanied by a Miss Beam, who was an excellent soloist. Before the assembly was addressed, Miss Beam sang the old time song "I Am Praying for You." Mr. Hunt and Miss Beam were on their way to Hazard where they will attend the commencement of the Hazard Baptist Institute, and will return here today. Mr. Hunt will give a lecture to-night on "Be Somebody." Let every young boy and girl in Jackson hear him. He will give an interesting lecture on the subject. We are sure the talk will be good for Jackson, if the people will heed to it.

The Easter Cantata.

The cantata that was given by the Junior Endeavor Society of the Christian church last Sunday night was attended by an immense audience, there not being standing room for all who came. The parts were well rendered, showing that hard work had been done during the little time that was given to the training.

It always does the heart of the people good to go to a place where they can hear the young persons speak and sing and go through a dialogue. It is as good as a sermon sometimes and brings us back to the days when we were young and were expected to entertain the older people. We older people have outgrown these things and feel that we are too old to get before an audience and speak a piece or sing some songs; but supposing that we are not too old, we could not draw the crowd nor could we make the evening so delightful and entertaining as the young people. We have had our day; now it is theirs.

But such an entertainment as was given Sunday night means a whole lot of hard work on the part of some one, and to Mrs. C. M. Summers and Miss Josephine McGuire is due the credit that everything was well given and there was hardly a hitch in the program. All enjoyed it. It did us all good. May the time never come when we can not listen with pleasure to the children as they speak their pieces and sing their songs.

Returning Home.

We are in receipt of a letter from John Watts at Albuquerque, New Mexico, stating that he "will come to good old Kentucky between the 24th and 27th of this month." Kentucky will no doubt look good to him after a two year's stay in the American desert. Miss Nettie Combs, who has also been spending the past year in Albuquerque, will return home about May 1st.

The State Board of Equalization has raised the taxable property of Breathitt county ten per cent. Judge Taulbee and Assessor Blanton will go before the Board next Wednesday and try to persuade them to take it off.

James M. Gose, who was sentenced to seven year's hard labor for a minor offense while in the army, has been pardoned by President Roosevelt on the recommendation of Congressman Langley.

Congressman Langley's bill for a U. S. Court here has been favorably reported by the Senate Judiciary Committee and will in all probability be passed by the Senate and become a law in a few days.

Deputy Marshal Grover Blanton is doing good work with the town prisoners cleaning up the streets.

Mrs. Peggy Minnix, who has been in the hospital at Lexington for several weeks, returned home this week almost well.
