Col. R. T. Smith reached his old home on yesterday, and every one was glad to see him.

It is said that Victor Hugo is growing even more popular, and that the sale of his various works during the last five years has amounted to over $275,000, or $55,000 a year.

The alarm of fire on Sunday about noon was only a small blaze in Hall's barber shop, in the basement of the Trader's Deposit Bank building.

On Thursday the Separate-Coach law went into effect in Tennessee. The railroads of the state will put on their trains separate coaches for white and colored passengers.

Mr. John Robinson, of Winchester, was unfortunate enough to lose a fine barn, by fire, on Thursday night. He also lost two valuable horses for which he had refused $15.00.

The Locust Grove Union is requested to meet at Union school house Saturday, June 20th.

J. S. PAMISH, President.

I. B. Crouch says one of his mares dropped a fine mule colt on June 3rd, sired by the famous Jack, Dick Robinson. The colt measured 3 feet and 8 inches and was sold for $110.

W. W. Moore, of Paducah, has disappeared, and it is thought to be a case of suicide or murder. His father disappeared with $7,000 on his person twelve years ago, and has never since been heard from.

Wallace McMahan has bought the meat and grocery store of J. M. Armstrong, on North Maysville street and invites his numerous friends to call and see what an excellent line of eatables he will furnish them.

Mr. Chas. D. Grubbs, Teller of the Traders' Deposit Bank, and Miss Mary Willie Hazelrigg, daughter of Mr. James D. Hazelrigg, two of our most popular society people, will be married at the Christian Church, this evening at 8 o'clock. No cards.

The volume of trade during the past week, while moderate, was fairly large, undisturbed by any commercial calamity. Money markets show surprising strength, and reports indicate that nobody is worried except the speculators.

The county S. S. Convention will be held at Camargo, Friday, June 26th. It was necessary to defer it from the date first named till that time. A very interesting program has been prepared for the occasion which we will give in full next week.

The trial of Albert Barnes for the killing of Wm. Barnes, ended in the Meade Circuit Court on Saturday in the acquittal of Albert Barnes. The case against George Stephens for the same offense, resulted in the same way. The cases against Barnes and Stephens for the killing of Kelly Day, were set for yesterday at 12 o'clock.

Miss Sophia Hutchinson, of Hutchinsonton station, Bourbon county, has rented the building on Main street occupied by W. L. Morris, and will in the immediate future open a first-class millinery store. Miss Hutchinson comes to us with the highest commendations as to her financial ability and genuine taste in her work.

Walt Whitman's seventy-second birthday was celebrated by a dinner at his home, in Camden, N. J., on May 31. Forty-guests sat down at the table and were entertained during the evening with selections read by the poet from his own works. Letters of congratulation were received from Lord Tennyson, E. C. Stedman and others.

On account of the election on Saturday, the 13th, I deferred the sale of my property on Howard Avenue, this city, till Saturday next, June 20th. On that day I will sell a convenient and commodious dwelling, and two good residence lots. Remember the date and place—3 p. m., June 20th, on the premises. Be on hand and secure a bargain. Sale positive.

C. W. HARRIS.

James Bryant, an old and respected citizen of this county, died at the residence of his sister, Miss Lucy Bryant, at Side View, on last Friday, June 12th. He was 67 years old, was born and raised in this county. Was a member of the Baptist church in Harrison county. He was also a member of the Masonic Order. The deceased leaves four children and a great many friends to mourn his loss.

Col. George Spaulding, of Louisville, the general State agent for the Bemis Tobacco Transplanter, was in the city and county the past week. He has placed several of his machines in this and Bath counties and says the farmers who are using them are more than satisfied with the work done. He went home Saturday.

James B. Tipton, wife and son, Albin, returned Saturday evening from a six weeks visit to friends and relatives in Indiana and Illinois. They report a very pleasant visit. Miss Dora Tackett, of Champaign City, Ill., niece of Mrs. Tipton returned with them to spend the summer with her Aunt here.

Capt. B. A. Tracy, solicitor for the Growers Tobacco Warehouse, of Louisville, is among the farmers securing shipments of tobacco to his house. By the way this house has been making some splendid sales lately.

Did You Ever

Hear of such prices on goods as are given by Thos. Whitt, the Jeweler. I will guarantee that I can discount prices 10 to 20 per cent offered by any house in the city. Is this worth saying when you get the same quality of goods at such a discount? For the next thirty days I will sell watches, clocks, jewelry, and optical goods at very close prices. I have a nice line of gold filled watches, and I keep all the leading American and foreign makes of watches, from ordinary to the best quality, and I guarantee all one year, to be good time keepers.

THOS. WHITT, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Dr. J. K. Kutnevsky is located on the Gen. Dick Williams place and will attend to all calls.

IN MEMORIAM.

On Saturday evening, May 22d, came a telegram saying "Dr. C. L. Mason was shot dead last evening. What do you wish done with the body?" To you, dear reader, this may seem but a passing notice, but to us it means that Charlie's dead. Yes, dead! Oh, how can we say it? How can we realize that we are to never again in this life clasp his friendly hand, and to look into his glad blue eyes? In the morning of his young manhood and thus cut down without a moment's warning, without knowing he had an enemy, and so little deserving this sad fate. His character possessed every trait that makes the true gentleman. He was noble, generous, kind and loving and as gentle as a woman. Charlie was so lovable in his home, so respectful to father and mother, so thoughtful to brother and sister, and was often heard to say he was living for the interest of the family.

No wonder father and mother were expecting to lean on this strong arm in their old age! No wonder his brother said: "I never thought that Charlie could die." But alas! Death comes oftener to those that we are the more reluctant to give up, for if we had been called on to choose we would have said, "By all means let Charlie live." The idol and pride of his home. Oh, how gladly would others have given their lives for his, but it could not be. Oh, how could a human heart be so cruel as to steel the hand to do this awful deed? How could they take away the life of one whose office it was to relieve suffering humanity? How conscientiously and earnestly he labored to do all that he could for anyone who needed his help, whether he was to receive compensation or not. But most of all it pained my heart when I read in a letter from one of his friends that when he realized that his life was about to be taken, he threw up his hands and so pitifully said: "O, don't." Yes, his last words were to plead for the life that was so sweet to him. Sweet because he was innocent of any wrong action or intention. Sweet because he was coming home to spend the remainder of it with those who loved him best.

But the home coming was so different from what we had anticipated. All of the loving words and little acts of kindness that we had kept in store for him fell on an ear cold in death. Oh, God! as we sit in the shadow of this great bereavement help us not to murmur and teach us thy ways are best; sanctify this sore affliction to our good and grant us the sweet reward of meeting Charlie in that home where separation, pain and death never enter. Is the prayer of one who loved him. Oh, these parting scenes will end. Some sweet day, by and by. We shall gather friend with friend, Some sweet day, by and by. There before our Father's throne When the mists and clouds have flown We shall know as we are known, Some sweet day, by and by.

AUNT.

The Montgomery county F. and L. U. will meet in the city of Mt. Sterling on the first Friday in July next at 9 o'clock, business of importance to attend to, also officers for the next 12 months to elect and install. Sub-Units in the county send 3 delegates each to represent them with dues to the State for term beginning July 1st 1891.

RED HOT!

The City Election on Saturday.

Baum, Watson, Fitzpatrick and Apperson Winners by Handsome Majorities.

The election of Councilmen in the several wards of the city on Saturday, developed into one of the most exciting elections this city has known for years. We have not been used to seeing much interest taken in the selection of Councilmen for the city heretofore, but into this one so many unlooked side issues were thrust that almost before we were aware of it passions were excited and bad blood engendered. Almost everyone looked for trouble, but since it is the unexpected that always happens, and men were forewarned of the existing danger, all passed off without any serious affairs.

The fight opened strong in each ward, but one by one it was abandoned in the First, Second and Fourth wards and centered in the Third. Here it was hotly contested till the closing of the polls. Money was used everywhere that it could be placed with telling effect. The fact that the Council has the appointment of City Attorney, Marshal, Clerk, Treasurer, etc., brought into the scramble many who otherwise would have contented themselves with casting a vote. The results are:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Majority Count. Includes Adam Baum (86), C. H. Bryan (51), Henry Watson (70), C. F. Keese (48), W. T. Fitzpatrick (89), Harry Campbell (32), W. P. Apperson (41), F. Senieur (31).

Dr. H. C. Kehoe uses the Pratt system in treating piles, fistula, and all chronic diseases.

On Saturday night Charlie Flanders was going home from his father's store at Judy's, when he was fired upon by some one upon murder bent. Two shots were fired at him, one passing through his clothing. Only on the Thursday night before Willie Bryant, another young man of the neighborhood, was near the same place shot at, and barely escaped. The party who fired upon young Bryant was within ten feet of him. There is no clue to the would-be murderer, and since both of the young men are quiet and peaceable, and have no known enemy in the world, they and their friends are unable to account for such an attack.

Wednesday afternoon, at Powell's river quarry, near Middleborough, three heavy cars broke loose and flashed down the grade. Gaining speed as they went, they passed Cloud's, ten miles from the starting point, at the rate of a mile a minute. Near Cloud's is a deep cut, where a gang of section hands was at work on the track. The men had no time to escape, and the cars dashed into them, killing a man named Daniels and fatally injuring ten others.

Pat Punch says the white flag of peace floats from his house to-day. He was in the fray till Saturday evening at 6 o'clock and was willing to give his friends, the enemy, all the trouble possible, but when they beat him he was perfectly satisfied to abide by the verdict. He bears not one particle of malice toward a living creature.

Give Sharp, Trimble & Denton a call if you want special bargains in hats, gents' furnishing goods, etc.

The printer is generally a patient forbearing kind of person, but the fiend who daily tortures a cornet in the rear of the National Hotel seems to have no conception of this fact. Some day he will rise in his wrath and the remains of the aforesaid fiend will be gently scattered to the four winds of the earth.

Born to the wife of Rev. E. E. Bomar on Thursday June 11th, a daughter.

Born to the wife of R. A. Hall June 13th, a son.

Born to the wife of J. S. Neal June 12th, a daughter.

DEATHS.

Died at the home of his parents near Sharsburg, on Monday night, June 8th, Bruce Spratt only child of A. G. and Lide Spratt, aged 7 years. That dread scourge diphtheria carried off the bright little loved one from the arms of devoted parents. He was a bright little fellow and gave promise of a useful life. The many friends of the bereaved parents sympathize deeply with them in their loss. Burial in Crown Hill cemetery at Sharsburg.

Mr. J. T. Benton died at Livia, McLean county, Ky., on Wednesday, the 10th of pneumonia after a brief illness of about one week. He came to this city last September to visit his grandson Mr. H. B. Kinsolving and remained here since then until about three weeks ago when he left here, in splendid health to visit his daughter Mrs. Mary O'Flaherty and other near relatives in Western Kentucky. About two weeks after he left here Mr. Benton was stricken with a violent attack of pneumonia and, on account of his advanced years, he soon fell a victim to it. Mr. Benton was born in Ohio county, Kentucky, in 1813 and was past 78 years of age when he died. He had lived a Christian life as a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the last forty-five years. On account of the serious illness of his child Mr. H. B. Kinsolving was not able to attend the burial.

For Sale.

On Saturday, June 20, I will sell a very desirable home on Howard Avenue, one of the most desirable residence streets of the city.
