

THE ADVOCATE.

Clark County F. & L. U. Meeting.

The Clark county F. and L. U. met at the Court House Saturday, and was in session the greater part of the day.

The treasurer's report showed that nearly all the claims on account of the picnic had been paid, and that there was sufficient funds on hand to discharge all claims outstanding.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows, viz:

P. D. White, President; W. D. Huls, Vice President; Dr. J. A. Snowden, Secretary; P. E. Allen, Treasurer; Chas. Swift, Lecturer; L. W. Rider, Assistant Lecturer; J. F. Davis, Chaplain; A. J. Lisle, Doorkeeper; J. Blanton, Assistant Doorkeeper; J. H. Kindred, Sergeant-at-arms; J. L. Allen, Business Agent.

The following resolutions, which are self-explanatory, were adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the Democratic members of the F. and L. U., of Clark county, are heartily in favor of the Jeffersonian doctrine of the greatest good to the greatest number, and of the equality of all men before the law; that we do not believe in organizing a third party, and therefore do not approve of the action taken by the convention that met in Cincinnati last May.

Resolved, That we seek to reform and purify the management of the old political parties; that we are opposed to monopolies and combinations of capital that would oppress the people, but do not desire to see injustice done to any class of our citizens, whether rich or poor, and do not desire to disturb any class or condition of men in the enjoyment of their civil, religious or political rights.

Resolved, That we wish to make the Alliance a great educational agency to bring the people together to study and discuss the great public questions of the day, and to watch the interest of agriculture and labor so that all interested with us may act unitedly and with intelligence when called on to vote or to discharge any duty of citizenship.

P. D. WHITE, Pres. J. A. EUBANK, Secy. -[Winchester Democrat.

IN MEMORIAM, LEWIS M. RICKETTS,

Died at Winchester, Ky., July 3, 1891.

ALMA LODGE, No. 322, F. & A. M. Camargo, Ky., July 5, 1891.

Once more the messenger of death has alarmed our outer door and summoned a brother to the presence of the Grand Master. We honored and loved him, for his life was honest and useful, and his heart kind and affectionate. We will miss him in the daily walks of life and those spheres of action where men's impress is made on their fellows. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Lewis M. Ricketts, society has lost a useful and honored member, the community a benefactor and Freemasonry a shining light, whose brightness will be sadly missed when the mystic circle joins hands around our common altar.

Resolved, That, as a man his walk was upright and his acts such as to the respect and esteem of his brethren, who deplore his loss and mourn his sudden death.

Resolved, That we tender his relatives and friends our condolence and heartfelt sympathy, praying for them the balm of God's comfort and tender mercy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the record books of this lodge, a copy be furnished the family of the deceased, and one to Mason Lodge, No. 342, Maysville, Ky., and that his lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Also that the county papers be requested to publish these resolutions.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Sharpsburg Items.

Fulton Greene, of Sideview, was in town last week.

Collections are slow in all lines of business just now.

J. H. Mason, of the Mt. Sterling Advocate, was here last Saturday.

Considering the lateness of its planting, the tobacco crop is looking well.

A much needed rain fell throughout this section last Thursday and Friday.

Having failed to put in our appearance last week, we give the news of two weeks this time.

Communion services were held at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Kittie Wood, and Master Joe Wood have returned from a week's visit to their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Duckworth, at Thompson's station.

Mrs. Waller Sharp, who has been very sick with typhoid fever for two weeks is slowly convalescing. She is being nursed during her illness by Mrs. Lou Latta, who has the reputation of being the best fever nurse in all this section.

The misses Peck gave an elegant reception at their beautiful home near town to their many friends on the night of the 17th inst., which was well attended, there being over one hundred invited guests present. The hospitable mansion was brilliant with lights and was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. Refreshments were served during the evening, after which the dining hall was turned into a ball-room, and the lovers of the Terpsichorean art "tripped the light fantastic" until the wee sma' hours of the morning. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Miss Mary Goodpaster and Mr. Willie Ramsey, of Owingsville. The evening was highly enjoyed by all present, everything passed off quietly, and the event was undoubtedly the greatest social treat of the season. The young ladies looked charming and lovely, the young gentlemen looked handsome and gallant, and we suspect that the artful cupid was abroad in the gay throng. Ever after we have grown old and feeble, and the recollections of the past have become faint and indistinct, we can look back upon the Misses Peck's reception as one of the most pleasant and bright memories of our youth. All of the local belles and beaux were out in full force, and the following were present from other towns: From Owingsville, Misses Nora Peters, Mary Goodpaster, Lilly Fratman, Annie Conner, Jane Goodpaster, and Agnes Catlett, and Messrs. Willie Ramsey, Lee Brother, Alex. Conner, Levi Young, Oscar Brother, Clarence McAlister, and Clarke Bascom; from Mt. Sterling, Miss Venia Oldham, and Messrs. Bob Hazlerigg, J. G. McCue, Bridges White, Dick Chiles, James Voris, and Allie Ratliff; from Winchester, Mr. Frank Kennedy; from Winchester, Mr. Junius McClimons.

During the picnic a match game of ball was played between the Sharpsburg club and a picked nine from Sherburne, Bethel, and the Fair grounds. The picked nine was not in it from the start, and at no time was the result in doubt. The score stood 23 to 3 in favor of Sharpsburg, and they won with hands down. The fine features of the game were Latta's pitching, Morris' batting, and Boyd's fielding. The Sharpsburg's have materially strengthened their team by having Latta for Pitcher, as he does work worthy of a professional in that line.

Having determined to close out and settle up my business at Mt. Sterling, from and after July 1st, 1891, my terms will be cash, or not over 30 days. All bills will be presented the first of each month. Special Bargains in Clothing and Hats until stock is closed.

W. S. CALDWELL.

Meal! Meal!

I am prepared to do custom work for any who need it, on Friday of any week. I make bolted or unbolted meal.

JOSIAH LINDSAY, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

News comes of a terrible tragedy that was enacted between Paris and Millersburg, on Sunday morning. A negro named John Craig, who had escaped from the Harrison county jail, where he had been confined on a charge of murder, entered the house of a Mr. Conway, and before he could be arrested in his murderous assaults, killed Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conway, and Charles Conway, their son, and badly wounded two others of the family. The negro was evidently crazy, as he had never known the family, and could have had no cause of grievance against them. He used a part of a cradle blade to do his desperate work. A son of Mr. Frank Conway and several neighbors came to the rescue and killed the murderous brute. Mr. Curry Hoffman was at the scene of the tragedy, soon after the occurrence, and to whom we are indebted for the details, says that he has never witnessed anything so terrible. The excitement in the neighborhood is very high, as the people attacked were quiet, respectable and industrious citizens.
