Harris Institute.

The next term of my school will open Tuesday, Sept. 1st, 1891. For terms apply to Mrs. L. L. Harris.

I have, for the convenience of taxpayers of the city, made arrangements for an office with Judge Peters during this, the last week for the collection of taxes before the ten per cent. goes on. Don't forget that after next Monday night, ten per cent. will be added to your taxes.

Respectfully, JOHN GIBBONS, City Marshal.

Wanted.

When you see certain persons stop a vehicle directly over a street crossing, thereby blocking the way, you may safely set them down as individuals who are possessed of the idea that pedestrians have no right there, and should step out in the mud if he desires to reach the pavement. There are a number of such in this city who are seemingly in possession of all rights to the use of the city's crossings. They should be decorated with the order of "The Grand United Society of Nuisances."

The annual Fair of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society, which takes place September 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, will be one of the greatest events in the history of the Society. All the officers are young men of well-known ability, who will spare no pains nor expense to make the occasion one of great enjoyment. In addition to the races and other regular features the Society has engaged the services of the famous Kemp Brothers, who will give daily exhibitions of riding, racing, etc. Saxton & Trost's celebrated band has been secured, and we have Henry Saxton's word that the music will be something great. If you wish to enjoy yourself, by all means attend the Paris Fair.

For Sale.

A good medical library and a fine and full case of surgical instruments. For information call at this office.

The meeting at Corinth church, this county, held by Elder J. K. P. South, closed the past week with twelve additions. Elder South made a fine impression on the people. His audiences were large at every service and much good done, both in the way of awakening the members of the church to the work acquired of them, and in bringing souls to the Saviour.

The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist church South will meet at Harrodsburg September 2nd. Bishop Wilson will preside. Dr. Hiner, of this city, will of course be in attendance. With this Conference year the Doctor completes his third year's stay with this people. He has done splendid work among us, and great will be the regret when the time shall come that he must leave us.

The Bourbon Fair begins September 1st. There has already been fifty-three successful meetings of this Society, and the 54th will be no exception. The liberal premium list offered, and the intelligent management displayed by the directors has secured for this Fair a most enviable reputation. The Secretary, Mr. R. K. McCarney, will please accept our thanks for a ticket to the meeting.

Judge H. Clay McKee returned on Friday night from a pleasant visit to Chicago, Indianapolis and other Western points. He joined his two boys who were visiting in Chicago. He found them well but still anxious to investigate their surroundings. One of them, Trimble, who is nothing, if not an experimenter, concluded he would test the temperature of Lake Michigan, he was soon satisfied and succeeded in getting out with nothing worse than a ducking.

Frank Almy, who in July shot and killed Miss Christie Warden, at Hanover, N. H., was on Thursday found in a barn on the farm of the girl's father, and after a desperate resistance in which the murderer was three times wounded, and during which he succeeded in wounding one of the assailants, he was captured. The murder of the girl has caused wide-spread excitement in the section in which Almy lived.

Dr. J. W. Chennault of Louisville who is widely connected in Montgomery was the past week the guest of Mr. Thos. H. Grubbs. His friends have learned with great pleasure that after two years recreation he will take his old place at the head of the well known University School of Kentucky, at Louisville, which for fifteen years has done such splendid service to the state in preparing boys for Yale, Princeton, Harvard and the other good colleges of the country. In recognition of this service Princeton University has honored Prof. Chennault with the Doctorate of Philosophy.

Base Ball.

The Favorites of Lexington, fresh from the field of defeat at Galletsburg crossed bats with the Gate City's in two games, Thursday and Friday, and again they struck bottom with a dull thud. Thursday's game resulted in a score of 12 to 10; Friday's game 15 to 13. Neither game developed any brilliant playing, but some excuse for Thursday's score can be found in the rain, which nearly spoiled the prospect.

The Cynthianas' and Gate City's will play two games, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

A young man of this city, Robert J. Settles, aged about 20 years, had the misfortune to seriously shoot himself on Tuesday afternoon. The facts, so far as can be ascertained are that the young man came home, and going to his room, seems to have been carelessly handling a muzzle loading shot-gun, already loaded with small shot for shooting rats, which had become troublesome about the place. In some way he discharged the weapon, so that the charge entered his right breast, shattering the bones at the shoulder. His mother hearing the report, ran to see what was the matter, and met the young man coming out of his room. He lost consciousness almost at once, and upon regaining it says the shot was accidental, but he does not know himself precisely how it occurred. He thinks though, that he must have carelessly caught the hammer against the bureau or bedstead as he passed.

In speaking of the Prescott-McLean presentation of the Merchant of Venice, the Denison (Texas) Gazette says: "Even among the most distinguished of his contemporaries, few, if any, come nearer the ideal in its presentation. In the earlier scenes, he is calm, assured, firm and dignified and presents a seeming such a Shylock clearly ought to. In these scenes his clear enunciation, deep, vibrant and sonorous voice and dignified bearing give him a subtly and quiet strength highly in keeping with the most approved conception of the character. Miss Prescott's 'Portia' is such a type of lofty intellectuality, womanly sweetness and high-souled purity and virtue as might have stood for Shakespeare's model of the Belmont heiress, and takes rank among the most refined of Shakespeare's creations."

Marie Prescott and R. D. McLean will open the season at the Grand Opera House Friday night, August 28. The Jacksonville Times-Union says of their rendition of the Merchant of Venice: "It was finely rendered last night, and with a fine relish in certain portions which seemed to indicate that the actors loved and appreciated Shakespeare. The finest acting of the evening was done by Mr. McLean, as 'Shylock,' and he has established fame in Jacksonville henceforth. Miss Prescott, as 'Portia,' it is needless to say, was the central attraction of the evening. Her rendering of that familiar but exquisite dissertation of mercy, beginning 'the quality of mercy is not strained,' for fine intonation, correct interpretation and general effect, will bear favorable comparison with the work of the most distinguished stage lights. The costumes were so elegant that the result of the groupings was often a tableau of great beauty and fine coloring."

The Gativity club will soon appear in new uniforms of dark gray, with red caps & red stockings. They will play at Galletsburg next Friday and Saturday.

The prospect for a fine crop of fall grass, which with us is only a little short of a full crop, is daily growing brighter. The fine rains that have been falling during the last ten days will soon turn our pastures to a green that will fill the hearts of stockmen with joy.

By the explosion of 200 pounds of giant powder at the Black Bear mines, Idaho, G. McNeil, Manager; John Jense, Assistant Manager, Robert Blackburn and John Barrows, miners, were killed. There are four others missing, and it is feared their bodies were blown to atoms.

Another Take Notice.

My friends must not feel disappointed if they ask it and are refused credit, for I can only pay my little bills when customers pay theirs to me. So I will only sell for cash in the future. This will enable me to sell cheaper and cause me no trouble to collect up. A. SCHLEGEL.

Rentz & Co.'s Circus and Menagerie was filled to overflowing last night—hundreds were turned away. It is an all-around 2-act performance, and could remain here all season. Everything is moral, clean and home-like. There is not too much circus, but just enough to make it enjoyable.—[Mail. Will exhibit in Mt. Sterling Saturday, August 29th.

Rentz & Co.'s Rail Road Shows, Museum, Menagerie and Hippodrome were largely patronized and enthusiastically received by two great audiences which greeted them last Saturday. It is superior to the average shows, as the cash-in-advance subscription list is to the old time pay-when-you-get-ready style. "It is a Jim Dandy and don't you forget it." One ticket admits to all these excellent shows, and either one contains more of merit than some whole shows of far greater pretensions. It has the "cinch" on the show business and no mistake and we extend a cordial welcome whenever the notion occurs to visit us again. The gentlemanly courtesy of all connected with the entire outfit is not one of its least commendable features.—[Grand Rapids Eagle. Will exhibit here Saturday Aug. 29.
