

TRIMBLE BROS., WHOLESALE GROCERS.

TRIMBLE BROS.,

Wholesale Grocers

MT. STERLING, KY.

A Word With you On It.

We need money and must have it. We can't live on air nor pay our debts with promises.

We would also kindly ask everyone to remember that all accounts are due the 1st of each month.

R. M. & T. K. BARNES.

February 8th 1892.

For sale or trade, 250 acres of coal and timber land in Morgan county.

H. R. Prewitt has been elected vice President of Farmers & Merchants Bank, Hill City, Kansas.

Right of way has been secured to build an electric railway between Ashland and Catlettsburg.

John W. Jones has rented a business room in the Drake-Bigstaff building.

Nature treated us to a grand display on Saturday night. The Aurora was brighter and more brilliant than we have ever seen from this point.

Miss Dixie Skillman, of North Middletown, is one of the most successful poultry raisers in her county.

A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Flemingsburg, under date of Saturday, says: "D. K. Jones, aged about 65 years, was arrested near this place this afternoon and lodged in jail on a charge of incest."

Mr. W. A. Sutton has returned from Louisville, where he attended a course of lectures, and took practical lessons in embalming the dead.

Farmers are asked to bear in mind that they can find a full line of Oliver Chills, South Bend and Avery plow repairs at Ed. Mitchell's.

The initial number of the Owingsville Opinion has been received by us. It is a nine column folio published by Herron & Williamson.

Adam Baum & Son are advertising a full line of fresh groceries, notions and confectioneries in the Advocate.

The Advocate has secured new and much more desirable quarters in the Tyler-Apperson building.

John W. Hazelrigg's mother died at West Liberty Sunday the 14th.

Jas. W. Shront has been appointed administrator of J. M. McDonald's estate.

On last Wednesday at a boarding house in Louisville John Botts came near being suffocated by gas which escaped in his room.

Elder C. B. Moore, of North Middletown, and Miss Mattie Bedford, of Millersburg, will be married at the home of the bride's parents.

The first issue of the K. T. S. News, edited by E. R. Gay, S. W. Greene and Andrew Gibbons, made its appearance on last Friday.

Mr. A. T. Hurst, of Campton, sold his property in that town, to J. B. Hulton, and left last week for Texas.

A copy of the K. T. S. News, a bright cherry little sheet, issued by the pupils of the K. T. S. has reached our table.

The second loss of the Hurst Home Insurance company was that of Mr. Thos. Scott in lower portion of Montgomery county.

BIRTHS.

Born on the 8th instant, to the wife of Clarence Menor, of Clark, a daughter.

Born to Thos. Breeze and wife on the 4th instant, a daughter.

Mr. T. H. Eastin and son George were in Louisville last week attending Prof. Clarke's lectures on "the care of the dead."

On yesterday Lamor Shackelford, son of Dink Shackelford, of Lee county and a son-in-law of Levi Couch, of this county, was killed by a tree falling on him.

The Home Insurance Company has had quite a little burst of fire, but the members are standing up like men and not complaining.

Kennedy Bros., The - Prescription - Druggists.

Pure Drugs, Medicines, &c. School Books, School Supplies, Pure Inks, pencils, &c. All Toilet Articles. Also Paints, Oils and Varnishes.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. Q. Drake is quite sick. Ed Brown is quite sick with erysipelas.

T. J. Evans, of Bourbon county, was in the city Thursday.

Miss Rebekah Smith is teaching Wade's Mill school.

Mrs. J. C. Gaitskill, of Sideview neighborhood, is quite sick.

Miss Jennie Tilton, of Carlisle, is visiting Miss Sallie Green.

Mrs. Cynthia Reed, who has been quite sick, is very much better.

Mr. E. P. Clark, of Millersburg, was in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. Ella Quisenberry, of Clark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. L. Proctor.

Miss Mary Ditzler, of Oldham county, is visiting relatives in this county.

Mike Zeigler, of Winchester, was in the city last Wednesday on business.

Miss Margaret Thomson left Wednesday for Paris for a few days visit.

H. T. Rogers will leave for Ohio in a few days, to engage in milling business.

Charles D. Grubbs is able to attend to business, after severe spell of Grippe.

Ida May, infant daughter of J. W. Nickerson, is quite sick with catarrhal fever.

Roy Kern and Mrs. M. W. Chorn are in Paris attending the Gay-Kern wedding.

Mrs. Mary Thomson left for Irvine Monday and will make that place her future home.

Mrs. Charles Donohue entertained last Friday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Ditzler.

Miss May Talbot, of Clark county, is visiting the family of Mrs. Kate Smith, on Winn street.

Misses Mary and Annie Evans, of Clark county, are visiting the family of J. H. Mason, on Winn street.

John T. Prewitt, of Louisville, was in the county visiting relatives and attending to business last week.

Hon. Waller Sharp spent Sunday with his family at Sharpsburg. He returned to Frankfort yesterday.

J. Clyde Nelson, of Sharpsburg, and J. D. Pollard, of the North Middletown Advance, were in the city on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fannie Priest and son, Hunt, who have been visiting in Clark county for some weeks past, returned home last Monday.

Messrs. Thos. P. and George Sutton, of Fleming county, who were visiting W. A. and A. W. Sutton, returned home last week.

John T. Fletcher, near Grassy Lick, and wife, nee Johnson, (of Bath county), will move to Sherburne and make that place their future home.

J. Clyde Nelson, of Sharpsburg, and J. D. Pollard, of the North Middletown Advance, were in the city on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fannie Priest and son, Hunt, who have been visiting in Clark county for some weeks past, returned home last Monday.

Messrs. Thos. P. and George Sutton, of Fleming county, who were visiting W. A. and A. W. Sutton, returned home last week.

John T. Fletcher, near Grassy Lick, and wife, nee Johnson, (of Bath county), will move to Sherburne and make that place their future home.

Mrs. W. N. Anderson will leave Wednesday to visit relatives in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. She will be absent about four weeks.

W. R. Howard, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, passed through the city Monday, on his way home from a trip to Bath county.

F. L. Bosworth, of Knoxville, Tenn., was in the city from Saturday until Monday. Introducing the Jelico coal agrees with him physically and we hope financially.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

Col. Thos. Johnson's many friends will be delighted to learn he has so recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to be out again.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

Col. Thos. Johnson's many friends will be delighted to learn he has so recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to be out again.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

Col. Thos. Johnson's many friends will be delighted to learn he has so recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to be out again.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

Col. Thos. Johnson's many friends will be delighted to learn he has so recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to be out again.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

Col. Thos. Johnson's many friends will be delighted to learn he has so recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to be out again.

J. B. Wilson and wife, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Botts, in this city.

Otho Graves, of the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, and P. Meguiar, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, have been in the city several days looking after the tobacco interests.

A. Broh, of Paris, is in the city.

Reed Rogers and wife are visiting in the city.

Lot Young, of Bourbon, was in the city Monday.

J. Hood Smith, of Winchester, was in the city Monday.

James Hall and nephew, Roscoe Hall, were in the city Monday.

Mr. Frank Allen, of Sharpsburg, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Henry Glover, of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, is in the city.

Jeff Ratliff and wife visited friends and relatives in Bath county last week.

Thos. H. Grubbs, with C. F. Brower & Co., Lexington, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Doinigan is seriously ill of pneumonia at her home, near Wade's Mill.

A. H. Judy, traveling salesman of the Lexington Foundry Company, was in the city this week.

Mr. F. C. Hays, of Louisville, is in the city looking after his mercantile interests at the Louisville store, South Maysville street.

Mrs. Wm. McKnight left for her home at Lebanon, Ind., last Tuesday. She has been on a visit to her husband for a few weeks past.

Miss Carrie Lou Metcalf, who has for some time past been a guest of Miss Carrie Chiles, left yesterday afternoon, for her home in St. Louis.

Chief Justice W. H. Holt was in the city Sunday and yesterday visiting his aged mother, attending to some business and shaking hands with his friends.

John B. Thomas Representative from this county, and Mr. T. J. Arnett, Representative from Magoffin county, spent from Saturday till Monday in the city.

Mr. Henry Barnes, the popular clerk for the firm of R. M. & T. K. Barnes, leaves for Chattanooga to-morrow, to be gone a week or ten days on a business trip.

N. C. Ratliff, wife and sons, Willie, Owen and Rollie; C. S. Ratliff, wife and son, Earl; Sam Ratliff and wife, and T. J. Jones, of Sharpsburg, visited relatives in the city this week.

John W. Miller, (Dame) postal clerk between Nashville and St. Louis, and one of the most efficient clerks in the entire service, is at home for a few days visiting his father's family.

Senator B. F. Cockrell was mingling with his constituents here Saturday. Miss Brooks Magowan, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., was the guest of Miss Irene Redmon, the past week.

John Samuels and daughter, Miss Annie, are in New York. Miss Annie will remain at the Jackson Sanitarium, Dansville, N. Y., hoping to regain her health, which has been poor for some time.

Mrs. Dr. B. F. Thomson returned from Cincinnati Monday night. Her husband is much better and has returned to Mt. Sterling.

Dr. Thompson and wife are both at home, and the Doctor is greatly improved.

Miss Lane Taulbee left for Mt. Sterling, Thursday, and will assume the duties of housekeeper for her brother, Dr. Breck Taulbee.

Mrs. Sally Neal, of Warrensburg, Mo., arrived here Saturday evening, and is now installed as an assistant teacher in the Academy.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The parties who purchased the Olympian Springs property will get possession March 1. They will make such improvements as are necessary for the convenience and comfort of guests.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

KILLED.

John Samuels Assaults Dr. G. A. Richart with a Cane. This is Resented by a Fatal Shot.

The Cause a Mystery. Reports Meager and Conflicting. The Funeral Attended by a Large Crowd.

Examining Trial Wednesday Morning at 9 o'clock. Prisoner Under Guard.

On Friday evening just as our merchants and business men were winding up the affairs of a quiet day's work preparatory to seeking rest at the fireside.

So far as we learn, not one word was spoken by either during the affray, which only occupied probably thirty seconds.

So far as we learn, not one word was spoken by either during the affray, which only occupied probably thirty seconds.

We knew John Samuels well, and in all the twenty years of his residence here, we do not recall that he ever had even a serious dispute with any one.

He made but few intimate friends but these he bound to him by strong and tender ties.

He made but few intimate friends but these he bound to him by strong and tender ties.

The State Convention of the Y. M. C. A., will meet at Danville Thursday.

The Alexander Hotel Company, of Louisville, made an assignment Saturday afternoon for the benefit of its creditors to the Germania Safety Vault and Trust Company.

When the C. & O. takes charge of the N. N. & M. V., April 1, the Western Union Telegraph Company will take the place of the present telegraph company.

Mr. Jas. O'Connell will, after a few days, have charge of the signal service at this place, and will keep our people posted as to all kinds of weather.

McKee & Watson, real estate dealers, have a large list of farms and city property for sale and rent.

Appreciated.

SHARPSBURG, Feb. 10, 1892.

DEAR SIR:—I have received from you $1,031.60, amount of Taylor Vice's life policy in the Equitable Life Assurance Company of New York.

Sincerely Yours, LIDA F. VICE.

Mrs. S. Wilson, twelve miles from Warsaw, Ill., was taken suddenly ill, a few days ago, and, to all appearances, died.

In another column read the advertisement of I. N. Phipps, successor to W. S. Caldwell, in the Odd Fellows' building.

LEXINGTON, KY., Feb. 10.

Manager of Grand Opera House, Mt. Sterling, Ky.—Dear Sir: There has been some complaint about first-class companies traveling through the country.

Respectfully, A. L. WILKER.

A Word to the Wise.

Do you want to make money? I have always heard it said, "money saved is money made."

THOS. WHITT.