Samuels & King.

Honn-Burton.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. John W. Burton, on Wednesday, October 16, Miss Fannie Burton will be married to Mr. George W. Honn, a prominent and successful farmer of near Bowen, Powell county, Rev. C. J. Nugent officiating. Miss Burton is one of Mt. Sterling's most lovable daughters and the man who was so fortunate as to win her hand and heart has secured a helpmeet that will rejoice with him in time of prosperity and sympathize with him in time of misfortune. But the Advocate with the many friends of the young couple hope that such a thing as misfortune will never darken their home, and that their journey down life's pathway will be strewn with roses. The young couple will reside in Powell county for a time, but it is to be hoped that ere long they will decide to make the old county of Montgomery their home.

Died, on last Wednesday morning of heart trouble, R. M. McKee, aged about 60 years. Mr. McKee had been complaining for several days, but his condition was not considered serious. He had a fainting spell in the evening, but rallied and the next morning he had a similar attack from which he died. On Thursday afternoon his funeral was preached at his late residence by Elder H. D. Clark. Deceased was a brother of Judge H. Clay McKee, of this city and of Hon. Sam McKee, of Louisville, was a quiet farmer with many friends.

Willie Curtice, aged 16, a boy well known and greatly liked, died at the home of Mr. Harvey Daniel near town on Friday night. For six or seven years Willie has driven a milk wagon for Fogg Brothers and later when Mr. Daniel bought them out in the dairy business for him. The boy by his bright and cherry ways made friends of everybody on his route. Elder B. W. Trimble conducted his funeral service, on Saturday afternoon after which the burial took place near Levee.

Richard Suter was given a life sentence at Frankfort for the murder of Harry Kelly.

Free Cuba.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Dr. H. W. Thomas caused somewhat of a sensation this morning by declaring from the pulpit that the time has come for America to say that the oppression of Cuba, by Spain, must come to an end. There was a large attendance of the best people in the city, and the speaker was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause.

The First Presbyterian church is making arrangements to celebrate its one-hundredth anniversary, beginning on Sunday, October 6th. It is expected that Rev. R. T. Caldwell, of Sharpsburg, one of early pastors of the church, will preach that morning and Rev. J. W. Worrell, D. D., of Danville Theological Seminary will preach in the evening. During the week the meetings of Ebenezer Presbytery and the Synod of Kentucky will be held. Also the ladies Synodical Societies of Home and Foreign Missions, Wednesday, October 9th, is the day set apart for the special centennial exercises at which time there will be addresses delivered by Rev. J. W. Malloy, of the Southern Presbyterian church of Owensboro and others.

Vandalism.

Just before daylight Sunday morning some undetected vandals broke in to the York Street Congregationalist Church, of Newport, Ky., tore the Bible to pieces and mutilated the organ with hatchets, nearly destroying it.

Trustees Take Notice.

Superintendent of schools, I. N. Horton, desires the school trustees of the county, to call on him and procure the blanks for monthly reports, the law requires both teachers and trustees to make.

The Watt's Iron Works at Middleboro are in Operation.

The fires were started in Furnace No. 1, of the Watts syndicate, at 6 o'clock Thursday evening by Mr. Edgar Watts' little daughter. The furnace was also christened by the breaking of a bottle of champagne, after which a lunch was spread. The whistles blew and school bells rang. There is great rejoicing among the people.

Will Try Again.

Dr. Parkhurst has returned from Switzerland ready to reform the reformers. "Platt and the spirit of Platt, he declares are worse than Croker and the spirit of Croker." He says the entire system of bossism must come up by the roots.—Courier-Journal.

Little Carnel Welsh, the nine year old daughter of Thos. Welsh of near town, on Saturday stuck a blade of a pair of scissors in her eye. She was taken to Cincinnati on Saturday afternoon to a specialist in the hope that the sight of eye may be saved. The eye is badly injured and it is doubtful if loss of sight can be averted. The suffering of the little one was terrible till relieved by the application of a local anaesthetic.

J. H. Cooper, the telephone man of Salyersville, Ky., was here for a few days the past week, soliciting stock on a telephone line from Ezel to Mt. Sterling. The capital stock for the erection of the line is $15,000, of which one-third has been subscribed. We are also informed that the line will be completed by November 1, 1895, if Mt. Sterling will do her part.

"Tennessee's Pardner."

Scott Marble's Western Idyl, an interesting story of Life in Nevada with the charming Cora VanTassel—"Tennessee Kent" will be produced at the Opera House Thursday evening Sept. 26th. We copy the following from the Boston Globe.

During the past week the dainty little comedienne, Cora VanTassel has accomplished more in the way of winning hosts of admirers on her first week in Boston than many of the older stars have accomplished in years. Her play, "Tennessee's Pardner" is a charming western story full of quaint characterizations drawn from the authors memory of the people he came in contact with while a resident of the mountains. The supporting company is exceptionally strong, proving all that could be desired in the parts entrusted to them. The interest of the audience is held throughout the four acts without an instant's cessation while the alternation between pathos and humor keeps the listeners between tears and laughter. To-morrow Miss VanTassel will begin the last week of her engagement.

Who is She?

Sarah Jane Johnson, wife of Samuel Johnson, who lives near Mount Sterling, Ky., was married in the forty-fifth year of her maidenhood, and a year later gave birth to six bouncing babies.—Louisville Times.

Hon. E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, made a speech yesterday to the Republicans, at the Court-house. He had a fair sized crowd which was composed of some Democrats, a few white Republicans and the balance negroes.

Court News.

The case of Charles Sledid, charged with being a member of the mob that hung Tom Blair on New Years morning, was filed away yesterday. When the case was called in the Circuit Court the Commonwealth Attorney stated that he had no other evidence to offer than was presented in the Roach and Forman cases and that was not sufficient to convict. He therefore moved to file the case away. This ends the prosecution in the Blair lynching cases we suppose.

James Pace, who was some two months since arrested in this place with a stolen horse in his possession was given seven years in the pen yesterday.

Samuels & King, dry goods merchants on East main street, are offering some special attractions to the trade this week. They are in receipt of their largest and best stock in every line of goods. See their advertisement in another column of this issue.

For Rent.

Farm, 280 acres, well watered. 100 acres corn, 50 acres wheat, 15 acres tobacco, balance in blue-grass and clover. Good dwelling, two barns and two tenant houses. Apply to Watt M. Gay, County Clerk's office. (9-2t)

In a fight between John I. Ferguson a merchant and two negro employes on one side and William McCormack and two sons on the other at Ferguson, Ky., Friday, Ferguson and one of the McCormack boys were fatally wounded, while the other combatants were seriously hurt. Two of the McCormacks surrendered themselves to the authorities. The fight came up over the removal of some tobacco stalks from a barn.

One of the features of the parade at Chattanooga Friday, was a company of ex-Confederates wearing their old gray uniforms and carrying the Stars and Stripes.

Born, to the wife of J. Davis Sewell, September 22, a daughter.

B. F. French Indicted.

B. Fulton French has been indicted by the Perry County Circuit Court for complicity in the murder of Judge Josiah Combs last September. Jesse Fields and Joe Adkins, two of French's lieutenants in the French-Eversole war, who were convicted of the murder of Judge Combs last June and given a life sentence, are now in jail at Barbourville awaiting the action of the Court of Appeals. French was prominent in their defense, and "Bad Tom" Smith implicated him and others in his dying statement on the scaffold at Jackson on June 28. Boone Frazier, another of French's pals, was also indicted.

H. K. Lyons and Miss Hadie Combs were married at the residence of the bride's parents in this city yesterday evening. Rev. A. J. Arrick officiating. This morning they start on their bridal trip to Arizona. They join a party organized to go through in wagons, and many weeks will be consumed on the trip.
