Woodford County Democrats Acting Ugly.

Effigies of Dr. J. D. Neet and Henry McWilliams two of the Woodford county delegates to the Seventh District Democratic Congressional convention, were hanged by persons who did not approve of the course of the convention. A pity it is that there are so many willful Democrats.

DEATHS.

CARTMILL.—Mrs. Mary Cartmill, aged 70, died near Judy on Sunday and was buried in Nichelias.

ROBINSON.—Joe Robinson, one of Menfee county's best citizens died at his home near Rothwell on Sunday, the 15th instant, of paralysis.

SHANNON.—Mrs. Joe Shannon died in Winchester Sunday and was buried in this city yesterday. Her husband is a cousin of Pat Shannon, of our city.

WALLER.—Mrs. W. H. Waller is in receipt of a letter announcing the death of her grand-son, Benjamin F. Waller, May 6th, aged 21 years, at Jacksonville, Fla.

WRIGHT.—Elijah Wright, of Spencer, aged about 68 years died on Friday morning after a few hours sickness. He was buried at Antioch on Saturday. He leaves a wife.

WILMOTH.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wilmoth died of diphtheria at their home in Detroit, Michigan, on Wednesday, May 11. Mrs. Wilmoth is the sister of Mrs. Jno. Barnes, of this city. The burial was in Paris, Ky., their former home.

CHENAULT.—Joel Chenault, after having been confined to his room and bed for nine months, died at his home at Bowen, Powell county, Friday, May 13, 1904, of bladder and stomach trouble. He was the oldest son of Tandy and Virginia Chenault, was born in Madison county and came here when eleven years old and has lived here until sixteen years ago when he moved to Powell. He was past 73 years old. He married Bettie Gay, of Powell, fifty-one and a half years ago. They did not have any children. Mr. Chenault was a kind husband, a neighbor and friend. No worthy man ever came to him and was turned away. He took membership in the Mt. Sterling Baptist Church about thirty years ago, was a faithful member while in the county and when at Bowen his home was the stopping place for preachers of all churches. In the absence of pastor J. R. Hobbs, funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. H. D. Clark, of the Christian Church. He was a relative of the Chenault family in Madison, Fayette, Montgomery and Jefferson, than whom no truer or more honorable people ever lived.

RELIGIOUS.

The Northern Baptist Association is in session at Cleveland, Ohio.

The South Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention meets at Corydon, Ky., May 23 to 26, ten miles from Henderson.

It is believed that eight new Bishops will be created by the Methodist general conference if the five Bishops under consideration are retired.

Rev. T. J. Golightly was in the city Monday returning from his charge at Sharpsburg. He is in the graduating class of the Bible College at Lexington.

The Delta Alpha Sunday School class of Christian Church has changed its time of meeting from 9:15 on Sunday morning to 8:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Rev. P. G. Lester, of Virginia, arrived here yesterday and will preach this morning at 10:30 at Mrs. J. W. Rathiff's and in the evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Susan Lane. To these meetings the public has a cordial invitation.

Rev. Jno. B. Meacham, the new pastor of the Presbyterian Church will preach next Sunday morning and night. He will be here in time to conduct prayer meeting on Wednesday night. Mr. Meacham is a native of South Carolina and a graduate of Princeton Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey.

Miss Mary Rogers Chiles sang beautifully "My God, My Father, Why I Stray" at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Her voice is deep and musical, and articulation fine. This was her first appearance as a soloist. She charmed the audience who will be glad to hear her often.

The plan of co-operation between the Southern Baptist convention and the National (negro) Baptist convention for the betterment of the negro's condition in the South calls for an equal appropriation by each convention, the adjustment of conditions to suit co-operation being left to the negro convention.

Regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. J. R. Hobbs and Prof. J. L. Hill have returned from Nashville where they attended the Southern Baptist Convention. They will be in their places Sunday. Prayer-meeting Wednesday evening and Teachers meeting Thursday evening. Let all attend.

Sunday morning and evening we had the pleasure of hearing the Rev. Harry Rogers, son of our esteemed citizen, T. F. Rogers and wife, delivered excellent sermons at the First Presbyterian Church here. Many were the congratulations of friends, both to the parents and the preacher. His sermons showed careful preparation, much thought, and were delivered with earnestness and ease. Rev. Rogers is now one of the best preachers of his church, and if he continues to improve the next two years as in the past two he will rank at the top among the first of his church. The good citizens of Mt. Sterling are justly proud that so gifted a young man grew up here and has gone forth to declare the joyful tidings of a crucified Lord.

THE SICK.

Douglas Day is very sick.

Mrs. P. B. Turner is able to sit up some.

Mrs. Sallie Faulkner, of Spencer, is improving.

Having been twice under the surgeon's knife, Clemst Farley does not purpose taking further chances. He is subject to fits, and both the operations to which he was subjected were performed while he was unconscious. He was seized with a fit recently and taken to St. Clair Hospital. The physicians in charge concluded that he needed an operation. They put him on the operating table, and when his clothing was removed the following inscription was found tattooed in an artistic way upon his abdomen: "Don't operate. I've been operated upon twice for appendicitis." The surgeons heeded the warning and in a short time Farley had regained consciousness. He was then found to be all right. Farley lives at No. 18 Superior street.—Cleveland Cor. N. Y. World.

MARRIAGES.

VAUGHT-JUDY.

On Wednesday afternoon at Millersburg Miss Lucile, eldest daughter of T. D. Judy, was married to K. R. Vaught, of Parker City, Ind.
