MARRIAGES.

FALL-HARPER.
 Miss Cora Harper, daughter of Capt. J. L. Johnson, of Covington, Ky., was married November 15 to J. L. Fall, of Hoboken, New Jersey. Miss Harper had been a frequent visitor here, where she was well known.

MOORE-DAUGHERTY.
 On Tuesday, November 22, 1904, at Louisville, Geo. H. Moore and Miss Jennie Daugherty, both of Lexington, were married. The bride is the sister of Mrs. John G. Roberts, of this city.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
 Dr. J. A. Shirley and wife announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nell, to Mr. James Kinnaird Shropshire, of Lexington, at home, Thursday, December twenty-second, nineteen hundred and four, at three-thirty o'clock p. m. Their bridal trip will be West.

CROUCH-FERGUSON.
 On Wednesday, November 23, 1904, at Lexington, Mr. Joseph Crouch, of Sharpsburg, and Miss Abrella Ferguson, of this county, were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ferguson, of Judy neighborhood, and is an attractive young woman. The groom is a farmer. We extend best wishes.

CLAYTON-DENTON.
 On last Wednesday noon at St. George Hotel, Winchester, Rev. Richard French officiating, Miss Mary Ella Denton, of this city, was married to Mr. Wm. Clayton, of White Sulphur, Ky. Miss Denton was accompanied by her sister, Miss Minnie Denton, Miss Kittie Crouch and her Uncle, Mr. S. G. Denton. Miss Denton is one of the most amiable and attractive women of Mt. Sterling, and Mr. Clayton is to be congratulated that he has won a woman so richly endowed with womanly graces. Mr. Clayton is an upright, highly esteemed gentleman, and a fine business man. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Denton in their selections and wish for them a long life of happiness.

KING-CONROY.
 On last Thursday morning an early wedding was solemnized at the Catholic Church, Rev. L. de Waeganaere officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Agnes King and Mr. Joe Conroy. The floral decorations were beautiful and in perfect taste with the season and the occasion. Mrs. R. Q. Drake played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church and marched down the aisles, forming a most attractive spectacle. The attendants were Misses Ellie Murray and Margaret Carroll, of Lexington; matron of honor, Mrs. M. W. King, of Lexington; best man, R. E. Punch; groomsmen, A. M. King. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, M. W. King. The bridal party left on the morning express. Miss King is a daughter of the late J. C. King and wife and is a very attractive and most estimable woman. Mr. Conroy is ex-Councilman of the city, one of our most enterprising and prosperous business men and in every way worthy the hand and heart of the noble woman of his choice.

RELIGIOUS.

Preaching at Springfield next Sabbath at 11 o'clock by the pastor.

Rev. John B. Meacham will preach at Owingsville next Saturday night at 7 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

Preaching in the Public School building next Sabbath at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. John B. Meacham. Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.

Rev. J. R. Savage preached a fine Thanksgiving sermon at the Methodist Church. After the service there was a short business session of the Associated Charities. The officers of last year were re-elected, except J. W. Taul, deceased. The offering in cash and subscription amounted to about $31.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock the pastor of the Baptist Church will celebrate his first anniversary as pastor. A special sermon will be preached by him, while the choir will render special music suited to the occasion. The cancelled notes representing the "old debt" on the church recently paid will be burned in the presence of the congregation. The ending of his first year's pastorate finds the church out of debt. In round numbers $3,500 has been raised for all purposes during the year. A movement to repair the church building will be put on foot soon and it is confidently expected that it will be successfully consummated within the next six months. All are invited to be present next Sunday.

The music-lovers were given a rare treat by the singing of Miss Clara Hazard, of Jeffersonville Ind., who sang "Abide With Me" at the Christian Church Sunday morning. Miss Hazard has an exceptionally strong and sweet contralto voice and it is seldom we hear such an accomplished singer in our city. Miss Hazard is visiting Miss Mildred Davis.

Overcoat Satisfaction.
 When you buy an overcoat you want one that satisfies you, not somebody else. We're here with a big line of Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoats to sell you what you want; we want you to have it.

Do you like the looks of this Hart Schaffner & Marx Ryton? Long, loose, full-backed, comfortable, a very popular style. The best thing about it is the label—a small thing to look for a big thing to find.

We have lots of other good styles if you want them.

More lines shown by us took premiums at World's Fair at St. Louis than shown by any house in this section. That means much.
