ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely PURE

Why these grapes? Because from the healthful grape comes the chief ingredient of Royal Baking Powder, Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Alum-phosphate powders are made with harsh mineral acids and must be avoided.

SAYS VICTORY IS IN SIGHT

Women on the Battle Line for Their Rights.

The fortieth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association ended at Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21. President Anna H. Shaw said:

"We never have had a more instructive and comprehensive convention than this has been. We will go home with greater enthusiasm and a greater determination to continue the struggle, and if need be, enter upon a militant campaign for our birthright. We are on the battle line. Victory is in sight."

Well Done, Gov. Patterson.

Promptly upon receipt of the news that night riders at Reelfoot Lake had murdered a prominent Tennessean for revenge for interference with what they termed their "rights" in the matter of fishing, Gov. Patterson offered a reward of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties. Should the offer of a $10,000 reward result in convictions the investment of State funds would prove economy to Tennessee. No price is too high to put upon the heads of such men as those who participated in the murder of Capt. Rankin.

The offer of large sums of money in the form of rewards is open to the objection that it might prove a temptation to unscrupulous persons, but the conviction of the innocent is of exceedingly rare occurrence, and the gravity of the situation is such that it is wise to adopt the methods that hold out the greatest promise of results.

It is to be hoped that Gov. Patterson's offer of the reward, and other efforts upon the part of the Tennessee authorities, will bring results in the form of an official execution sufficiently broad in its scope to include all of the night riders who were involved in the affair.—Courier-Journal.

Her Only Hope.

Mrs. Newton B. Thomas, Christiansburg, Ky., says: "I have used your Bourbon Poultry Cure and know that it will cure Turkey Cholera. It is my only hope of raising the birds next year." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

A Texas Letter.

We have received a letter from John B. Salyer from which we take:

Moody, Texas, Oct. 15, '08.
Mr. B. W. Frimble,

Dear Friend:—We are all enjoying good health and fine weather. I am living on a farm 3 miles from Moody, which is a thriving little town of 1800 population. It is a local option town and all good people. I tended a farm this year of corn and cotton, and made fine crops. My corn was as good as can be found anywhere; am through gathering. I made fine cotton too and am half through gathering. This is a fine country in which to make money, but a person can't save any, it takes so much to live on. Every thing is high and nothing is raised but corn and cotton. Wishing you success in all your undertakings, I am as ever,
Yours truly,
John B. Salyer.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me. 13-4t

Congressman Brownlow, of Tennessee, has been presented with a monster petition asking his aid to get the United States Government to appropriate $5,000 toward the erection of a monument to Daniel Boone at Cumberland Gap.

Can They Do It Again?

If the people of the United States—all of them—could look behind the scenes and learn by direct, visual demonstration precisely what is going on, they would not need to be told that the one, last hope of the Republican Managers to save their ticket from overwhelming defeat is Money, Leaps of Money, piled up in what are called the doubtful States the days immediately preceding the day of election.

Intelligent men everywhere know that under the reign of Mark Hanna, beginning in 1896, when McKinley money flowed like water, the single reliance was money; tainted money; money stolen from Trust Funds by their faithless custodians. All men know this. From first to last Mark Hanna handled fabulous sums—millions upon millions—to buy the votes of dishonest men, and thus by collusion and chicanery, to forestall the verdict of the ballot-box.

In 1904, though money was not needed, the corruption went right along. Man-of-Money Hanna was succeeded by Man-of-all-Work Cortelyou. The Department of Commerce had been created for the express purpose of drawing a line on the corporations. Cortelyou was placed at the head of it. When, thence transferred to the Chairmanship of the National Committee, he had only to enter the various offices to say, "Cough it up, you son-of-a-gun, cough it up," and one and all they coughed it up in amounts so enormous that more than a million was left over.

Can any honest, or intelligent, man deny the truth of this? Shall the same foul agencies, the same wicked appliances, the same corrupt managers be permitted to repeat in 1908 the infamous practices of 1896, of 1900 and of 1904? That is the question for the people to most seriously consider.

The refusal to pass a Publicity Act of Congress, the voting down of the Publicity proposal in the National Convention, meant business, too. These men never intended to let go their grip upon the lawless rich. Can they buy it? It is up to the people, the whole people, to say. In the face of such facts how can any upright, patriotic Republican vote for Taft and square his conscience with himself, or his ballot with his God?—Courier-Journal.

Vice presidential candidate John W. Kern was called from Syracuse, N. Y., to Indianapolis on account of the serious illness of his 8-year-old son.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by R. H. White & Co. 13-4t.

A COMMON ERROR

The Same Mistake Is Made by Many Mt. Sterling People.

It's a common error To plaster the aching back, To rub with liniments rheumatic joints, When the trouble comes from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. And are endorsed by Mt. Sterling citizens.

Mrs. Patrick Sheridan, living on South Queen St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "Every member of my family have at some time used Doan's Kidney Pills and has been benefited. My back had become so weak and lame that I could not walk and the kidney secretions were too profuse in action but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly relieved these troubles. I consider them the best kidney remedy I have ever used and am glad to give them my endorsement. Last fall my daughter procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. C. Duerson's drug store for disordered kidneys and was soon cured. They have acted as represented in every case that has come to my attention, and I deem it a pleasure to recommend them to others."

A Curio.

John Jouett, colored, of Locust street, on Monday brought to our office a twig from an apple tree, containing seven leaves and 5 well developed but small apples, all second growth. In the center of the bunch was the largest apple 3 1/2 inches in circumference four smaller surrounded. It is decidedly out of season.

After Moonshine.

Deputy Marshal Jackson and posse destroyed a still and sixty barrels of beer in Powell county; also another and twenty barrels in Menefee.

Are We Secure?

Within less than fifty years we have had a gigantic Sectional War; ten years succeeding of martial law over ten States of the Union; a disputed Presidential election verging upon Civil War; the murder of three Presidents of the United States arousing a kind of a popular frenzy; and at least two insurrectionary movements calling for the armed interposition of the National Government.

We have grown from a huddle of petty sovereignties, held together by a rope of sand, into a World Power to be maintained, if it pursues a policy of expansion, by an awe-inspiring Navy and a standing Army two, or three, million strong, parceled out among the States, but directed and deployed from Washington. The President is Commander-in-Chief of this tremendous armament. Is it a far stretch of fancy to conceive that there is no danger embodied by these conditions; that we are secure against all political malady; against all domestic and economic disturbances; against party spirit grown arrogant through long tenure, and personal ambition exposed to the temptations of opportunity; in short, that we, and our institutions, differing from all that ever went before in human annals, are immune and immortal?—Courier Journal.

Two Others Fail.

Fremont Bennett, Modoc, Ind., says: "I used two other remedies and lost twenty-six out of eighty-five hogs. I then used Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy and it cured my hogs." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

Racing Commission Warns All Horsemen.

The State Racing Commission met at Lexington on Wednesday. Only one resolution was made public and this warns the trainers, jockeys and owners that the licenses will be revoked if they continue to race at Latonia.

Impure blood runs you down—makes you an easy victim for organic diseases. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood—cures the cause—builds you up. 12-4t

S. M. Lykins, of Morgan, has been appointed Deputy Warden of the penitentiary at Frankfort at a salary of $1200, succeeding W. S. Hawkins, who became clerk. He previously served as guard for some years.

Pray For Rain.

On Oct. 16, at the close of the Presbyterian State Synod at Winchester and routine business was interrupted by the adoption of a resolution that the synod engage in immediate and earnest prayer for rain and that the ministers offer similar prayers in their churches for the next two Sundays.

The latter part of this resolution "next two Sundays" caused some serious and amusing thoughts. Does it take two weeks to hear from the Lord? Why such delay? Why not expect answer AT ONCE?

New cottage for rent, 252 W. Main. Miss Sue Evans. 12-4t.

Contract to Combs Lumber Company.

The Prison Commission opened bids for the construction of a chapel, hospital and a big barn at the School of Reform in Fayette county. The lowest bidder was the Combs Lumber Company, of Lexington, and the contract was awarded. The successful bidder proposed to do the work as follows: Chapel, $15,000; hospital, $7,500; barn, $4,000; total, $26,500. The next lowest bidders were the Lexington Lumber Company, $28,500, and Harry M. Schoonmaker, of Lexington, $28,606. Work of constructing them will begin at once.

Tobacco Seed Grading.

The Kentucky Experiment Station has already begun the grading of tobacco seed for those growers, who, realizing the advantage of seed selection, have sent in their supply of seed for that purpose. A machine divides the light and heavy seed and clears all chaff, leaving a selection of the best seed.

Tax Officeholders For Campaign Funds.

At Chicago, Ill., last week National Chairman Mack declared that he was receiving reports from various parts of the South that agents of the Government were traveling through the Southern States and collecting a campaign fund for the Republican party from the Federal officeholders.

Mr. Mack said he understood that the Government agents had been sent out from Washington at the direction of certain Washington Government officials.
