HAS BREAK-DOWN

Mr. Bratton Sutton, who motored to this city several weeks ago from Bradentown, Fla., accompanied by Mr. Harry Hallen, for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sutton, left last week for the return trip and a few miles from Lexington suffered a broken axle. He was compelled to have his machine taken to Lexington for repairs and returned to Mt. Sterling to remain until the car is ready. Mr. Hallen has been confined to the Sutton home here with illness for several days and was unable to make the return trip with Mr. Sutton, who was accompanied as far as Lexington by George Yeaman and Russell French, who went on to Camp Daniel Boone on the Kentucky river for a week's stay. Mr. Sutton will probably leave for Bradentown sometime this week.

DOWN WHERE THE SOUTH BEGINS

Down where the hand clasp's a little stronger,
Down where the smile dwells a little longer—
That's where the South begins.

Down where the skies are a trifle bluer,
Down where the friendship's a little truer,
Down where everything is newer—
That's where the South begins.

Down where a fresher breeze is blowing,
Where there's laughter in every streamlet flowing,
Where there's more of reaping and less of sowing—
That's where the South begins.

Down where the South is in the making,
Where fewer hearts with despair are aching,
Where there's more of giving and less of taking—
That's where the South begins.

Where there's more of singing and less of sighing,
Where there's more of giving and less of buying,
And a man makes friends without half trying—
That's where the South begins.

LIFE'S A GAME

Life's a game, and we are all players in it, to paraphrase Shakespeare. And the best two cards in any hand are illustrated below—

First, the PAY ENVELOPE—Second, the BANK BOOK

Without the pay envelope there can be no bank book. Without the bank book the pay envelope is robbed of its FULL VALUE. The BANK BOOK is the logical, sensible supplement of the PAY ENVELOPE. Do You Hold These Winning Cards?

TEMPTATION

Of all the insidious temptations insidious Contrived by the devil for putting men down,
There is none more elusive, Seductive, abusive Than the snare to a man with his wife out of town.

He feels such delightfulness, Stay-out-all-night-full-ness, Sure-to-get-tight-full-ness.

I own it with pain— A Abachelor rakishness What-will-you-take-ish-ness None can explain.

His wife may be beautiful, Tender and dutiful, 'Tis not that her absence would cause him delight; But the cursed opportunity Boleful immunity Scatters his scruples as day scatters night.
