Thompson who recently suffered a break down from overwork, has gone to a Lexington hospital where he will be under the care of a physician and it is thought that with a few weeks rest he will be completely restored to health. It was reported that he was in an extremely critical condition but his physician has advised us that this report was greatly exaggerated.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The Pinney-Griggs Company entertained a number of ladies Saturday afternoon at the new waiting room recently opened in connection with their garage on Maysville street.

Delightful Reception.

Mrs. Daniel J. Prewitt entertained Friday afternoon with an elaborate reception at her beautiful country home Belle Aire. It was one of the largest and most brilliant social functions ever given in Montgomery county. The lower floor was thrown together and the rooms fairly abloom with spring flowers, yellow and green prevailing. In the reception room and hall opening into the living room with folding doors ferns and yellow snap dragons were used. In the library where the guests were received yellow was used entirely. Mrs. Prewitt was very handsome in an exquisite gown of blue and white striped silk with touches of blue. Receiving with her were Mrs. John McGarvey Prewitt, of Covington; Mrs. Byrd Gwinn, of Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Madison Rhodes Burton, of Carlisle; Mrs. N. B. Young and Mrs. Clifton Prewitt. The guests were met in the hall by Evelyn Prewitt and Elizabeth Strossman who received the cards, Mrs. Lois Thompson, Mrs. H. R. Prewitt and Mrs. Allen G. Prewitt. Jonquils were used here effectively in jardiniere. Assisting in the library were Mrs. George Snyder, Mrs. George Eastin, Mrs. Marcus Prewitt and Mrs. Prewitt Young. The dining room was decorated in yellow and green and was of special beauty in its appointments. The square center table had a large silver vase overflowing with Ann Ward roses and tulle trimmings and four silver candle sticks with yellow shades. The lights in chandeliers and about the house were also shaded in yellow, throwing a soft glow over the attractive scene. The other flowers used were yellow tulips, snap dragons and jonquils. A delightful lunch consisting of old ham, chicken salad, potato chips, beaten biscuit, cheese balls and mint ice was served. Mrs. W. H. Strossman, Mrs. Chas. Derriekson assisted and Miss Martha Coleman pinned favors of sweet peas. The living room was lovely with decorations of pink and white swansonia and pink carnations, and Mrs. George Hon, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. Jack McChord, Mrs. George Tomlinson, Mrs. Caswell Prewitt, Mrs. Mrs. Edward Prewitt and Mrs. Mattie Coleman assisted the hostess here in entertaining. Coffee and mints were served in the upper hall which had decoration of jonquils and ferns, by the following attractive young women: Mrs. J. Miller Hoffman, Misses Lucy Clay Woodford and Emily McCready, assisted by Mrs. Henry C. Prewitt, Miss Anna Caswell Prewitt and Miss Margaret Frost. Mrs. Henry Reid and Prof. Bruce Reynolds, of Lexington, rendered a lovely program during the afternoon and the hours were very charmingly spent by more than two hundred guests who called between two and five o'clock. Those from a distance who attended this enjoyable affair were: Mrs. David Gay, Mrs. Henry M. Jones, Mrs. Stanley Prewitt, Mrs. William Duty, Miss VanMeter, Mrs. Caswell Bedford, Mrs. Henrietta Bedford, Mrs. O. S. Venable, Mrs. Geo. Gay Prewitt, Mrs. James Prewitt, Mrs. John Keyes, Mrs. John Hardwick and guest Mrs. Robt. Reid, of New York, Mrs. Caswell Goff, Mrs. James Goff, Mrs. Leland Bush, Mrs. Floyd Clay, Mrs. Asa Kidd, Mrs. Asa Barrow, Mrs. Chas. Huls, Mrs. A. L. Duckworth, and Mrs. Will Judy, all of Clark county. Mrs. Henry Caywood, Miss Jones and Mrs. Will Gay, of North Middleton, Mrs. James B. Hall, Mrs. Leslie McCormick, Mrs. Laura Williams, Miss Anna Goff and Mrs. Fishback, of Lexington.

TALK WITH HOFFMAN

MINUTE MEN ORGANIZED

Quite a nice crowd gathered at the Court House in this city last Thursday night and organized the "Minute Men of Mt. Sterling." As was explained in our last issue these men are under no obligation to join the regular army but are simply to signify their willingness to take military training under competent men so that in case they are needed and want to go to the front it would not be without some training. Mr. Webster P. Huntington presided at the meeting and made a splendid talk. It is understood that the large Farmers tobacco warehouse will be used for drilling purposes. The following men have enlisted: Barnard, Tinsley; Beeraft, J. R.; Coleman, C. T.; Daniels, J. W.; Drake, R. Q.; Duty, D. D.; Owyer, C. A.; Fizer, C. F.; French, R. M.; Grooms, H.; Hollearn, P. J.; Humphreys, A. J.; Hudson, J.; Hunt, H. G.; Hedden, R. H.; Howell, H. F.; Jackson, H. J.; Killpatrick, C. P.; Lockridge, H. W.; Langston, C.; Mason, C. C.; Marshall, G. D.; McCabe, C. F.; McKenna, P. K.; McQueeney, Michael (Honorary); Oldham, C. K., Jr.; Owings, J.; Peters, J. C.; Raborn, O.; Robinson, J. E.; Reese, C. H.; Sharp, S. C.; Strossman, W. H., Jr.; Stone, R. R.; Sutton, T. P.; Shoemaker, E. M.; Shoemaker, J.; Skidmore, C. R.; Turner, H. B.; Tharp, A. J.; Wood, S. O.; Weckesser, W. P.; Wyatt, B.; Wilkerson, J. W.; Wyatt, F. B.; Young, R.; Yeaman, G. Those in charge of the movement are anxious that at least 50 more men join.

WAREHOUSE STOCK SELLS WELL

Ten shares of stock in the Farmers Tobacco Warehouse were offered at public auction here Monday. The stock sold for from $51.00 to $54.25 per share. The original value of the stock was $50.00 per share.

MAY JOIN ARMY

Dr. G. N. Cox has offered his services to the government as an army physician and is willing to serve in some hospital unit or in the Red Cross. As yet his application has not been acted upon.

BANKS ARE INTERESTED

The National City Bank, of New York, one of the largest financial institutions in the world, is showing a great deal of interest in the food shortage which confronts this country. In their monthly Bulletin they have frequently called the public's attention to the gravity of the situation. In a special letter to their correspondents mailed out Monday they urge all the bankers to secure the co-operation of the general public in having a larger acreage of spring wheat planted, additional potato crops, more garden stuff of all kinds. Picture in your own minds what conditions will be next winter and the effect upon all industry if food supplies are higher and scarcer than they are now. It must be impressed upon everybody that no wage advances or regulation of prices will add one bushel of wheat or potatoes to the supply after the growing season is over. The country is aroused but mere alarm will not accomplish results. There must be organized personal work, headed in every locality by men of force and influence. Every man and woman in this community should do all in their power to have every foot of land that is possible to have plowed and cultivated, to have same done this year.
