

ANSWERS THE MASTER'S CALL

Mrs. Nannie Wilson Prewitt, Wife of Mr. Clifton Prewitt, Sr., Dies Monday.

When God in His infinite wisdom took from those that loved her the life of Mrs. Nannie Wilson Prewitt Monday, He took that which was mortal to clothe it in immortality, in the home not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. A woman of lovely Christian character, the sweetness of her disposition, her trust in the Master and her love and solicitude for her dear ones made everyone that came in contact with her, love her and the remembrance of her kindness, love and charity should be an inheritance of which her children should be proud. Deceased had been dangerously ill for some time and little hope for her recovery had been entertained for several days. Mrs. Prewitt was 71 years of age and had lived practically all her life where she died. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Clifton Prewitt, Sr., and six children, Mrs. W. Lois Thompson, Dr. James, Dan J., and Allen Prewitt, of this county, and Dr. John Prewitt, of Covington, and Caswell Prewitt, of Los Angeles, Cal., besides a wide circle of relatives in Central Kentucky.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at the grave in Machpelah by Rev. Clyde Darsie, of the Christian church, of which she was a member, assisted by Rev. B. W. Trimble.

To the grief stricken family The Advocate tenders sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

BEAUTIFUL RECITAL

On Saturday evening, February 22, at the residence of Mrs. Charles H. Petrey, a beautiful violin recital was given by Miss Martha Coleman, a pupil of Miss Giltner, of Lexington, formerly a pupil of Prof. Reynolds. The program was attractive and varied, representing chiefly modern composers. Miss Coleman's playing is characterized by great beauty of tone, which was especially noteworthy in such numbers as "The Swan," by St. Saens, and "The Reverie," by Debussy; also in the well known Souvenir by Drdla, while the brilliancy of her technique was evidenced especially in her closing number, the "Hungarian Dance," by Haesche.

Miss Giltner is an accomplished pianist as well as a teacher of violin, having studied with the best masters of this country, and also abroad.

The beautiful and spacious home of Mrs. Petrey was admirably adapted to such an occasion. The audience was large and appreciative, and both musically and socially the recital was a brilliant success. Miss Giltner has a very large and interesting class in this city.

Mrs. J. W. Burbridge, the well-known soprano, who was to have participated in the program, was unable to be present owing to the illness of her husband.

The program was arranged as follows:

The Son of Puzsta—Keler Bela—Miss Coleman.

Little Mother of Mine—H. T. Burleigh—Mrs. Burbridge.

(a) The Swan—St. Saens; (b) Oriental—Cui—Miss Coleman.

I Hid My Love—Guy D'Hardelot—Mrs. Burbridge.

(a) Reverie—Debussy; (b) Souvenir—Drdla—Miss Coleman.

Berceuse from Jocelyn—Godard—(with violin obligato)—Mrs. Burbridge.

Hungarian Dance—Haesche—Miss Coleman.

ARISTOCRATIC FAMILIES UNITED

When Miss Luck Clay Woodford Becomes the Bride of Mr. Richard Prewitt Winn.

A wedding of unusual interest, not only in this county, but throughout Central Kentucky, was that of Miss Luck Clay Woodford to Mr. Richard Prewitt Winn, on Thursday morning February 20th, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James S. Bogie, Sr., the Rev. Clyde Darsie of the Christian church officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left for a bridal trip to New York, and upon their return will go to housekeeping in this city. The wedding of this popular couple is of unusual interest owing to the prominence of the two families and the popularity of the two contracting parties. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodford, of this county, and is a young lady possessed with refined and cultured manners which has endeared her to the hearts of all with whom she has come in contact. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Winn and is a splendid young business man, and is admirably equipped in every way to make the girl of his choice an ideal husband. It is the sincere wish of the Advocate that their sojourn down life's pathway may be one continuous day of happiness and that their lives may be blended together to produce all that's worth while in life.

FIRST DIVISION

Regular Army, Division Headquarters arrived in France June 27, 1917. Activities: Somerville sector, ten kilometers southeast of Nancy, October 21 to November 20, 1917; Ansaerville sector, January 15 to April 3, 1918; Cantigny sector, April 25 to July 7 (battle of Cantigny, May 28 to 30); Soissons operation, Marne counter-offensive, July 18 to 24; Sazerais sector, August 4 to 24; St. Michel operation, September 12 and 13; Argonne-Meuse offensive, October 1 to 12; operations again Mouzon, November 5 and 6; operation south and southwest of Sedan, November 7 and 8; march on Coblenz bridgehead, November 17 to December 15, 1918.

Prisoners captured: 165 officers, 6,304 men. Total advance against resistance, 51 kilometers.

Division Insignia: Crimson figure "1" on khaki background. Chosen because the numeral "1" represents the number of the division and many of its subsidiary organizations. Also, as proudly claimed, because it is the "First Division in France; first in sector; first to fire a shot at the Germans; first to attack; first to conduct a raid; first to be raided; first to capture prisoners; first to inflict casualties; first to suffer casualties; first to be cited singly in General Orders; first in the number of Division, Corps and Army Commanders and General Staff officers produced from its personnel.

Wm. M. Elkin, son of Mr. G. W. Elkin, of this city, is a member of this division. Young Elkin has been wounded four times.

LEONARD PAYNE HEARD FROM

Leonard Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Payne, who was on a ship that was sunk several weeks ago has been heard from and he states he was among the first rescued. The description of the sinking of the vessel as described by this young gentleman of the navy is quite interesting and his letter telling of same will appear in our next issue.

GEN. B. H. YOUNG DIES SUNDAY

One of Kentucky's Most Honored Citizens, Answers the Final Summons.

Gen. Bennett H. Young, soldier, attorney, author, and former Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans, is dead. Death came Sunday afternoon at 3:05 o'clock at his home at Louisville. Few of his friends knew that he was seriously ill. Two weeks ago he went to Florida in the hope of improving his health. His death was due to age. "Take me back to Kentucky. The end is near. It's only a matter of days. I want to die back in the old Bluegrass State. I want to cross the river and bivouac there with my gallant comrades who have gone before." This was his last command from his sick bed in Florida. Gen. Young was in his seventy-sixth year, and a native Kentuckian. One of the last survivors of a memorable and heroic generation, Gen. Young was long a conspicuous figure in the business life of Louisville and the courts of the State and Jefferson county. He was an eloquent pleader before the bar, and, twenty years ago, the announcement that Gen. Young was to argue, could fill a court room always. He was known and loved by many of our people who will learn with sorrow of his death.

MUSICALE ARRANGED

The Music Department of the Woman's History Club in connection with Professor Vignetti's French class, will present a number of out-of-town artists in a delightful musical program on Friday evening, Feb. 28th, at 8 o'clock. Every member of the Club is cordially invited to be present and as those who are in charge expect this to be an unusual treat for music lovers, they are especially anxious that all who are interested attend. The lodge rooms in the Masonic Temple have been graciously loaned for the occasion and everything is being done to insure a delightful evening socially for those who are present.

Ladies! Ladies!

Mrs. K. O. Clarke will not have an Opening, but announces that she is now ready to show the ladies the latest importations in Spring and Summer hats. All are cordially invited. (35-2t)

BACK FROM FRANCE

Mr. Tom Robinson, who has been in France for some time with Uncle Sam's Army, is at home for a few days' visit to his parents. Mr. Robinson says they made a record run, coming from a port in France to Camp Taylor at Louisville in exactly 20 days time. He says France is a pretty country but that he wouldn't give one little spot of America for the entire European nation. He saw but little active service, possibly ten days fighting, and is loud in his praise of the grit, gameness and ability of the American officers. He expects to be mustered out of service within a short time.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knox entertained a number of friends at their home on High street last Tuesday evening with a beautifully appointed six o'clock dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Z. Turley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Drake, Misses Georgia B. Pangburn and Edith William and Messrs. R. H. Hedden and Squire Turner.

Aunt Jamima Pancake and Buckwheat at Vanarsdell's.

DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Little Robert Edgar Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mann, of Maysville, died at his home February 24, at 8 o'clock. He was four years and seven months old. His death brings sadness to the hearts of everyone who knew the little fellow. He was the only child and the sunshine of the home.

He was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dillion, of this city. The remains were brought here and burial will be Wednesday in Machpelah cemetery at 10 o'clock.

Dear little hands, we miss them so, All through the day, wherever we go, All through the night how lonely it seems,

With no little hands to wake us out of our dreams.

We miss them all through the weary hours,

We miss them as others do the sunshine and flowers;

Daytime or night time wherever we go,

Dear little hands, we miss them so.

Darling Robert, he has left us, Left us, yes, for ever more.

But we hope to meet Baby Robert. On the bright and sunny shore.

GREAT SHOW COMING

Manager Wm. B. Small has booked on of the greatest film shows ever produced, in "The Great Victory," Wilson or the Kaiser. It will be shown Thursday night at the Tabb Theatre and everyone should take advantage of the opportunity to witness this production for if you miss it you will be sorry.

WITH THE MOVERS

Mr. W. T. Tyler has moved to the property he recently purchased from Mr. Clay Miller on Sycamore street. Mr. Miller and family have moved to their bungalow just completed on the corner of Main and Sycamore streets.

Success comes from being of service to mankind. There is neither honor or wealth excepting through one thing—Service; and it must be Cheerful Service at that.

MARKET WILL SOON BE OVER

Sales at the Loose Leaf Houses Will Be Held as Long as Any Tobacco Is Left.

While practically all of the tobacco in this section has been sold the houses will remain open and will conduct sales as long as any remains unsold and those who have any tobacco in their barns should make special efforts to get same to the warehouses as quickly as possible. While the competition for the tobacco in this section has been especially keen this year and thousands of pounds have been sent to Lexington, Paris and Carlisle, still the showing made by our three houses is very satisfactory and we understand an advertising campaign will be started in time next year by the local houses to convince the grower of the wisdom of selling over the floors in this city. Below will be found the amount sold and the averages obtain by the three houses up to date:

FARMERS—3,532,815 pounds for $1,329,380.34, an average of $37.63.

WHITEHALL—2,564,120 pounds for $893,189.14, an average of $34.83.

ROBERTSON—1,030,090 pounds for $328,853.85, an average of $31.92.

BOY INJURED

Master Tom Hoffman was struck by an automobile last Saturday while riding a horse near the fair grounds. The boy was knocked unconscious and a large place cut in his leg near the knee. After knocking the boy from the horse, the driver of the machine did not stop but ran away leaving him lying in the street. While not attempting to place the blame for the accident, it was a cowardly and inhuman act to run away and leave the boy. He will be in bed for a couple of weeks, and it will be several weeks before he can use his leg.
