

The Weekly Roundabout.

GEORGE A. LEWIS, Publisher.

DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

VOLUME V.

FRANKFORT, KY., AUGUST 19, 1882.

NUMBER 45

FARM FOR SALE.

A farm of 130 acres of good land, well improved, located on the Owenton turnpike seven miles from Frankfort, is offered for sale at a bargain. Fifteen or twenty acres of it is a tobacco land. For further information apply to

W. T. GAINES

aug. 12-1m. Frankfort, Ky.

W. T. RUNYAN,

DEALER IN

Staple and Fancy

DRY GOODS,

Notions, &c.,

ST. CLAIR STREET,

Frankfort, Ky.

SOLID SILVER HUNTING CASE
FULLY WARRANTED, $9.25.

Delivered by express to any address
on receipt of price.

SILVER THIMBLES,
36 Cents in Postage Stamps.

SOLID SILVER TEASPOONS
$4 50 PER SET,

Warranted sterling silver, delivered to any address on receipt of price.

OTIS W. SNYDER,
Manufacturing Jeweler,
LEXINGTON, KY.

Mr. Sigmund Luscher has commenced manufacturing ice for sale with his machine at the Brewery.

Wagons, buggies, swings, and other nice toys at the 5 to 99 cent store.

Mr. Stephen Black, of this county, shipped on Monday, to Mr. W. T. Mason, of Rockport, Indiana, four fine young Cotswold bucks, one of which weighed 225 pounds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Macklin, while walking in the yard of her residence, near Woodlake, Monday, slipped and fell to the ground, breaking her right arm between the wrist and elbow.

Mr. J. T. Pendleton, grocer of Belle point, and Mr. Logan McKee, dry goods merchant, of this city, have both made assignments for the benefit of their creditors. Mr. John B. Lindsey is the assignee of the former and Hon. Ira Julian of the latter.

Mrs. Ann E. Stedman, wife of Mr. A. T. Stedman, died Sunday night at the family residence at the Forks of Elkhorn, after an illness of one year's duration. The funeral took place Tuesday morning, the remains being interred in the Cemetery at this place.

As evidence of the activity of business in our city and its encouraging increase may be cited that last week Messrs. W. B. Belknap & Co. alone received (besides a full quota of regular assorted hardware) five car-loads Burden's horseshoes, two car-loads barbed fence wire, two car-loads steel, one car-load manilla and seal rope and three car-loads of wagon woodwork. Over fifty tons of iron were stored in one day.

This large and pioneer house in the iron and hardware trade is represented in Kentucky by M. P. Gray, formerly of Frankfort.

Tin-ware, willow-ware wooden-ware and everything else at the 5 to 99 cent store.

Switzer.

Mr. B. D. Hend, of Monterey, spent several day with us last week.

Misses Laura and Katie Hockersmith, are visiting Miss Laura Jones.

The young ladies who were to visit some of the upper counties were disappointed, owing to the illness of their grandmother.

Misses Bettie and Sallie Macklin left last Wednesday morning for Fredonia, N. Y., where they will remain perhaps all the summer.

Mr. Wm. Prvor, of Bourbon, paid us a visit last week, but to the sorrow of some of the young ladies, his stay was only a brief one.

The young ladies of this neighborhood have organized a social visiting association. They meet with some one of the members every Friday. A party of young men were invited to dine with them last Friday and accepted the invitation, and of course had a jolly good time.

ONCE A WEEK.

The grandest political gathering since the famous contest between Breckinridge and Lecher is expected at Peak's Mill on the 8th day of September next, when the Hon. Wm. C. Owens and J. C. S. Blackburn will debate the question who ought the people to send to Congress from this district. Large delegations from the surrounding counties of Owen, Scott and Woodford will be in attendance. An abundance of burgoo and roast meats will be provided by Messrs. Squire Carr, Milton Wigginton, Innis and Cyrus Calvert, to feed a multitude. A good band of music and a dancing floor will be provided for the young folks. Good order will be maintained and a splendid time guaranteed to all who may attend. Everybody is invited.

Edgewood.

Some five or six years ago Col. John L. Scott built his country residence on the Versailles pike, about half a mile east of Frankfort, on a lot of 25 or 30 acres of ground fronting nearly 1,000 feet on the pike, and planted the entire front in forest and other trees, and called the place Edgewood, because it was at the edge of the city as well as at the edge of the woods. The tendency to improve on this road has been visible for some years. The remainder of the John O'Connell lot, and we learn will soon build on it. There are now three new houses going up immediately opposite the residence of Col. Scott and several others a little further out the pike. In fact at the present rate it will be but a few years until there will be a continuous town on this road from the city limits to the second toll-gate, a distance of over two miles. Small farms and building lots seem to be in demand to an extent heretofore unknown, and those who desire to build residences on this road would do well to secure desirable locations while they are to be had at reasonable prices. This road is the drive to Midway, Versailles, Georgetown and Lexington, and it is safe to say that more buggies, carriages and wagons pass over it than over any other road leading to Frankfort.

Edgewood bids fair at no distant day to be one of the nicest drives and at the same time one of the most interesting little suburban towns surrounding the Capital City. Already we hear a sidewalk talked of out past the Institute as far as General Dudley's avenue gate.

Mrs. Rachael Martin, of Troy, New York, writes: "have been a widow eighteen years. From overwork and the cares of a large family, I have for many years been ailing from rheumatic pains and severe indigestion. Oils and liniments only eased my pain. I took many remedies internally, hoping to find permanent relief. My next door neighbor, Mrs. Perry, told me to try Brown's Iron Bitters, and that it had cured her of dyspepsia, irregularities, etc. I did so, and have not suffered an ache or pain since using the first bottle, nor has indigestion troubled me."

Capital Art Gallery.

H. C. MATHERN,

[Successor to J. C. ELROD.]

Removed to No 439 Main Street, over Crutcher & Starks' "WHITE HALL" Clothing House, FRANKFORT, KY.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS ARE OFFERED in the way of fine pictures of all styles and descriptions. Why will the people of Frankfort send to the city for work when they can be accommodated at home? Oct. 25-1f.

W. S. DEHONEY

DEALER IN SAPLE AND FANCY

DRY GOODS,

NOTIONS, CROCKERY & GLASSWARE.

I cordially invite you to call and examine my New and Fresh Stock of Goods.

MAIN STREET, FRANKFORT KY, Sep 3-1f.

V. BERBERICH,

Merchant Tailor,

ST. CLAIR STREET.

MAIN AND BROADWAY.

Keeps constantly on hand cloths, doeskins, and the newest styles of fancy French cassimeres. He is prepared to make them up on short notice, and gives perfect fitting garments, stylish and comfortable. July 1-3m

The Best Soda Water

In the City is at

Joe LeCompte's
DRUG STORE.

TRY ALABASTINE!

It is the best thing in use for ceilings and walls. For sale at

JOE LeCOMPTE'S

SOUTH SIDE DRUG STORE. mar 4-1f.

FRANKFORT

MACHINE WORKS,

JONES BROS., Proprietors.

Manufacturers of all kinds of New Work for

Flour Mills, Distilleries, Saw Mills,
STEAM GAUGES,

BRASS FITTINGS OF ALL KINDS, &c.

Contracts for New Work in any part of the State.

One door west of corner Ann and Broadway streets, North Side, Frankfort, Ky. April 16-1f

Job Work Neatly Executed at this Office.