

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Lebanon Ridge.

Wheat harvest is over. We are happy to say that our friend Samuel Cain is able to walk around again.

Dick Beckley, of Shelby, was on the Ridge last Sunday, the guest of Eliza Rodgers.

Miss Laura Dodson is visiting friends and relatives on Benson this week, but there is hopes of her returning soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee, of Shelby county, visited the Ridge last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Snook.

Walk up, boys. I think Mr. D. will invite you in the parlor, as he has got it repaired and his girl is not at home.

Mr. John W. Duncan is a candidate for Jailor of Shelby county, subject to any regular action of the Democratic party.

Johnie Coleman and wife and Mrs. Mollie Brewer, all of Campbellsburg, were visiting friends and relatives on the Ridge last week.

Messrs. Thomas Tracy and William Pierce were visiting the family of Isham Pierce one day last week. They are such nice young men and we hope they will come again.

School is out. The subscription school taught by Miss Lillie M. Scroggins was out the 5th of July, at the Eden School House. There was a large crowd there, as everybody liked Miss Lillie so much. She can get another school there if she wants it.

FRIEND

Flat Creek.

Harvesting is about over.

The picnic at Bald Knob last Saturday was largely attended.

Messrs. Joe Snook and Curtis Rodgers visited friends on Clear Creek last week.

Ben. Williams, of Frankfort, attended the picnic at Bald Knob last Saturday.

Mr. A. J. Greenwell, of Cropper's Depot, visited friends in this section last Friday.

Noel Lee returned home last week from a visit to friends and relatives at Shelbyville.

Dr. Alex. Bailey and Mr. Newton Harrod visited friends at Cropper's Depot last Saturday.

John Coleman and wife and Mrs. Mollie Brewer, of Campbellsburg, are visiting friends and acquaintances in this neighborhood.

Died.—Saturday, June 24th, Lula Pulliam, wife of Wm. Pulliam, jr., of spinal disease. While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, she passed to silence and pathetic dust. Her remains were interred at Lebanon Church.

JUMBO.

Stivers' Mill.

It is reported that we are soon to have another wedding.

The camp meeting at Sweet Home still continues, and is attended by very large crowds every day in the week as well as on Sunday.

Professor Sampson, pastor of the Indian Fork Baptist Church, delivered a splendid sermon at Lebanon last Saturday evening, at 4 o'clock.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Alfred Rodgers, on the 15th of June, Mr. F. P. Stivers and Mrs. Bettie Harrod, by Rev. J. A. Peters.

KENO.

Notice to Teachers.

The Attorney General has rendered the following opinion, to-wit: That under the new school law all teachers holding county certificates will have to be re-examined and get new certificates in order that they may be legally qualified to teach, and that no teacher is deemed qualified according to law until he or she has passed such examination. The School Board will meet at my office at 10 o'clock, a. m., on the 2d, 3d and 4th Saturdays in July to examine all applicants who may apply. This June 26th, 1884. JOHN S. HARROD, Com.

Never Give Up.

If you are suffering with low and depressed spirits, loss of appetite, general debility, disordered blood, weak constitution, headache, or any disease of a bilious nature, by all means procure a bottle of Electric Bitters. You will be surprised to see the rapid improvement that will follow; you will be inspired with new life; strength and activity will return; pain and misery will cease, and henceforth you will hold in the praise of Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Jos. LeCompte.
