

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, JULY 19, 1884.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

TO TRAVELERS.

Commencing Tuesday, January 1, the following time table will be in effect on the L. & N. R. R. for this point.

Table with columns for Train No., Direction (South/North), Leave/Lookout, and Arrive/Reach. Includes details for various train numbers and routes.

The new Baptist Church at Versailles will be dedicated to-morrow.

WATCHES.—A nice selection of fine gold and silver watches at Philip Selbert's, the jeweler, St. Clair street.

Don't forget there will be another excursion up the river to-night on the Hornet.

The post-offices of Wigginton and Joshua, in this county, have been discontinued.

Call at Holmes & Halloran's and have your prescriptions filled by experienced druggists, corner Main and St. Clair.

Mr. Harry T. Stephens was elected driver of the Steam Fire Engine, by the City Council Tuesday night, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John Netherton.

We have received the annual catalogue of the Anderson, Franklin and Salvisa Agricultural Association. The Fair will be held at Lawrenceburg August 19th, 20th, 21st and 22d.

Mrs. C. V. Craig, of Louisville, a distinguished temperance worker in that city, will address the convicts in the Penitentiary to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

It is rumored that one of the younger members of the legal fraternity in this city will claim a fair daughter of one of the blue-grass counties as his bride in the early fall.

This city is just now infested with base ball clubs. There are some ten or a dozen in the city, great and small white and colored, and hardly a day passes that a match game does not take place.

A Sieman burner of 250 candle power has been on exhibition at the Buhr Hotel the past week, and the light given by it is very soft and steady, while the amount of gas consumed was remarkably small.

Esoteric Lodge, No. 532, A. Y. M., will meet in regular communication on Wednesday evening, July 23d. There will be work in the M. M. degree. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to attend.

While playing in the State House yard Tuesday a little son of Mr. R. Glogower was attacked and severely bitten by a dog belonging to a man by the name of Irvin. A warrant was issued Wednesday for the arrest of the owner of the brute.

Spring Hill Shooting Club score for match shot on July 11, at 15 double birds:

- List of names and scores: L. B. Marshall, 23; Richard Morris, 19; Geo. Darsle, 18; E. E. Hume, 23; F. B. Staines, 23; Z. T. Thomason, 28; S. R. Smith, 6; G. L. Payne, 12; R. P. Pepper, Jr., 9; C. C. Furr, 17; N. J. Moore, 13.

We have received a beautiful picture of the Southern Exposition, which opens at Louisville, Ky., August 16th, and continues until October 25th. The view is of the main building, which is one of the largest Exposition buildings ever erected. It covers thirteen acres of ground, and will be lighted throughout by five thousand electric lights.

There was a called meeting of Frankfort Council, No. 5, at Masonic Hall last night, at which the degrees of Royal and Select Master were conferred upon six Companions. Past Grand High Priest Wm. Ryan, of Louisville, was present and presided.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1 Second hand piano cheap. Terms easy. For further information apply at this office or to J. H. Culter.

"Cinderella" at the Tivoli.

The largest audience of the season gathered at the Tivoli last night to hear the burlesque opera of "Cinderella, or the Little Glass Slipper," which shows that the people of Louisville are learning to appreciate the Tivoli as a summer night resort. There was a noticeable increase in the number of ladies present, and more will be present when it is known what a respectable and orderly crowd attend the place. The music was good, and all the girls who took part in the performance were pretty.

Mr. Chas. Deforest, as Chlorinda, was specially good. He assumed the part of a woman with ease and grace, and was very loudly applauded.

Miss Rosa Mack took the part of Cinderella. She is a small brunette, with a pretty face and a voice of great sweetness. She was the favorite of the evening, and was recalled several times during the performance.

Miss Daisy Stanwood, as the Fairy Godmother, did some very good acting, and she, together with her sister, sang two duets, which caused loud applause from the audience. The play is the best one that has yet appeared at the Tivoli and Mr. Whallen will be untiring in his endeavors to secure only the very best shows, so that it may become an attractive place for the ladies. The play will be continued during the week. A matinee will be given Sunday afternoon.—Louisville Times.

The above company will appear at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings next, July 21st and 22d.

Belle Point.

There are four vacant houses over here that could be rented cheap.

Mr. Jas. D. Moore, our next Jailer, has in a fine crop of tobacco.

Rev. W. H. Hampton and family are visiting his mother on Wilson street.

Mr. Robt L. Grinstead visited friends in Woodford county this week.

Mr. A. H. Crutcher, of Louisville, is visiting his parents on Front street.

Messrs. Jas. Fisher and J. W. Walker have gone to Lock No. 5 to begin work.

Mrs. Capt. Pence visited her father, Mr. Almes Polsgrove, on Flat Creek, this week.

The Champton Saw-mill caught fire Thursday afternoon, but was extinguished with but slight loss.

Miss Nannie Stivers returned Wednesday from a week's visit to relatives in Henry and Shelby counties.

The committee appointed to select a site for the Chapel and school-house, selected one near the Old Blair House, on Mr. J. M. Crutcher's ground.

On Saturday the 12th the "Cow Boys" of this place defeated the Graefenburg Base Ball Club on the Lake Park grounds 9 to 0. The Cow Boys will play in Lexington Monday.

Mr. F. M. Conway, President of the F. & F. C. Turnpike Road Company, has completed the new toll house, and Mr. Geo. Shuckelford has moved into it. The old house is offered for sale.

Switzer.

We are beginning to need rain.

Hay and oat harvest is on the boom.

Mr. Thomas Hunter spent several days in this neighborhood last week.

The whistle of the steam thrasher can be heard at all points of the compass.

Miss Minnie Stafford, of Peak's Mill, and Miss Mary Dawson and Mrs. Belle Dawson, of Owenton, are visiting at Dr. Dawson's this week.

The Fourth was celebrated here with a game of base ball between the Frankfort Red Stars and our home club, the latter coming out winners by a score of five to one.

The unwelcome messenger death has again visited our neighborhood and claimed for its victim Miss Katie Carter, a young lady of about twenty summers.

A revival of religion among the Christian brethren is in progress at Carter school-house. Great interest is being manifested, but up to this time only two have come out on the Lord's side.

Miss Annie Thomason, of New Castle, will teach the public school at Carter school-house this term. Miss Annie is well qualified to teach and will doubtless give general satisfaction to all the patrons of the school.
