There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera, when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used with great success. For sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist. 1m Matrimonial.

Mr. Frank Bromley, of Maysville, brother of Mrs. John W. Bohannon, of this city, married Miss Jennie Bridges, in Maysville, Thursday.

John Green and Maggie Simms, colored, of the Forks of Elkhorn, and Clay Kidd and Josie Evans, colored, of Winchester, were granted license to marry, the first on Monday and the last Saturday.

Mr. John W. Moore and Miss Lula Rosell were married at the Antioch Church Wednesday night, Rev. L. P. Hulet officiating. The groom is a son of Mr. Asbury Moore, of Shelby county, and the bride a daughter of Mr. James Rosell on the Flat Creek turnpike, about two miles from the city.

As announced last week the marriage of Mr. Luke T. Taff, of White Sulphur, Scott county, and Miss Annie Mahoney, of this county, took place at the Catholic Church in this city Wednesday morning. Rev. Father Taff, of Covington, a brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. Father McGinley, of White Sulphur, officiated. The attendants were Miss Lizzie Downey and Mr. J. Taff, brother of the groom.

HUDSON-LOUNSBURY.

The following invitation received in this city Monday explains itself:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hugh Lounsbury request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Louise,

to
Mr. William Porter Hudson, jr.,
Tuesday evening, Oct. the eleventh,
at eight o'clock,
First Presbyterian Church,
Stamford, Connecticut.

Besides the card to present at the church door, the following card was also inclosed in the envelope.

At Home
after November the fifteenth, Frankfort, Kentucky.

The groom is too well-known here to require further mention but as a modest tribute of praise to his sterling qualities, it may be said that he is one of the most popular and successful young business men in the city and is deserving of the prize he has captured.

The bride is the youngest of the Misses Lounsbury who have visited Miss Mary Ely and is a sweet and most lovable young lady whose beauty and bewitching graces won her numerous admirers when she was here.

Miss May Lounsbury, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor and Mr. Dudley Watson, formerly of this city but now of Jersey City, will be the groom's best man. The rest of the attendant have been selected as follows:

Misses Alice Lounsbury, sister of the bride, Edith Vail, of New York City; Lily Burrell, Catharine Queen Cabot, of Stamford; Florence Francis, of New York City and Minnie Bohon, cousin of the groom, of Harrodsburg; Messrs. Loring Hall, of Boston; Charles Mills, of Denver, Col.; Frank Holmes, Scott McClain, Lewis Curtis and Dr. McGill, of Stamford. Rev. Dr. Vail, the pastor of the Church, will officiate on the occasion. After the ceremony the happy couple will go to New York City to remain there for a week or more and then return to Stamford before they come westward to their future home in this city. Mr. Hudson will take his departure for Stamford next Tuesday.

TEACH $3000 A YEAR

YOU LEARN

Have you written me yet? If you haven't, wisdom and intelligent ambition suggest write to-day. I promise you my special, personal instruction. I undertake to teach any fairly intelligent person of either sex, who has read and writes, and who, after instruction, will work industriously, how to earn Three Thousand Dollars a year in their own business, wherever they live. I will also furnish employment, at which you can earn that amount. I charge nothing and receive nothing unless you are successful, as above. It is difficult to learn, or that requires much time. I desire but one person from each district or county. I have already taught and provided with employment a large number who are making over Three Thousand Dollars a Year, each. All is new, solid, sure. Full particulars free. After you know all, if you decide to go so far, why, no harm is done. Address: C. C. ALLEN, Box 100, Augusta, Maine. Dec. 5-17.
