A petition was received from Elijah Mason, asking the remission of a fine against him in the city court. Referred to the work-house committee.

Mr. B. C. Milam tendered his resignation as Chairman of the board of councilmen, which was accepted.

Mr. Geo. A. Lewis was then elected to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Milam.

Mr. Milam then resigned as a member of the board of councilmen, and his resignation was accepted.

Mr. J. M. Todd was then elected to the above vacancy, created by the resignation of B. C. Milam.

Mr. Hendrick moved that when the council adjourned it be to Thursday night at 7:00 o'clock. Adopted.

Mr. J. E. Miles, by permission of the council, made a few remarks on parting from his old friends, saying that some of the pleasantest moments of his life had been spent while in their company at the meetings, and that they separated in an official capacity with his heart full of love for all of them.

Mr. Milam also thanked the council for their uniform courtesy to him as their presiding officer.

The council then adjourned until Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

Wm. H. Wheeler.

A prominent contractor and builder, of Adams, N. Y., was a great smoker for years. He liked his cigar but did not like the serious throat trouble that began to come upon him in the shape of a bunch or growth. As he expressed it he was afraid he was going to have a Grant throat. At this stage he began using Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it directly to the bunch inside his throat several times each day. A few weeks of this treatment entirely cured the bad throat and Mr. Wheeler states that it worked a most wonderful cure in his case and that he regards Dr. Hale's Household Ointment as the greatest medicine of the 19th century. It cures all inflammation, 25c. and 50c. boxes at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

Near Falling on His Face.

Mr. Walter Franklin was standing in the court-house yard Monday morning talking to his son Walter, when he was attacked with vertigo, and had his son not caught him in his arms would have fallen upon his face on the brick pavement of the yard. He was unconscious for some time but was finally brought around and taken to his home on Steele street, where he fully recovered and was all right again in a few hours.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. McKee Hardie.

In Memoriam.

BACON—At her home, February 3, 1893, Sister Sarah Bacon, aged seventy-eight years.

She was immersed into the church of Christ by Rev. Carroll Kendrick forty-three years ago, and lived a faithful Christian life ever since. She had been a constant reader of the Leader since its beginning. The Lord had prospered her with much of this world's goods, in which she spent much in the cause of Christ. She leaves a brother and sister (L. M. Bacon and Mary Bacon), both old and feeble; but they mourn not the departure of their beloved sister as those who have no hope. They were formerly of Frankfort, Ky.

Feb. 10. MOLLIE DANIEL.

BACON—On Monday, the 26th of this month, I was called to Rogers, Ark., to conduct the funeral services of Bro. L. M. Bacon. He and his two sisters and nephew came to Arkansas less than a year ago. They had been here but a little while when Sister Sarah Bacon died, and now the brother, which leaves the other aged sister and the nephew alone. No words of praise can add to the high esteem with which all who know them regard them. They are especially known to the Leader by many kind deeds of a substantial nature. Bro. Bacon was seventy-six years of age; had been a consistent Christian during the years he was a member of the church. May the comforting promises of God's word strengthen the lonely sister, and may the church have many more who will so live that they can die such a death, with the same assurance of final happiness that Bro. Bacon had. JOHN T. HINDS.

Fayetteville, Ark.

The above, which was copied from the Christian Leader of Cincinnati, of March 21st and Oct. 17th last of the deaths at Rogers, Ark., of two former well-known and most highly respected citizens of Frankfort, will probably convey to their friends among our older population the first intelligence of their respective deaths. The intelligence will be received with sad regret by all who enjoyed the friendship or acquaintance of either Miss Sarah or her brother, Mr. L. M. Bacon, during their long residence in this city, of which both were natives. Their father, Mr. Langston Bacon, Sr., was for many years a prominent merchant and valuable and highly esteemed citizen of Frankfort. The Bacons, through their father and mother, were related to a number of the earlier and influential families of Frankfort and Franklin county, in both of which a portion of their descendants still reside and are numbered among our most respected citizens. After the retirement of their father from business, Mr. L. M. Bacon and his older brother, Giles S. Bacon, engaged in the dry goods business in this city, the firm soon conducting one of the largest, most fashionable and successful mercantile establishments in the city. By strict attention to business, sound judgment, uniform politeness and unswerving integrity, the two brothers rapidly acquired handsome estates, which enabled them to retire from active business several years before their removal with the other members of the family to Missouri in the early 50's. The elder brother, Giles S., died near Booneville,

Mo., before the late war. His remains, as also those of one or two other members of the family at later dates, were brought to Frankfort and interred in the Bacon lot in our beautiful cemetery. Until within the last year Mr. L. M. Bacon, with several of his sisters, to whose comfort, interests and welfare he most unselfishly consecrated the greater part of his long life, continued to reside at different points in Missouri. It is not known exactly when he and his two sisters, Misses Sarah and Mary, removed to Arkansas, or what caused their last change of residence. But it is supposed that the hope of bettering the health of all three, which had become greatly impaired, was the impelling motive. Be this as it may, the tender sympathies of their old Kentucky friends will go warmly out to the surviving sister, Miss Mary Bacon, in her lonely grief, in a land of comparative strangers, over the loss of her loved ones, than whom no purer Christian woman or better and more upright man ever lived. Speaking more especially of Langston M. Bacon the writer can truthfully say, from an intimate friendship of nearly half a century, that in all his wide acquaintance with men he has never known a more thoroughly high principled and honorable man or a more unselfish and generous friend. Peace to the ashes and gentle tears to the memory of both brother and sister. L. E. H.

Gone Into Office.

Hon. Henry George, of Mayfield, the newly elected Warden of the Kentucky penitentiary, arrived here on Wednesday, took the oath of office and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

You can escape just about one half the ills that flesh is heir to, by being ready for them. When you feel dull, languid, "out of sorts" generally—then you may know that some of them are coming. Don't let them get any further. Brace the system up with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That prevents as well as cures. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, improves digestion, and restores health and vigor.

For all diseases caused by a disordered liver or impure blood—Dyspepsia, Biliaryness, the most stubborn Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back. It's not only the best, but it's the cheapest blood-purifier sold, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar. With this, you pay only for the good you get.

Coming at Last.

A shipment of iron for the new St. Clair street bridge was made by the King Bridge Company from Cleveland, Ohio, several days ago and is expected to arrive here any day. Three of the company's workmen are in the city awaiting its arrival and it begins to look like the bridge which, according to the contract, was to have been completed on Wednesday, will be erected after a while.

Admitted the Facts.

Newspaper editors have to be very careful in opening their columns for statements. But aware that the Dr. Miles Medical Co. are responsible, we make room for the following testimonial from E. McDougall, Auburn, Ind., who for two years noticed a stoppage or skipping of the pulse, his left side got so tender he could not lie on it, his heart fluttered, he was alarmed, went to different doctors, found no relief, but one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure cured him. The elegant book, "New and Startling Facts," free at J. W. Gayle's. It tells all about heart and nervous diseases and many wonderful cures. 3
