CUT BY A CONVICT.

Mr. Anthony Noecker Dangerously Wounded by a Negro.

Saturday morning Frank Chambers, a negro convict employed in the chair factory at the penitentiary, stopped work and went and sat down in a chair. Mr. Anthony Noecker, the foreman in charge of that portion of the shop passed along, took hold of the chair and shook it, ordering the negro to go back to his work, when Chambers jumped to his feet and threw a hammer at the foreman, which that gentleman dodged and catching up a chair leg started at the negro. Chambers drew a knife which he had concealed about his person and closed in on Noecker, cutting him nine times, inflicting several dangerous wounds. The negro was at once locked up in his cell and Mr. Noecker's injuries were dressed by Dr. W. H. Dade, the prison physician, and he was taken to his home on Holmes street where he has since been in a critical condition, but it is hoped will recover.

Chambers was sent from Marion county last February to serve a ten years' sentence for burglary.

Resolutions Adopted by the Franklin County Teachers' Association.

1st. Resolved, That we, the teachers of Franklin county, pronounce this Institute a decided success and tender a vote of thanks to Prof. John Burke for his efficient work as instructor.

2d. That we highly appreciate the visit of Prof. Peterman, Editor of the Southern School, and feel greatly benefitted by his instruction and encouragement, and recognize in him an able worker in the cause of education.

3d. That we extend thanks to Profs. Rhoads and Robbins, Cols. Scott and Ford, Dr. James and others for valuable service rendered during the session of our Institute.

4th. That the work of our Superintendent, Miss Lucy Pattie, as President of our Institute was carried through with the highest degree of success.

5th. That we heartily endorse the Teachers' Reading Circle and pledge ourselves to support it.

6th. That we were much pleased with the recitations of Miss Spaight, Elocutionist of Prof. Baumes' School, delivered in the court-house during our exercises Thursday night.

7th. That we extend a vote of thanks to the city papers for the interest they have manifested in our work.

8th. That we tender our most sincere thanks to our worthy Secretaries, Misses Daniels and McGruder.

9th. That this Institute recognizes with pleasure the advance made in educational interests of the State in the last three years, and that we attribute this great advance to the earnest and intelligent efforts of the State Superintendent, Hon. Ed. Porter Thompson, whom we recognize as a true friend of education and a gentleman eminently qualified for the position he holds.

10th. That we request the publication of these resolutions in the Southern School and local papers of this city.

CHAS. N. CURRY,
MISS ANNIE YARBROUGH,

Committee.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side Druggist.

To the Voters of Franklin County.

FRANKFORT, KY., Aug. 1894.

Yielding to the flattering and earnest solicitation of partial friends and representative citizens of all political faiths, I have, contrary to my purpose to never again stand for office, determined to make the race for County Judge at the November election, 1894. This is the most important office in the county government.

In the hands of the County Judge are placed the liberties of the citizens in criminal trials before examining court, as also the moneyed interests of a large class of debtors and creditors, litigating matters of account in the quarterly court, besides the settlement and oversight of the estates of widows and orphans.

The taxing interests of the citizens is in the hands of the County Judge and the Magistrates.

So it will be seen that your County Judge wields a large influence in county affairs. No more taxes should be laid than are absolutely necessary to meet the bonded indebtedness at its maturity and the annual accruing interest thereon, together with the necessary amount to conduct the county government upon economic, honest business principles. A part of the bonded debt should be met by the next generation, as they are to be equally benefited by it.

It is local taxation and the distribution of the funds derived therefrom that comes home directly to the county and city taxpayer, for it must be met and is felt in proportion to the ability to meet it. Therefore, it is the right of the citizen to demand of his county court the lowest per cent. of tax each year consistent with an economic, honest and impartial government, and to have this tax promptly collected, and honestly and fairly applied to the good of the entire county.

The good people of my native city and county have honored me time and again by electing me to different and important offices. My election for four successive terms to the office which I am soon to voluntarily surrender, while evidencing the partiality and most generous favor of my personal as well as political following, is an earnest of my faithful, impartial and successful discharge of duty in the past, and must be my guarantee for the future.

I have in no sense sought this office, and if I am elected to it I must be elected by the uncorrupted vote of the people, as I will not bring to bear any corrupting influences to obtain it. At the proper time I will visit the precincts of the county.

Respectfully,
W. H. SNEED

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passed but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain or burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.
