NO. 12

THE GENERAL LAND LAWS.

The annual report of Gov. John G. Brady, of Alaska, to the Secretary of the Interior, urges Congressional legislation on the extension of the general laws to Alaska, giving the natives the same legal status as the whites and the representation of Alaska by a delegate in Congress. The report says that at Cape Nome "everything and everybody is pell mell; there are several claimants for each town lot, beach claim and creek claim, fully 25,000 people waiting for the action of the court there."

Despite recent legislation of Congress creating additional courts and a new code of laws, the whole southern coast from Unalaska to Yakutat is without protection. Within this area the population is very considerable, and property interests will amount to millions of dollars. Another court is urged, to be established either at Valdez or Kodiak.

The Indian natives of Alaska are chafing under their present status and aspire to citizenship. The governor says there should be equal rights and opportunities for all in the territory.

HOW TO CURE CROUP.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

SERIOUSLY HURT.

We regret to learn that Mr. Jere Spaulding, who lives on the South Side, was so unfortunate as to have the gate to the Hermitage distillery lot, on Third street, strike him as he passed out of the grounds, on Sunday, and throwing him down broke his leg in the thigh joint. It seems that Mr. Spaulding was passing through the gate when a heavy gust of wind caught it, forcing it back against him with the result above given.

Mr. Spaulding was serving as Sunday watchman at the distillery at the time of the accident.

He was a brave and gallant Confederate soldier, a member of the Orphan Brigade, and his many friends will hear of his accident with great regret.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

"Digests what you eat."

A North Missouri editor is responsible for this sublime outburst: "Our heart swells up with gratitude and our voice is choked with emotion, like a muley cow with a turnip in her throat. The world is after all a happy one, and we gaze from the window of our editorial monastery at the sun-kissed landscape, sweet visions of milk and honey, humming birds and molasses, brick cheese and ambrosial nectar dance before our astonished vision like a calf before a circus procession. Last Saturday one of our subscribers came in and paid in cold cash and cold blood, three years arrearage and two years in advance."

"About five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel," says C. T. Chisholm, 484 Dearborn Avenue, Chicago, and although I consulted several eminent physicians who prescribed for me, I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the trouble almost became chronic. After suffering several months, I one day concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had cost me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

DOES ANY ONE KNOW THEM?

We give below a notice asking information about the Coit heirs. Read the card, and respond if you know about them.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 23, 1900.
Dear Sir:—I am looking for the heirs of Mary A., Harriett and Emily A. Coit. They came to your State with their brother, Daniel P. Coit, before 1835. He married and went to Texas in 1835, leaving his sisters in your State. Any information will be received with thanks.

Yours truly,
HENRY MALINGREN.

SPLENDID ADDRESS.

Mr. John L. Amsden, of Versailles, delivered a splendid address at the Y. M. C. A., on Sunday afternoon. His theme was "Will It Pay to Walk With God, and How Can We Walk With Him?" He handled the subject in a masterly manner. It was strong, yet tender and pathetic, and was greatly enjoyed by a large number of gentlemen.

SNOW.

When our citizens awoke on Monday morning they found about two inch of snow covering the face of the ground, and a keen wind blowing. It soon cleared off, however, and the snow vanished as quickly after the sun came out.

ORGANIZED.

The new Democratic County Committee met on Monday morning last, at the courthouse, and organized by the election of Mr. Fred. J. Gordon as Chairman and Mr. Pat. Newman, sr., Secretary.

JOE MULHATTON.

The celebrated Joe Mulhatton, the most universally known and most unmitigated perverticator, has been sent to the Colorado insane asylum. He had recently sold a gold mine which he had owned some time for a large sum. He had been paid a large proportion of the money and was wildly spending it.

DR. HOLMBOE.

Has arrived in the city and taken charge of the business of Dr. Leonard, the dentist, during his illness. Dr. Holmboe is from Maine, and will be pleased to meet all of Dr. Leonard's customers and guarantee satisfaction in all work he does. Call and see him.

$1,000 WORTH OF GOOD.

A. H. Thurness, of Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, with excruciating pain. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good." Take no substitute. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

KIPLING TO WRITE FOR PUSSY'S PURR.

One of Kipling's new "Just-So" stories, which he is now writing for the Ladies' Home Journal, will tell "How Pussy Got Her Purrr." In the same humorous vein the famous author will tell of another feline peculiarity: "How the Tiger Got His Stripes." Kipling loves to write about animals, and to interest children in his stories; but fond as he is of children he will not write "down" to them. He despises the "twaddle" which fills so many books intended for their entertainment, and keeps far away from it in everything he does with his pen; consequently his stories interest men and women as well as delight children.

EDWIN ABBEY'S PICTURE FOR AMERICANS.

Edwin Abbey has accepted a commission to draw a cover for the Ladies' Home Journal. Four or five years ago Mr. Abbey filled a similar engagement, and his picture was the admiration of the illustrators in this country and Europe. He has promised himself to excel even that effort in the forthcoming Journal cover in compliment to his American friends. Mr. Abbey's pictures are so much in demand that it is difficult to get him to lay aside his brush for his pencil—and most costly, too, it may be added.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Serman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

A NOVELETTE ON VIRGINIA LIFE BEFORE THE WAR.

Laura Spencer Porter, a gifted Southern writer, has just completed a serial in which she portrays girl life in the Old Dominion, of the ante-bellum days. Into her story she has woven the social and domestic life of the Virginia gentry, pictured their fetes, festivals, courtships and marriages, giving most interesting glimpses of the descendants of those patrician pioneers who settled on the James. The serial has been secured by the Ladies Home Journal. It will have early publication, under the name of "Those Days in Old Virginia."

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

MISS MERINGTON'S DRAMATIZATION OF "CRANFORD."

Marguerite Merington, the well known dramatist, has converted the famous "Cranford" story of Mrs. Gaskell's into a play for The Ladies' Home Journal. In the evolution she has been remarkably successful in preserving the atmosphere of Cranford, and of most convincingly reproducing the quiet life and the individual, harmless peculiarities of the maiden ladies, and the charm of their courtesy. The play is for amateur presentation.

When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

RE-ELECTED.

At the recent State Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, held at Lexington last week, Rev. M. B. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, was re-elected President for the third time. A well deserved endorsement.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing is requested to call on South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It always gives relief.

ELECTED STATE MANAGER.

Prof. S. L. Frogge, of this city, has been selected as State manager for the Southern Education Society, which meets at Richmond, Va., December 28, 29, 30. This is a compliment worthily bestowed.
