

THE FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Publisher.

A WEEKLY PAPER—DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS: $1.00 In Advance

VOL. XXIV.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1901.

NO. 19

HONEYSUCKLE.

Tobacco shipping is in full blast. The prices realized are very fair.

Mrs. Fannie Mitchell, who has been very much indisposed for the past week, we are glad to say, is improving.

Rumor says we are soon to have a telephone line running through from Bagdad to Frankfort, which will add much to our community.

Mr. Harry Rodgers and family have moved to Lexington. Mr. Rodgers is at work in the L. & N. Yard. Harry is a clever fellow, and we wish him success in his new field of labor.

Well, electioneering is over for a time, and we hope that some of our hard working politicians will rest from their labor. We really think that the strain has been great, carrying extreme loads of tangled feet, and encouraging their candidates by wagering their last dollar. At last Benson precinct was extended over Jacksonville, Bagdad, and clear over in Indiana. If boys wore long pants they were considered a legal voter. A trying campaign it was.

Mr. James Whitman and wife left Monday for a visit to relatives and friends in Lexington.

Mrs. J. H. Sudduth, of Lees-town, is very ill at this writing.

Misses Etta Allison and Naomi Clark are attending school at Frankfort.

Mrs. Pearl Mitchell is visiting relatives on Stoney Creek.

Mr. Sam Hulette and wife have gone to housekeeping in the home formerly occupied by Mr. Hulette. We wish them every success possible all along the voyage of life's rugged sea.

During the present term of the court we truly hope that some effort may be made to punish those who attend social gatherings, yes even religious worship, for the sole purpose of disturbing or committing some low-lived deed to the congregation. At an entertainment, which was given a few weeks ago, there were all sorts of misdemeanors. Horses were deprived of mane and tail; buggy robes cut to pieces, one was stolen; improper language was used, and one horse so badly treated that he died from the effects. Now friends and fellow-citizens, can you tell of anything much worse that has taken place in the mountains amongst those much detested people? If there is any form of law there at all, it is as much enforced as here in Franklin county. Shame and disgrace is hovering over our land, from north to south, by reason of the lack of protection by the office-holders. I am no office-seeker, nor even a politician in particular, but I would scorn to cast a vote for the man that would not do justice to his fellow man, and how could we expect justice for ourselves when he had done himself the injustice of accepting an office to which he had not been justly elected? Awake thou that sleepest, and arouse from your lethargy, and God will give thee light.

Messrs. Floyd and Leslie Young made a business trip to Louisville last Tuesday.

Mr. Tom Hulette has added much to the appearance of his dwelling by a new coat of boxing.

Mr. Warren Pulliam is erecting a new house on his premises, which will soon be complete, the Semonious Bros. contractors.

Mr. Allen Stigers, of Switzer, paid his respects to Miss Etta Allison Saturday night and Sunday. Allen is a handsome young gent, while Miss Etta is a most accomplished lady. Oh, what a couple they would make.

Mr. Elbert Goins, one of our enterprising and prosperous young men, says he enjoys his wagon and team far more than all the pretty girls. That's where you are right, Elbert. Your business is making you money, while the girls are a dead expense.

Mr. John LeCompte has returned from Oklahoma where he has been prospecting for a location.

Well, dear readers, I trust you will excuse mistakes and blunders, as this is my first attempt. As my dear old Uncle Zeke always enjoyed writing to the Roundabout, I thought how proud he would feel if perchance, he should read this, to know that his niece was following in his footsteps, and trying to live a useful life like her old uncle. So wishing our editor a happy new year, I am ever,
MOLLIE YOCUM.

Remember we buy in large quantities, we sell fast, therefore you get fresh, clean, pure, wholesome goods from us at prices which astonish competitors. Langdon-Creasey Co. 19-1t.

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

A verdant youth dropped into a jeweler's and after gazing at some fraternity pins in the show case, said to the proprietor:

"Them's mighty nice breast-pins you got thar, mister."

"What kind of a pin would you like to look at?"

"How much is this one with a pair o' compasses and a squar?" Pointing to a masonic pin.

"Five dollars."

"Five dollars, eh? You haven't got one with any handsaw on it, have you? I'm just outer my time, and as I'm goin' to sot-up as carpenter and jinter, I thought I'd like to have somethin' to wear so folks would know what I was doin'. Well, I'll take it, though I'd like one with a handsaw, but I guess mebbe that's plain enough. The compass is to mark out yer work, and the square is to measure it when marked out, and any durn fool knows that G stands for gimlet."

Standard Granulated Sugar 16½ pounds for $1, at Langdon-Creasey Co. 19-1t.

NEW MANAGER.

Mr. Robt. A. Hancock has been appointed manager of the Langdon-Creasey Co.'s big grocery store in this city to succeed Mr. Ira S. Shy, who has been promoted to a good place in the wholesale establishment of the company in Cincinnati. Mr. Hancock is a thoroughly reliable gentleman and good business man. The company he represents sell goods as low as can be done. We trust Mr. Hancock will be successful in his new work.

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

WEEK OF COMIC OPERA.

The Columbia Comic Opera Company will be the attraction at the Capital Theatre for one week, with Wednesday and Saturday matinee, commencing Monday, January 21st, presenting for that night the ever welcome La Mascotte. Not only does this organization come to us as a success in the field of musical attractions, but it is offered with the assurance that the renditions of the many operas in their repertoire will demonstrate the artistic merits, not only of the ensemble work, but of the principal soloists. In catering to the lovers of music with this company, the management thereof have not been unmindful of the fact that tasteful dressing of the performers is pleasing to the eye of the auditor, and lends much attraction to the sweet music which is food for the ear. This company boasts of two good comedians who interpret the company in an exhilarating way that is refreshing to those who admire clean and wholesome comedy. The Columbia Co. will present during their engagement in Frankfort a popular repertoire of light operas at popular prices which should be appreciated by the musical public. On Monday night, ladies will be admitted free if accompanied by a paid thirty-five cent ticket, which must be secured at the place of advance sale before 6 p. m. of that day. Prices: Gallery, 10c, balcony 20c, lower floor 35c.

Pumpkin pies like mother used to make out of our Golden Pumpkins, 3 cans for 5c at Langdon-Creasey Co. 19-1t.

FORKS OF EKLHORN.

Mr. John Holton, of Shelbyville, was called here this week by the death of Mrs. Joe L. Holton.

Miss Alice French went to Louisville Tuesday last, where she will stay several weeks.

Miss Daisy Hoekensmith is the guest of Miss Florence Easley, at Stamping Ground.

Miss Ella Yates, of Georgetown, attended the funeral of Mrs. Joe L. Holton Tuesday.

Miss Lyda Suter spent last week at Switzer, with Miss Fannie Jones.

Mr. Ervin Moore and wife made a flying trip to Georgetown this week.

Mr. R. L. French, of Monterey, spent part of this week the guest of his brother, Mr. Will French.

Miss Mattie Lucas, of Monterey, is the guest of her mother and father, Mr. M. B. Lucas and wife.

Messrs. Walter and Harry Jeffers gave a social near Steadman-town Tuesday night last.

Mr. Joe L. Holton died Monday morning at 8 o'clock after an illness of only a week, of pneumonia. Her death was a surprise to all in our community. She was a member of Buck Run Church, a dutiful daughter, loving wife and fond mother. She leaves four small children and a broken-hearted husband, mother, two sisters (Mrs. J. H. Polsgrove, Miss Ida Stone) and two brothers (Mr. Te Stone, of the F. & C. Railroad, and Mr. Richard Stone, of Missouri), besides a host of relations and friends, who mourn her loss, but her memory will live with all that knew her, as she was one of those sweet characters that had a pleasant smile and kind word for all. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. E. F. Wright, at Buck Run Church, after which the remains were placed in the cemetery. The afflicted family have the heartfelt sympathy of all the community. A KID.

HUNG JURY.

The jury in the notorious Morrison murder case were unable to agree, and were discharged Wednesday afternoon. It is rumored that they stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal.

A carload of that fine sugar corn went last long at 5c per can. Langdon-Creasey Co. 19-1t.
