A Blue Pencilled Bill of Fare

is that of the dyspeptic. He cannot eat what he likes, or like what he eats.
 He envies the man who eats what he wants, enjoys it, and grows strong on it.

WALTHER'S PEPTONIZED PORT

cures dyspepsia and indigestion in a quick and natural way by strengthening and aiding the digestive organs. It acts on the system generally, giving new blood, new vim and vigor to every part of the body. The first is the pepsin—the second the port. Walther's Peptonized Port is sold in two sizes, 50c. and $1.

WILLIAM YEOMAN. A. W. McKEE.

The Yeoman Carriage Co.

The undersigned, who have heretofore done business under the name of the Sellar Carriage Company, will conduct a carriage manufacturing establishment in all of its departments under the name of Yeoman Carriage Company, in the warehouses on Main street in Versailles, Ky., opposite the Presbyterian Church, and a share of public patronage is solicited.

Our Mr. Yeoman, with the late Henry Heimiller, established this business in 1876, and he assures his patrons that the work he will hereafter do will be on the same high plane with the work he and those with whom he has been heretofore associated have heretofore done.

We will keep on hand at all times a full supply of the best class of vehicles, and now have on hand some of our own make. We are prepared to build new vehicles, and are ready to do all kinds of repairing with the best mechanics obtainable.

Our workmen have been with us for many years—some of them since the business was established—and we can cheerfully guarantee the work they do.

WANTED—BLUE GRASS SOD.

Enough Needed for Grounds Around the Kentucky Building at the World's Fair.

What blue grass farm will furnish the sod for the Kentucky Building lawn at the St. Louis World's Fair? This is a question propounded by the Kentucky World's Fair Commission.

It has been definitely determined to sod the entire lawn around the "New Kentucky Home" at the exposition—an area of 2,500 square yards, exclusive of walks. The commission believes there are many owners of blue grass farms who will agree readily to furnish the sod necessary and it has, therefore, determined to extend an invitation to these gentlemen to supply the amount required.

The commission will pay all freight charges and full credit will be given the farm or farms furnishing the sod. This is a rare opportunity for some farmer to further advertise the fertility of his broad acres. Correspondence on the subject is solicited. All communications should be addressed to R. E. Hughes, Secretary Kentucky World's Fair Commissioner, Louisville.

WELCOME AS SUNSHINE

After a long storm is a feeling of relief when an obstinate, pitiless cold has been driven away by Allen's Lung Balsam. Only people who have been cured of throat-ache and sore lungs by this remedy can quite realize what the feeling is. There is no opium in the Balsam; its good effect is radical and lasting. Take a bottle home today.

BENJAMIN C. MILAM.

building on Main street, Frankfort, spent sixty-five years of toil at his trade, ending his labors only a few hours before his death. The business will be conducted by his son under the same firm name.

Captain Milam was a veteran of the Mexican war; he commanded a company in Humphrey Marshall's Regiment of Kentucky Volunteer Cavalry; and at the head of his command was in the famous charge of cavalry on the Mexican lancers at the battle of Buena Vista. By a strange coincidence, almost at the same hour of his death, Cyrus Calvert, the last surviving member of his company, died at his home, a few miles away, and the two were buried within a few hours of each other in the State Cemetery at Frankfort.

In all the higher qualities of life, Capt. Milam was a man among men. Possessing rare judgment, fortified by an intuitive knowledge of men, and integrity unswayed by even the taint of suspicion, kindly and genial in temperament, prominent in all public enterprises, and with a tender heart and liberal hand, he lightened the burdens of many weary souls by his unostentatious benevolence. Within a year of his death an incident, illustrative of the latter trait, occurred one day while I was in his office. Poised on the propriety of extending aid to a questionable applicant, he solved the matter by remarking, "Well, what are we in this world for except to help others?" and the aid was extended.

OLD SAM.

ROOM LOOKED LIKE A SPORTING GOODS STORE.

Following the arrest and confession of Ernest L. Johnson, an employe of the Simmens Hardware Co., last night, his room at 1310 S. Ange avenue, was searched and over $1,500 worth of stolen goods were found. Johnson was arrested at Sixth and Chestnut streets by Detectives Frese and Crowell while on his way to a pawnshop to dispose of twelve revolvers. Upon being taken before Chief Desmond, Johnson broke down and confessed that he had been stealing from the company for some time. Twenty revolvers valued at $100 and a shotgun valued at $100 were found in pawnshops where he had disposed of them.

Articles of every description were found in Johnson's room. The booty included $30 worth of fishing tackle, hunting boots, rifles, revolvers, dog straps, boxing gloves, baseball gloves, bats, balls and masks, punching bags, leggins, hunting suits, ammunition and everything to be found in a sporting goods store, even to marbles. Johnson implicated another clerk in the theft.

Johnson is 29 years old and has been employed in the Simmens company's wholesale house at Eighth and Spruce streets for nearly four years. He said he contracted a large doctor bill during a spell of sickness several months ago and was stealing and pawning goods to meet it. Johnson's father is said to be a prominent physician of Frankfort, Ky.—St. Louis, Mo., paper.

A CURE FOR ECZEMA.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of scabs, and its hair all came out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured, the scabs are gone and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and its hair is growing beautifully again. I can not give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Fran Farmer, Bluff City, Ky. In buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

PROFITABLE GARDENING

THE early vegetable gets the highest price. If you plant seeds that are prolific as well as early you insure the most profitable results from your garden. That is precisely the kind of seeds you will get here—early and prolific. Every individual seed in our 1904 stock was grown in 1903, and is, therefore, full of vitality. A seed that is left over from year to year loses part of this vitality, hence the necessity of using only absolutely fresh seed for early market vegetables—or for any other purpose for that matter.

Our fresh, vigorous seed cost no more than the doubtful kind, and planting them insures certain success—why take any chances?

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months; the doctors stated he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago, and since then we always kept a bottle in the house. We can not do without it. For coughs and colds, it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at Paul B. Weitzel's.
