THE CIVIC LEAGUE—WORK TO BE DONE.

The ladies of the Civic League desire us to again call attention to the work being done by them in advancing civic cleanliness.

A good many men say they have no time for such things. These ladies say join the Civic League, pay the 25 cents for membership and they will do the rest.

They are arranging to have the Chautauqua Baskets put at convenient places throughout the city, in which trash and litter may be temporarily deposited until it can be properly disposed of.

They are gratified at the evident progress being made in keeping the streets clean; but much more can be done.

As urged by us in our last issue, when the streets are swept, they should be thoroughly sprinkled beforehand and the dirt, when collected in plies in the gutters, should be at once hauled away, not waiting until it can again dry out and be swept about by the winds.

There is no use in talking, if we wish a healthy and attractive city, we must pay attention to these things. It will not do to say, "oh! well! In old times we did not pay so much attention to these things and did well enough!" The truth is, when we had macadamized streets only, they were liberally sprinkled and the resultant mud was scraped up and hauled away.

There is more DUST NOW than ever before, because it cannot sink into the body of the brick streets, and, of course, this makes it more dangerous and causes more disease. Wake up and make Frankfort what she can easily be, the prettiest, cleanest and most attractive city of her size in Kentucky.

LOANED LUMBER.

TUESDAY'S FIRE.

At 5:05 on Tuesday afternoon an alarm from box 23 called the boys to the cottage of Miss Ruby Macklin, on East Broadway street (formerly the F. & C. passenger station), where a blaze was making things lively on the roof.

After a short tussle the flame was extinguished with a loss of some $50 or $100. No insurance.

The house had just been vacated and it is supposed that some trash being burned up caused the fire.

Thirty Days Was My Life's Limit.

Agony From Inherited Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly malady, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony: I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live thirty days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The least exercise, such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. Nerve and Liver Pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the grandest remedies on earth and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."—MRS. L. J. CANTRELL, Waxahachie, Tex.

THE WOMEN ARE TO BLAME FOR IT ALL.

Melville E. Stone, manager of the Associated Press, in an address to the General Federation of Women Suffragists at St. Louis, said: "Let me tell you that the scandal papers of the country are supported by women. No large metropolitan newspaper can live unless it meets the demands of the women." The Binghamton, N. Y. Herald in commenting upon this says:

"Of course, the woman is always to blame for it all. She was the one who gave Adam the forbidden fruit. She is always the one who drives her husband to drink, and evil ways, and who causes him to get gray headed because of her terrible temper. If there is anything particularly wrong in the world it can all be traced back to woman. We did not believe that the sensational newspapers were the outcome of a demand for their existence by the debased female sex of the country, but it seems that such is the case. Epidemics of crime are probably due to the women, and we have no doubt that a careful scrutiny will reveal the fact that all the evil things of which the world complains are the outgrowth of the efforts of the women. We are glad to know that the world is coming to recognize the villain of that terrible sex. In time to come they will get set down on the records just where they belong."

There is more truth in the satirical remarks of the Herald than most people realize. In a recent paper read before the Society for the Study of Inebriety, in London, Dr. Jones made the claim that the chief cause of drunkenness was the bad cooking of housekeepers. He, however, did not explain why this same food did not make drunkards of the women who ate the same food. Another writer recently made the claim that women were the cause of wars, and recently the Male Teachers' Association, of New York City laid the blame of so few boys graduating from the high schools upon the women teachers, claiming that if they were under the instruction of male teachers they would remain in school for a longer time.

Two-thirds of the men lay the blame to the women for the injustice done by not allowing women to express their choice of men and measures at the polls on election day. They tell us the reason they do not allow women to vote is because women do not want to vote and that they are ready to give us the ballot as soon as we manifest any general desire for it. It is the same old spirit of laying all the blame to the women that has been in existence from the time of Adam and we have become so accustomed to it that we seldom stop to consider the ridiculousness of it all.

(From Lexington Leader of June 2d, 1904.)

COUNTRY ESTATES.

In the Blue Grass to be Beautifully Pictured.

That the Blue Grass region of Kentucky is attracting widespread attention is proven by the number of magazine articles that have been written about it, and the number of tourists, writers and newspaper men of distinction who deem this section worthy of personal inspection and investigation.

There have been disconnected attempts in the current periodicals of the North and East to write up the famous stock farms in Fayette, Bourbon and Woodford counties, but this has never been done in an organized and comprehensive way which would prove of real and lasting benefit to the country; so variously exploited. Such representation would do much toward developing Kentucky interests by attracting attention to the beauties and advantages of the Blue Grass region.

Mr. Thomas A. Knight, for fourteen years upon the staff of the Cleveland Leader, with which the editor of the Lexington Leader was at one time connected and in honor of which he christened his paper sixteen years ago, has been in the city for a week or two looking over the field with a view to publishing a volume picturing the beautiful country homes of Kentucky from an artistic and pictorial standpoint, and in a comprehensive way.

His reputation as the compiler and publisher of "Country Estates of Cleveland Men," "Picturesque South Brooklyn," and "Beautiful Lakewood," and as an expert in artistic photography, with wide experience in out-of-door work, promises well for anything of this kind which he may attempt in Kentucky. Mr. Knight was editor for several years of the Interstate Architect and Builder, and is an excellent judge of architectural styles. As traveling correspondent of the Cleveland Leader he became acquainted with many notable men, whose homes he afterward pictured in his books. He accompanied Senator M. A. Hanna in his private car on many of his campaign tours in Ohio.

Mr. Knight's plans for a book on the Blue Grass region are not yet matured, but he is much pleased with his visit here, and has gone so far as to ask the co-operation of Miss Nancy Lewis Greene, in the event such a book is decided upon. Miss Greene's articles in Town and Country have given her reputation as an accurate portrayor of Blue Grass scenes; she is thoroughly familiar with this subject; and accompanying sketches from her pen would enhance the value of such a work as Mr. Knight has in view.

"Country Homes of Cleveland Men," a copy of which Mr. Knight has given the Leader, is a handsome volume and printed upon plate paper, with elegant half-tone illustrations. Among the famous country places pictured, are the old home of President Garfield and the present residence of Mrs. James A. Garfield; "Cottage Hill Farm," the country home of Dan R. Hanna; "Buena Vista," the residence of Frank H. Townsend, and the home of Hon. W. J. White, of Yucatan chewing gum fame, at the noted "Two Minute Farm."

It is the purpose of Mr. Knight to get out an edition de luxe for the Blue Grass region which will excel even his other volumes in point of printing, binding and half-tone work.

Since the above article appeared Mr. Knight has decided definitely to publish the book. Miss Greene has accepted his offer to collaborate in the work, and unless unforeseen contingencies should arise, the result will be the handsomest volume of views that has heretofore been published in America—a volume in fact that will adequately portray and do justice to the incomparable Blue Grass.
