RETIRE AFTER EIGHT YEARS OF HONORABLE SERVICE.

On Monday last, Chief Justice Anthony Rollins Burnam, retired from the position which he had filled with so much honor and ability for the past eight years.

Judge Burnam had a fine reputation as a lawyer before he ascended the bench, and his whole course since then had added brilliancy to that reputation. He has made an eminently fair and impartial judge—administering the law and justice, as he always strove to do, to the best of his ability. He has more than met the expectations of his friends. He has won an enduring place in the hearts of his colleagues, as was evidenced when he retired, by the deep emotion which shook Judge Hobson, when he attempted to make the address of presentation of the silver "loving cup," which had been arranged for.

Judge Burnam can well afford to retire on the laurels won and resume his practice at the bar with a wider range and broader views. We bid him farewell from our city with sincere regret. He returns this week to his old home at Richmond.
